Faith, Hope, and Love Troy DuJardin,M. David Eckel,2022-07-22 These essays consider the three traditional theological virtues faith hope and love alongside their opposites doubt despair and hate from a scholarly perspective The volume includes contributions not just from philosophers of religion but also from psychologists sociologists and film and literature scholars to paint a complex and nuanced picture of these virtues both of how we might understand them and how we can hope to embody them ourselves While these virtues make up a core part of the Christian tradition the chapters here go far and wide in search of different cultural conceptions of these universal human concerns Inquiries are made into these virtues within Hindu Buddhist Jewish and Islamic thought alongside philosophers including Aristotle Hegel Kierkegaard Nietzsche Levinas and Murdoch The resulting tapestry is often beautiful sometimes horrific but always thoroughly human This text appeals to students and researchers working in these fields Chapter 9 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
