Relational Evangelism Dr. Kofi Peter Effa, 2021-11-19 For God so love the world that he gave his one and only Son that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life John 3:16 How then can they call on the one they have not believed in And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard And how can they hear without someone preaching to them or sharing their faith Romans 10:14 Relational evangelism therefore focuses on cultivating and building relationships with non-Christians and unbelieving neighbors with the intent of winning them to Christ Different types of evangelistic methods have been used in past generations However in today's culture of individualism and isolationism relational evangelism provides the best approach to bring people to Christ The truth of the matter is that people normally pay no attention to strangers however they open up once they become comfortable with you through a relationship that has developed over time The clock is fast ticking Christ Jesus is on his way Soldiers of Christ let's get the world saved and be ready for him appearing

Kasper, 2016 Encountering Jesus, Encountering Scripture David Crump, 2013-05-26 Personal experiential faith is seldom given a seat at the table of academic theology and biblical studies David Crump however with the assistance of Sren Kierkegaard's religious philosophy claims that authentic understanding and thus authentic Christian commitment can only arise from the personal commitment that is faith Examining the various biblical historical cultural theological and academic hurdles demanding a truly Kierkegaardian leap of faith before one can meet the resurrected Jesus Crump's Encountering Jesus Encountering Scripture provides a very insightful discussion of key New Testament texts and issues revealing how Truth is discovered only through the subjectivity of faith In the Garden there was a New Tomb Paul Creevey, 2024-11-18 Paul Creevey considers the central question Can one simply assume that the story of the burial empty tomb and appearance narratives in John's Gospel are a literary unity There are many issues in coherence and cohesion that have led to a wide number of interpretations given to many different aspects of the text that is John 19:37-20:29 It is also widely recognized that John's retelling of these events are distinctive Creevey analyses the text of John 19:37-20:29 showing that the Johannine Evangelist has created a two part tripartite defense of two central aspects of Christian faith the case for the empty tomb and the case for the appearance narratives Using internal literary evidence as well as external evidence from the earliest extant manuscripts he argues that this text has been created to show that the testimony and witness of those first disciples is true and is the basis of any future Christian belief This work addresses all the issues in the apparent lack of cohesion and coherence in the text to show that each part of the text is connected to an overall defense of belief in these two central aspects of faith Finally what is at the heart of these two events is the need to accept that it is the relationship that one has to

Jesus and the Father that is central to acceptance of this narrative as an inspired narrative that offers hope for all people

Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus,2004-01-01 The reality of suffering is the greatest challenge to faith in the goodness of creation and the possibility of salvation Edward Schillebeeckx not only takes this into account but dialectically incorporates the reality of suffering into a theology generally defined by its focus on the interrelated themes of creation salvation and eschatological hope In Unbroken Communion Kathleen Anne McManus O P traces the origins of Schillebeeckx's thought its development and its consequences Schillebeeckx grounds his entire theological project in the promise of a divine human future made visible in creation and entrusted to human freedom Because suffering is so tangibly present in human experience it provides the means dialectically of imaging the horizon of our hope It is thus that Schillebeeckx turns suffering into hope
