Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell III, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Faith seeking understanding Nico Vorster, Frederik van Niekerk, 2023-03-01 How did it all begin How do we even start to engage the differences between creation narratives in the Christian Bible and modern scientific theory The authors of this book explore hermeneutic approaches and developments in biblical studies to set the scene for a religious approach This approach is open to the possibility that a literalist approach to Scripture is in fact the most unjustifiable reading of the Bible This may profoundly affect how we view God the cosmos and even ourselves To be able to read the Bible from the perspective of an open present and future paves the way for suppressed uncertainties to be liberated This paves the way for humankind to freely question all things without being enslaved by imposed religious dogma This is not to say that religion has served its purpose but it is far from it With the rise of technological advancements come other social and anthropological problems not to mention the challenge we face on a global scale with climate change et cetera Just as we dare to peek over the edge of a future without religion the authors bring us back to the fundamental teachings of faith traditions Christianity in particular They remind us that the solutions to these challenges are to be found in us becoming better humans Becoming better humans brings us back into the arena of faith traditions When technology may lead to social disconnection and narcissism religion calls for love of self and neighbour Where greed inspired advancements threaten the future of our planet religion teaches us to be in relationship with our environment and to be custodians of it Faith Seeking Understanding John M. Shackleford, 2007 Faith Seeking Understanding promotes the idea that one can approach an understanding of God through the study of science Religious faith and scientific inquiry should not be seen as competitors diametrically opposed to each other but as complementary ways to assist the human quest for knowledge and deeper meaning of existence Science is viewed primarily as a gift from God The author with his background in both science and theology provides the reader with an understanding of human participation in God s creation John Shackleford explores the scientific evidence for a personal loving God in a positive dialogue between Christian faith and science that will be thought provoking for college and university students along with those interested in how science and religious faith intersect BOOK JACKET Yesteryear's Faith Seeking Understanding Philip John Fisk, 2022-06-24 The voices of yesteryear s scholastics are silenced Scholastic distinctions discarded Faith seeking understanding cancelled This book turns to university professors who brought classical medieval Reformation and Renaissance thought to bear on the teaching of the doctrine of providence at the early New England Colleges Their ultimate purpose was to exonerate God from the charge that he was the author even actor of evil Their scholastic method drew from a long and surprisingly ecumenical and philosophical enterprise in the history of the church This book s aim is to let the scholastic approaches to the mystery of divine providence speak for themselves Part One introduces the reader to the art of disputation and provides a guided historical theological tour of scholastic distinctions that were used by doctors of the church to explain issues related to the doctrine of divine providence Part Two invites the reader to follow the author on his journeys to Harvard Yale the College of New Jersey and the College of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations commencement day disputations as he engages in Platonic like dialogues with presidents rectors and students of the New England Colleges While the dialogues are imagined the characters times locations and quoted texts are real A Book of Faith Seeking Understanding Philip John Fisk, 2021-11-23 Far too often the God of the philosophers those who for the most part had no appointment at a university are the primary sources relied upon by many authors nowadays in their approach to the problem of evil These fifty two Lord s day or Sabbath day readings draw the reader into a dialogue with university professors of the late medieval era and sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries The theme of these literary renditions of yesteryear s debates and disputations is the perennial quest by theologians to exonerate God from the charge that he is the author of evil The sophistication and complexity of their scholastic method and solutions to the problem of evil may surprise but hopefully will persuade modern day readers to rethink their own conclusion about the problem and to take up and read university theologians who were formerly unknown all in the spirit of Anselm s faith seeking understanding THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH: FAITH SEEKING RELATEDNESS George Gammack, 2015-08-13 We all know what church is Likewise we are provided with a supply of set notions for God Christ and the Bible which make up the stock in trade equipment for both believer and non believer This study asks fundamental questions about all these

from a relational perspective attempting to illumine the faith quest by way of clues from the common realities of human interaction In this it is the appropriate provisions of relationships rather than the assent to doctrines that forms the spiritual basis of community Such a theology of relatedness is urgently needed We must come out of our creedal closets to be part of a new diaspora This demands a secret discipline of servant relationship at work in that no man s land where there is space for all manner of secular saints and doctrinal devils to discover the possibilities of their togetherness the secret service church in odd places and often strange company

Faith Seeking Understanding ,2011 How to Read Karl Barth George Hunsinger,1993-04-29 This critical study decodes the most cryptic and elusive patterns of Karl Barth s dialectic Hunsinger not only offers a new and authoritative interpretation of Barth s mature theology but also places Barth s work in relation to contemporary discussions of truth justified belief double agency and religious pluralism Through a fresh and compelling reading of Church Dogmatics Hunsinger offers a new account of the coherence of that work as a whole

Faith and Understanding Paul Helm,1997 Faith and Understanding is the first book length study of the age old effort to understand Christianity from both the sides of faith and reason looking at the work done by such figures as Augustine Anselm John Calvin and Jonathan Edwards

Thinking Faith Anthony J. Kelly,2017-11-01 The title of this collection of essays is Thinking Faith Moods Methods and Mystery and it might need a word of explanation The aim is to suggest something of what is involved in thinking faith while indicating examples of my modest contribution over all these years Given the exuberant data of faith beliefs doctrines and tradition the task of the theologian is always to reflect on what is so richly given and to communicate in the most telling fashion its meaning There are certainly moods that colour the way we think even though theological writing must show an intellectual concentration of some kind That is quite compatible with a great variety of approaches sometimes more hopeful sometimes more sober defensive and argumentative There is also the question of methods The strange thing about a particular theological method or style of thought is that it is seldom an explicit series of procedures It is something more spontaneous and formed through the practices of many years Quite clearly in this collection of writings a number of methods is implied Whatever the mood whatever the method the mystery remains of God Christ and who we are in that light To this degree theology is a way of thinking within mystery not outside it In this respect doing theology is humbling for us theologians when confronted with the limited span of our knowledge and our poor capacities to express it There always remain infinite expanses of what is not yet given us to see so to leave theologians inarticulate in splendid defeat And yet so much has been given even in the most routine life of the Church in its Scriptures its sacraments and in the luminous witness of the many who have gone before us and live now in the light

Faith and Philosophy Jerry H. Gill, 2021-10-11 The ancient religious thinker Tertullian asked What has Athens to do with Jerusalem implying that faith and philosophy have nothing to say to each other The history of this dialogue has shaped the intellectual dialogue from the very beginning right up to the present In this book Jerry H Gill has traced the dynamics of this dialogue and in the conclusion he has offered his own answer to the questions it raises

Faith and Struggle on Smokey Mountain Benigno P. Beltran, 2012 Smokey Mountain the vast garbage dump in Manila has served for many years as an emblem of third world squalor In many ways it is a metaphor for a planet slowly choking on garbage and waste But for Fr Beltran who served for three decades as a chaplain to the scavengers who survive off this reeking heap it is also a metaphor of hope an emblem of the will to survive the ability to create joy and find meaning even in the midst of abject poverty Faith and Struggle on Smokey Mountain describes the spiritual resilience of the scavengers of Smokey Mountain and how they taught Beltran to read the Gospel with new eyes The lessons he learned bear a message for all who struggle for a better world

Reasoning from Faith Justin Sands, 2018-01-16 An enlightening commentary on Merold Westphal s intricate thought and provokes new questions concerning the original project of his diverse philosophy B Keith Putt editor of The Future of Continental Philosophy of Religion Merold Westphal is considered to be one of the preeminent Continental philosophers of religion His articulation of faith as the task of a lifetime has become a touchstone in contemporary debates concerning faith s relationship to reason As Justin Sands explores his philosophy he illuminates how Westphal s concept of faith reveals the pastoral theological intent behind his thinking Sands sees Westphal s philosophy as a powerful articulation of Protestant theology but one that is in ecumenical dialogue with questions concerning apologetics and faith s relationship to ethics and responsibility a more Catholic point of view By bringing out these features in Westphal s philosophy Sands intends to find core philosophical methodologies as well as a passable bridge for philosophers to cross over into theological discourses An engaging and illuminating work
