The Church Made Strange for the Nations Paul G. Doerksen,Karl Koop,2011-09-22 Christians have sometimes professed that the church ought to be in the world but not of it yet the meaning and significance of this conviction has continued to challenge and confound In the context of persecution Christians in the ancient world tended to distance themselves from the social and civic mainstream while in the medieval and early modern periods the church and secular authorities often worked in close relationship sharing the role of shaping society In a post Christendom era this latter arrangement has been heavily critiqued and largely dismantled but
