Headless Victory:

All Cracked Up Patsy Clairmont, 2009-09-14 Sometimes if we try we can disconnect from tough problems around us but eventually the network of fractures spreads to our front doors when a husband walks out a loved one is arrested a friend betrays us a church splits a job is terminated a diagnosis is bad or a financial picture worsens Suddenly with no place to hide from the reality we realize life is all cracked up Through the lens of our pain everything seems broken bruised and battered But as best selling author Patsy Clairmont points out there s a redeemer of our pain Jesus The Redeemer of the broken and discarded who mends our hearts and even gives us a reason to laugh again Telling inspirational stories of women s brokenness and healing with tenderness and her trademark humor Patsy Clairmont helps us realize that we re not alone in our struggles Jesus buoys our spirits and refreshes our tired minds As Patsy says life is so much easier to bear when its shared mystery and detective fan magazines that have been published through 1981 Added to it are indexes of many magazines of related nature This includes magazines that are primarily oriented to boys book collecting the paperbacks and the pulp magazine hero characters since these all have a place in the mystery and detective genre Animal Psalms - Poems Alfred Nicol,2016-05-30 Alfred Nicol s Animal Psalms begins with the baseball field s organized uncertainties and continues on many a trajectory of animal ruminations with the human species well accounted for ending in the imbalance of the everyday Nuts around us The subjects include the elephant snake sheep skunk bee couple dynamics the trials and triumphs of the ruler or the everyman This is a collection rich in aphorisms on the bright and shady spectra of our interactions Recognizable soliloquies with the meditative self or dialogues with the beloved are unraveled for keen insights on the human condition deconstructing them until the knotty connecting threads are exposed Nicol gives us a mature collection of quiet reflection with wit and wisdom deployed through finely crafted poems of masterly formal dexterity PRAISE FOR ANIMAL PSALMS Dear reader I've fallen in love with this book and that will happen to you too Read for instance the very last poem Nuts and read the great How to Ignore an Invisible Man and you're hooked forever Read all the rest these poems by Alfred Nicol which have our numbers and have his own too that tell about our lives and his and the lives of snakes and bees and elephants with such humor and pity and praise for all of us human and animal in our situations It's impossible not to fall in love David Ferry author of Bewilderment winner of the National Book Award As the title Animal Psalms suggests there is reverence here a reverence that derives less from religion than from a religious attention to the things of the world from baseball games to zoo elephants to the newly beloved Nicol is a melodic writer called first to the music of words to speech that lets the sound carry the greater part of what is said He's also a poet whose images you won't soon forget They summon the real world and simultaneously render it otherworldly While the poems offer moments of ecstatic escape they're more often held in check by an Augustan wit ironic humor and a touch of Baudelaire Poise and wit prevail in these psalms they give us both despair inflected by light and illumination held fast by darkness Erica Funkhouser author of Earthly If we would only take the time to let one of Alfred Nicol's poems sink in through the brilliant latticed grid of its formal exterior how the truth of what he has to say about the human condition would hit us the way a line drive whips toward you on a dreamy summer's afternoon startling you back into the electric now I love these poems because they evoke for me the zany spiritual energy of the Beats welded as only a workman can work unwieldy things to the tempered grid of six centuries of formalism Don't be surprised if after reading these poems you find them turning back to their true subject dear reader which turns out to be none other than you Paul Mariani author of Epitaphs for the Journey Teaching, 1915
