In the Presence of Each Other Johanna C. Kuyvenhoven,2009-05-23 There can be little doubt that pedagogical practices have increasingly become focused on reading and writing in childhood education In the Presence of Each Other is a brilliant ethnography that examines the educational benefits of the use of oral storytelling in the classroom and the ways in which non print literacy enhances children s overall language and communication capacities Presenting a strong argument based on compelling evidence for the incorporation of oral practices in the classroom Johanna Kuyvenhoven follows a group of children in grades four and five as they forge an inclusive learning environment that respects linguistic social and ethnic diversity by sharing stories out loud She traces the positive effects that oral storytelling has on children s vocabularies writing skills as well as for problem solving abilities and empathetic responses that are essential to learning across the disciplines In the Presence of Each Other is a ground breaking work not only for educators but also for anyone interested in the practice of storytelling

Engaging Community through Storytelling Sherry Norfolk,Jane Stenson,2017-07-25 This exploration of model storytelling projects shows librarians how to expand their roles as keepers of the stories while strengthening their communities Community life is built on its stories Our history and culture those of society and of individuals are passed from generation to generation through stories Engaging Community through Storytelling Library and Community Programming examines a wide variety of model storytelling projects across the country reflecting how storytelling can encourage community attachment identity and expression in libraries community centers and schools The contributed essays written by experts in their fields many of whom served as developer fundraiser director and implementer of their project provide detailed information about the inner workings of a wide variety of model storytelling projects from across the country The authors delineate the need scope and audience for each project and offer riveting anecdotes that evaluate the success of that project Many of the articles are accompanied by one or more photographs documenting the work or practical how to do it guides to encourage and enable replication Thoughtful commentary on and review of the key concepts in each chapter are provided by the book's editors

The Healing Heart—Families Allison M. Cox, David H. Albert, 2009-03-01 Stories and narratives aimed at helping families work through an array of subjects like health illness grief adoption sexual identity and school The Healing Heart provides powerful examples of the use of stories and storytelling in encouraging resiliency empathy respect and healing These engaging books contain stories and narratives about the use of the stories in activities with different populations children teens those with disabilities seniors inmates etc or which address specific social or community problems addictions poverty violence racism environmental degradation homelessness abuse The books are a collective effort containing the expertise of more than 60 storytellers and health professionals who illustrate the power of story in moving others to commitment and action in building self esteem and mutual respect The Healing Heart Families focuses on families dealing specifically with healing through story health promotion disease prevention early childhood intervention children with medical problems adopting families schools sexual identities grief and spiritual healing The Healing Heart Communities focuses on community building with sections on youth violence prevention poverty domestic violence substance abuse and addiction racism elders culture environmental protection homelessness and community development Praise for The Healing Heart Families Both children and adults sick or well need the embrace of soulful storytelling They need to witness and be witnessed for it is in this state that healing occurs If newscasters were to read aloud each night to their listeners for 1 001 nights one of the stories from this treasury we would all be healed and lose our fear recapturing real security in our homeland N Michael Murphy MD author of The Wisdom of Dying An extraordinary work Hit the bulls eye by providing both process and practice Thought provoking and insightful theory is intertwined with appropriate stories for direct application It makes clear that story can be a powerful catalyst for change giving eloquent voice to what many of us have known for some time but have been unable to express What a gift for those who work with families Elizabeth Ellis co author of Inviting the Wolf In Thinking about Difficult Stories

Local Ownership of Peacebuilding in Afghanistan Chuck Thiessen, 2013-11-08 The international community has followed up its 2001 invasion of Afghanistan with a complex multi faceted peacebuilding project However informed observers believe that this Western led mission in Afghanistan has failed to address the inherent peacebuilding needs of Afghanistan and has hindered the formation of a locally experienced sustainable peace In response emerging peacebuilding theories and rhetoric have pointed to an urgent need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and strategies that hold local Afghan ownership of peacebuilding activities as a central concern This book responds to this need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and 1 introduces the topic of local ownership of peacebuilding in Afghanistan 2 surveys current shifts in peacebuilding theory and practice that are only starting to be realized on the ground 3 sets the context for a discussion of local ownership of peacebuilding 4 reports on the perceptions of foreign and Afghan peacebuilding leaders working in Afghanistan in regards to the journey towards local ownership of peacebuilding and 5 suggests the creation of a locally designed and led conflict transformation system that might help restructure local foreign relations and advance the journey towards Afghan ownership of peacebuilding
