Healing Quilt:

The Healing Quilt Lauraine Snelling, 2009-02-19 After her Aunt Teza's test results turn out to be inconclusive Dot Cooper resolves to raise money for a new mammogram machine through the creation and auction of a magnificent king sized quilt to be sewn by the women of Jefferson City Dot's efforts quickly draw the support of disparate members of the community including newcomer Beth Donnelly married to a local pastor Elaine Giovanni the stylish wife of a local surgeon and an ailing Aunt Teza But as the four different generations work the squares of the quilt they are also confronted with ragged pieces of their own lives Though the women could not be more different on the surface they hold in common quiet suffering triggered by painful circumstances the death of children the abandonment of husbands the loneliness of depression Yet their struggles will bring them closer together than they ever could have anticipated and their lives will be dramatically changed as together they experience the curative powers of The Healing Quilt The Healing Quilt Wanda E.

Wood,2021-04-22 Throughout the 21st century various craft practices have drawn the attention of academics and the general public in the West In Craft is Political D Wood has gathered a collection of essays to argue that this attention is a direct response to and critique of the particular economic social and technological contexts in which we live Just as Ruskin and Morris viewed craft and its ethos in the 1800s as a kind of political opposition to the Industrial Revolution Wood and her authors contend that current craft activities are politically saturated when perspectives from the Global South Indigenous ideology and even Western government policy are examined Craft is Political argues that a holistic perspective on craft in light of colonialism post colonialism critical race theory and globalisation is overdue A great diversity of case studies is included from craft and design in Turkey and craft markets in New Zealand to Indigenous practitioners in Taiwan and Finnish craft education Craft is Political brings together authors from a variety of disciplines and nations to consider politicised craft I Call My New Lung Tina Shirley E.
