Helping Out Childrens Labor In Ethnic Business:

Helping Out Miri Song, 2010-06-30 An examination of children's work roles in ethnic businesses Children In Families Julia Brannen, Margaret O'Brien, 2002-11 This work argues that children's needs have often been neglected in the social sciences especially in the areas of law social policy and sociology It presents empirical research on children in contemporary family settings and provides suggestions for future research and policy initiatives The Modern Family Business L. Collins, L. Grisoni, J. Tucker, C. Seaman, S. Graham, R. Fakoussa, D. Otten, 2016-01-18 Provides real world studies of the family in business by observing typical firms rather than dynasties It looks at how the nature of family business is changing in our times and provides insight into the lessons we can learn from this The book focuses on the impact for the professional non family manager Global Mixed Race Rebecca C. King-O'Riain, Stephen Small, Minelle Mahtani, Miri Song, Paul Spickard, 2014-03-14 Patterns of migration and the forces of globalization have brought the issues of mixed race to the public in far more visible far more dramatic ways than ever before Global Mixed Race examines the contemporary experiences of people of mixed descent in nations around the world moving beyond US borders to explore the dynamics of racial mixing and multiple descent in Zambia Trinidad and Tobago Mexico Brazil Kazakhstan Germany the United Kingdom Canada Okinawa Australia and New Zealand In particular the volume's editors ask how have new global flows of ideas goods and people affected the lives and social placements of people of mixed descent Thirteen original chapters address the ways mixed race individuals defy bolster speak and live racial categorization paying attention to the ways that these experiences help us think through how we see and engage with social differences The contributors also highlight how mixed race people can sometimes be used as emblems of multiculturalism and how these identities are commodified within global capitalism while still considered by some as not pure or inauthentic A strikingly original study Global Mixed Race carefully and comprehensively considers the many different meanings of racial mixedness A Companion to Korean American Studies Rachael Miyung Joo, Shelley Sang-Hee Lee, 2018-06-12 A Companion to Korean American Studies presents interdisciplinary works from a number of authors who have contributed to the field of Korean American Studies This collection ranges from chapters detailing the histories of Korean migration to the United States to contemporary flows of popular culture between South Korea and the United States The authors present on Korean American history gender relations cultural formations social relations and politics Contributors are Sohyun An Chinbo Chong Angie Y Chung Rhoanne Esteban Sue Je Lee Gage Hahrie Han Jane Hong Michael Hurt Rachael Miyung Joo Jane Junn Miliann Kang Ann H Kim Anthony Yooshin Kim Eleana Kim Jinwon Kim Ju Yon Kim Kevin Y Kim Nadia Y Kim Soo Mee Kim Robert Ji Song Ku EunSook Lee Se Hwa Lee S Heijin Lee Shelley Sang Hee Lee John Lie Pei te Lien Kimberly McKee Pyong Gap Min Arissa H Oh Edward J W Park Jerry Z Park Josephine Nock Hee Park Margaret Rhee and Kenneth Vaughan Rethinking 'Mixed Race' David Parker, Miri Song, 2001-05-20 One of the fastest growing ethnic populations in many Western societies is that of people of mixed descent

However when talking about multicultural societies or mixed race the discussion usually focuses on people of black and white heritage The contributors to this collection rectify this with a broad and pluralistic approach to the experiences of mixed race people in Britain and the USA The contributors argue that people of mixed descent reveal the arbitrary and contested logic of categorisation underpinning racial divisions Falling outside the prevailing definitions of racialised identities their histories and experiences illuminate the complexities of identity formation in the contemporary multicultural context The authors examine a range of issues These include gender transracial and intercountry adoptions in Britain and the US interracial partnering and marriage mixed race and family in the English African diaspora theorising of mixed race that transcends the black white binary and includes explorations of mixtures among non white minority groups and the social and political evolution of multiracial panethnicity

The Purchase of Intimacy Viviana A. Zelizer, 2009-02-09 In their personal lives people consider it essential to separate economics and intimacy We have for example a long standing taboo against workplace romance while we see marital love as different from prostitution because it is not a fundamentally financial exchange In The Purchase of Intimacy Viviana Zelizer mounts a provocative challenge to this view Getting to the heart of one of life's greatest taboos she shows how we all use economic activity to create maintain and renegotiate important ties especially intimate ties to other people In everyday life we invest intense effort and worry to strike the right balance For example when a wife's income equals or surpasses her husband's how much more time should the man devote to household chores or child care Sometimes legal disputes arise Should the surviving partner in a same sex relationship have received compensation for a partner's death as a result of 9/11 Through a host of compelling examples Zelizer shows us why price is central to three key areas of intimacy sexually tinged relations health care by family members friends and professionals and household economics She draws both on research and materials ranging from reports on compensation to survivors of 9/11 victims to financial management Web sites and advice books for same sex couples From the bedroom to the courtroom The Purchase of Intimacy opens a fascinating new window on the inner workings of the economic processes that pervade our private lives

New Perspectives on Mutual Dependency in Care-Giving Adéla Souralová, 2016-03-09 Many scholars see caregiving relationships as being based on mutual dependency or interdependency Extensively cited notions of the global care chain or international division of reproductive labour have prepared the ground for analysis of global interdependencies in several domains This book goes further by taking mutual dependency as a starting point for analysing all relationships Using the example of Vietnamese families in the Czech Republic and the Czech native nannies it shows how paid caregiving is contextualized in terms of various relationships between three types of actors employer employee caring for the child and mother child All of these ties are based on ontologically different principles and each of them operates as a piece of a puzzle which is meaningful only in relation to each other Souralová considers caregiving to be a formative activity that establishes ties between the concerned actors whose subjectivities are mutually shaped in the daily practice of caregiving With its stress on mutuality in care work this ground breaking book illuminates the new forms of interpersonal interethnic and intergenerational relationships and highlights the mechanisms and processes in which kinship ties are negotiated and reproduced departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences Almost All Aliens Paul Spickard,Francisco Beltrán,Laura Hooton,2022-09-15 Almost All Aliens offers a unique reinterpretation of immigration in the history of the United States Setting aside the European migrant centered melting pot model of immigrant assimilation Paul Spickard Francisco Beltr n and Laura Hooton put forward a fresh and provocative reconceptualization that embraces the multicultural racialized and colonially inflected reality of immigration that has always existed in the United States Their astute study illustrates the complex relationship between ethnic identity and race slavery and colonial expansion Examining the lives of those who crossed the Atlantic as well as those who crossed the Pacific the Caribbean and the North American Borderlands Almost All Aliens provides a distinct inclusive and critical analysis of immigration race and identity in the United States from 1600 until the present The second edition updates Almost All Aliens through the first two decades of the twenty first century recounting and analyzing the massive changes in immigration policy the reception of immigrants and immigrant experiences that whipsawed back and forth throughout the era It includes a new final chapter that brings the story up to the present day This book will appeal to students and researchers alike studying the history of immigration race and colonialism in the United States as well as those interested in American identity especially in the context of the early twenty first century Adult

Supervision Required Markella B. Rutherford,2011-08-03 Adult Supervision Required considers the contradictory ways in which contemporary American culture has imagined individual autonomy for parents and children In many ways today s parents and children have more freedom than ever before There is widespread respect for children s autonomy as distinct individuals and a broad range of parenting styles are flourishing Yet it may also be fair to say that there is an unprecedented fear of children s and parents freedom Dread about Amber Alerts and stranger danger have put an end to the unsupervised outdoor play enjoyed by earlier generations of suburban kids Similarly fear of bad parenting has not only given rise to a cottage industry of advice books for anxious parents but has also granted state agencies greater power to police the family Using popular parenting advice literature as a springboard for a broader sociological analysis of the American family Markella B Rutherford explores how our increasingly psychological conception of the family might be jeopardizing our appreciation for parents and children s public lives and civil liberties Race in Mind Paul Spickard,2015-11-19 These essays analyze how race affects people s lives and relationships in all settings from the United States to Great Britain and from Hawai i to Chinese Central Asia They contemplate the racial positions in various societies of people called Black and people called White of Asians and Pacific Islanders and especially of those people whose racial ancestries and identifications are multiple Here for the first time are Spickard s trenchant analyses of the creation of race in the South Pacific of DNA testing for racial ancestry and of the meaning of multiplicity in the age of Barack Obama Researching Race and Racism Martin Bulmer,John Solomos,2004 This new work brings together contributions from some of the leading researchers in the field using the benefit of their experience to explore the practical and ethical issues involved in researching in this often controversial field Emergent Spaces Petra Kuppinger,2022-01-01 This book explores different emergent spaces where diverse urbanites spontaneously negotiate make and remake urban spaces create opportunities produce social change challenge urban life culture and politics or simply ask for their right to the city The focus of this book is on spaces and contexts where change is seeded regardless of whether it was planned and whether it was or will be successful in the end Contributors analyze the seeds of change at their very inception in diverse cultural contexts across four continents How do small groups of ordinary and often also disenfranchised people design suggest and implement ideas of change How do they use and remake small urban spaces to better suit their purposes voice claims to the city create opportunities and design better urban lives and futures The emphasis of this volume is not on the nature of activities and change but on the minute processes of initiating change Communication Yearbook 38 Elisia L. Cohen,2014-05-09 Communication Yearbook 38 continues the tradition of publishing state of the discipline literature reviews and essays Editor Elisia Cohen presents a volume that is highly international and interdisciplinary in scope with authors and chapters representing the broad global interests of the International Communication Association The contents include summaries of communication research programs that represent the most innovative work currently Offering a blend of chapters emphasizing timely disciplinary concerns and enduring theoretical questions this volume will be valuable to scholars throughout communication studies
