

A Mate Can Do No Wrong

We learnt the creed at Hungerford,
We learnt the creed at Bourke;
We learnt it in the good times
And learnt it out of work.
We learnt it by the harbour-side
And on the billabong:
"No matter what a mate may do,
A mate can do no wrong!"
He's like a king in this respect
(No matter what they do),
And, king-like, shares in storm and shine
The Throne of Life with you.
We learnt it when we were in gaol
And put it in a song:
"No matter what a mate may do,
A mate can do no wrong!"
They'll say he said a bitter word
When he's away or dead.
We're loyal to his memory,
No matter what he said.
And we should never hesitate,
But strike out good and strong,
And jolt the slanderer on the jaw —
A mate can do no wrong !

Selected Poems of Henry Lawson Henry Lawson, 2021-11-09

Henry Lawson's Selected Poems of Henry Lawson is a captivating collection of poems that transport readers to the Australian outback through vivid descriptions of the harsh realities faced by the early settlers. Lawson's writing style is characterized by its simplicity and authenticity, allowing readers to emotionally connect with the characters and settings depicted in his works. The poems in this collection touch on universal themes such as love, loss, and the struggle for survival, making them relatable to readers from all walks of life. Lawson's ability to evoke a sense of nostalgia and longing for a bygone era is truly remarkable, making this collection a timeless classic in Australian literature.

Henry Lawson, a renowned Australian writer, drew inspiration for his poems from his own experiences growing up in the Australian bush. His deep connection to the land and its people is evident in his writing, which reflects the hardships and triumphs of the early pioneers. Lawson's keen observations and keen eye for detail set him apart as a literary giant in Australian literature, and his legacy continues to inspire writers to this day. I highly recommend Selected Poems of Henry Lawson to readers who appreciate poignant storytelling, rich imagery, and a deep exploration of the human experience. This collection offers a glimpse into the soul of Australia and is a must-read for anyone interested in the country's literary history.

The Best of Henry Lawson Andrew Barton Paterson, Henry Lawson, 1997. Favourite poems illustrated with engravings.

Henry Lawson Poems Henry Lawson, 2010-01-31. A stunning collection from one of Australia's favourite poets. Readers have long embraced the passionate energy of Henry Lawson's poems; this collection of 177 poems showcases the very best of Lawson's heart-rendering tales of the human condition, rousing poems of social protest, images of comic characters, and classic portraits such as Middleton's rouseabout, as well as some of Lawson's lesser-known works, including the poignant verse addressed to his lost love, Hannah Thornburn. Henry Lawson was a man burdened by poverty and deafness and haunted by the specters of alcoholism and madness. Against his tortured life, the spirit, humour, and understanding evident in this collection show the breadth of Lawson's achievement and demonstrate why he has endured as one of Australia's great poets. Poems listed in chronological order with title and first line indices.
