N. Henderson, 2013-08 A student friendly text that tells the story of the development of the Andean republics and their people by emphasizing the themes of continuity and change over time Henderson presents a succinct narrative approach to Andean history that limits details about political coups and instead focuses on broader comparative social and culture aspects Provided by publisher      Strangers on Familiar Soil Edward Dallam Melillo, 2015-10-20 This groundbreaking history explores the many unrecognized enduring linkages between the state of California and the country of Chile The book begins in 1786 when a French expedition brought the potato from Chile to California and it concludes with Chilean president Michelle Bachelet's diplomatic visit to the Golden State in 2008 During the intervening centuries new crops foods fertilizers mining technologies laborers and ideas from Chile radically altered California's development In turn Californian systems of servitude exotic species educational programs and capitalist development strategies dramatically shaped Chilean history Edward Dallam Melillo develops a new set of historical perspectives tracing eastward moving trends in U S history uncovering South American influences on North America's development and reframing the Western Hemisphere from a Pacific vantage point His innovative approach yields transnational insights and recovers long forgotten connections between the peoples and ecosystems of Chile and California      Political Suicide in Latin America James Dunkerley, 1992-02-17 Over recent years James Dunkerley has established a reputation as one of the most thoughtful and eloquent writers on Latin America In his latest book he investigates the high incidence of political suicide in the subcontinent A sensitive and revealing essay details a number of case studies the still disputed death of Chilean President Salvador Allende during Pinochet's storming of the Moneda Palace in 1973 the case of the Salvadorean guerrilla leader Salvador Cayetano Carpio who shot himself in the heart in April 1983 the death of Brazilian President Getulio Vargas who declared in April 1954 that he would only leave the presidential palace dead and a few days later did so Bolivian President German Busch who died at his own hand aged thirty five in 1939 and the dramatic end of Eduardo Chibas founder of the Cuban People's Party who shot himself live on Havana radio in 1951 in the pieces which follow Dunkerley employs his customary acuity to range over the implications of the Sandinista defeat in Nicaragua the plight of El Salvador the modern history of Bolivia the experience of postwar Guatemala and in a coruscating broadside the politics of the Peruvian novelist and the presidential candidate Mario Vargas Llosa      Peasant Cooperation and Capitalist Expansion in Central Peru Norman Long, Bryan R. Roberts, 2014-11-06

This book brings together the research into regional development and social change carried out in highland Peru by a team of British and Latin American social anthropologists and sociologists. The area studied, the Mantaro Valley of central Peru, is one of the most densely populated and economically differentiated of highland zones; it is also notable for its community-based forms of cooperation and its high level of peasant political activity. The book presents a series of case studies that examine cooperative forms of organization in relation to developments in the regional economy and to changes in national policy. The analysis attempts to avoid interpreting local processes merely as responses to externally initiated change. It stresses instead the need to consider the interplay of local and national forces because local groups and processes themselves affect the pattern of regional and national development. The case studies cover a range of political and economic topics from peasant movements to the achievements and shortcomings of government-sponsored agricultural and manufacturing cooperatives. The concluding chapter by the editors explores the theoretical implications of these studies.

Ghosts of Gold Mountain Gordon H. Chang, 2019 Guangdong Gold Mountain Central Pacific Foothills The High Sierra The Summit The Strike Truckee The Golden Spike Beyond Promontory      Empire's Tracks Manu Karuka, 2019-03-05
Empire's Tracks boldly reframes the history of the transcontinental railroad from the perspectives of the Cheyenne, Lakota, and Pawnee Native American tribes and the Chinese migrants who toiled on its path. In this meticulously researched book, Manu Karuka situates the railroad within the violent global histories of colonialism and capitalism. Through an examination of legislative, military, and business records, Karuka deftly explains the imperial foundations of U.S. political economy. Tracing the shared paths of Indigenous and Asian American histories, this multisited interdisciplinary study connects military occupation to exclusionary border policies, a linked chain spanning the heart of U.S. imperialism. This highly original and beautifully wrought book unveils how the transcontinental railroad laid the tracks of the U.S. Empire.      The Alchemy of Air Thomas Hager, 2009-08-18 A sweeping history of tragic genius, cutting-edge science, and the Haber-Bosch discovery that changed billions of lives, including your own. At the dawn of the twentieth century, humanity was facing global disaster. Mass starvation was about to become a reality. A call went out to the world's scientists to find a solution. This is the story of the two men who found it: brilliant, self-important Fritz Haber and reclusive alcoholic Carl Bosch. Together they discovered a way to make bread out of air, built city-sized factories, and saved millions of lives. But their epochal triumph came at a price we are still paying. The Haber-Bosch process was also used to make the gunpowder and explosives that killed millions during the two world wars. Both men were vilified during their lives, both disillusioned and disgraced, died tragically. The Alchemy of Air is the extraordinary, previously untold story of a discovery that changed the way we grow food and the way we make war, and that promises to continue shaping our lives in fundamental and dramatic ways.      Epidemics and Pandemics Jo N. Hays, 2005-12-12 Balancing current and historical issues, this volume of essays covers the most significant worldwide epidemics from the Black Death to AIDS.
