Adrienne Kennedy has been a force in American theatre since the early 1960s influencing generations of playwrights with her hauntingly fragmentary lyrical dramas Exploring the violence racism visits upon people's lives Kennedy's plays express poetic alienation transcending the particulars of character and plot through ritualistic repetition and radical structural experimentation Frequently produced read and taught they continue to hold a significant place among the most exciting dramas of the past fifty years This first comprehensive collection of her most important works traces the development of Kennedy's unique theatrical oeuvre from her Obie winning Funnyhouse of a Negro 1964 through significant later works such as A Movie Star Has to Star in Black and White 1976 Ohio State Murders 1992 and June and Jean in Concert for which she won an Obie in 1996 The entire contents of Kennedy's groundbreaking collections In One Act and The Alexander Plays are included as is her earliest work Because of the King of France and the play An Evening with Dead Essex 1972 More recent prose writings Secret Paragraphs about My Brother A Letter to Flowers and Sisters Etta and Ella are fascinating refractions of the themes and motifs of her dramatic works even while they explore new material on teaching and writing An introduction by Werner Sollors provides a valuable overview of Kennedy's career and the trajectory of her literary development
