Reckoning with Aggression Kathleen J. Greider, 1997-01-01 Aggression is ambiguous in our society according to Kathleen Greider While giving us strength to fight the world's social ills or to create vital and powerful lives aggression can also lead to rage and violence Thus society has often viewed aggression as evil or sinful Greider wants Christians to repair their view of aggression and realize that aggression is what can spur them to make the world better In exploring aggression from feminist pastoral and theological perspectives Greider examines the relationships between violence and vitality passion and aggression and finds that Christians can be strong without being destructive The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task It Takes Two Andrew D. Hudgins, 2014-01-07 What does Jesus mean when he says A disciple is not above his teacher but each disciple after being fully trained will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 This verse has been quoted cited and referenced in vast amounts of Christian education and discipleship literature Nevertheless the verse is nearly untouched in exegetical discussions with the exception of source critical analyses From this verse arises an undeveloped theme in the Gospel of Luke and the New Testament the theme of likeness education Using content analysis methodology Luke 6 40 one of the keystone passages in Christian education literature serves as the starting point for mining out the theme of likeness education in the

Forgiving Your Family Kathleen Fischer, 2005-04-01 Why is it that the people closest to us often cause the deepest most wrenching pain Family can either provide restful refuge or prompt you to find it elsewhere A quick channel surf through daytime television illustrates that From the petty irritation to the grievous wrong forgiving is one of the hardest tasks families face The gospel calls us to love and forgive others Ironically the closer we are to people the harder it is to forgive them After all we count on these people to love and accept us unconditionally But family behavior is far from flawless Spouses quarrel siblings pout grandparents criticize cousins judge When the last nerve frays look out A house of love quickly turns into a house of pain Family experiences are a mixture of beauty and tragedy writes Fischer When we grasp this truth we understand why forgiveness is such an essential part of family life and Jesus message The gospel reminds us that redemption happens right here in the give and take of ordinary family life Each chapter of Forgive Your Family contains real life stories practical strategies and encouragement to help you move toward forgiveness Better communication while
