Gewirtz, 2007-10-01 Death divorce illness disaster personal loss and financial disappointment Crisis tragedy and suffering are among the most universal human experiences and they can also be our most powerful catalysts for positive change Rabbi Matthew D Gewirtz offers a graceful insightful and inspiring education on the true meaning of grief how it breaks and remakes us bringing us closer to our strongest sense of self Based on his extensive pastoral experience helping congregants grapple with grief Gewirtz identifies the ways we block our experience of sorrow and loss and guides us to encounter these feelings fully with compassion and clarity and incorporate the lessons we learn into a richer life A dynamic rabbi teaches a prescriptive and enlightening approach to grieving as a vehicle for positive transformation and renewal Presents compassionate profound counterintuitive guidance for working through and transcending grief on a psychological and spiritual level Nondenominational advice from a spiritual leader rather than a psychologist
