Quick Guide to the 16 Personality Types and Career Mastery Charles R. Martin, 2003 Introduction to Type® and the Eight Jungian Functions, From Techie to Boss Scott Cromar, David M. Jacobs, 2013-08-17 From Techie to Boss teaches technical people who are making or mulling the transition from team player to team leader all the management techniques and soft leadership skills they never needed before but need now pronto Veteran team lead and project manager Scott Cromar lays out the classical management training course but stripped down to precisely the essentials that techies need to start managing on the fly He gets it that a front line techie getting a field promotion to team leader just doesn't have the time to wade through an MBA textbook bulging with irrelevant material. The author appreciates how you got to the place where you need this book. Management tapped you instead of some experienced manager from the outside because you know the technical challenges, company culture and team players better than anyone else. You're ready to hit the ground running. But the skills that make you an excellent techie are not sufficient to make you a successful manager. The rules of your world have abruptly changed. You will now be judged not by your puzzle solving elegance but by how effectively your team contributes to the organization's bottom line. From Techie to Boss shows you how to translate and adapt the analytic skills that made you an outstanding techie to your new responsibilities as a technical manager. Even more crucially, this book teaches you a whole new set of interpersonal, organizational and managerial skills you never needed before but without which you cannot succeed as a manager. CIO, 2004-12-01

Wars at Work Kaveh Mir, 2012-10-19. One Friday afternoon Kaveh Mir nearly had a breakdown in his office the aftermath of more than five years spent fighting or mediating wars at work. But instead of succumbing to his battle scars, Mir did something about them. Wars at Work is the result. This book is your guide to learning how personality types contribute to work wars and how understanding personality differences can lead to resolution and peace. While other books have covered how to use a single personality assessment to resolve conflicts, Wars at Work is the first to show how combining multiple measures creates a richer, more powerful toolkit for solving the whole gamut of workplace problems. In Wars at Work you'll learn how psychometric measures can help solve The battle of leadership, The battle of career, The battle of communication, The battle of conflict, The battle of change. This book offers a new twist on resolving workplace conflict. Whether you're an employee, manager or CEO, you're likely to recognise at least one character or situation that hits home with you. Mir's insightful book offers a fresh perspective towards resolving your own wars at work. Transforming Wisdom Felicity Kelcourse, K. Brynolf Lyon, 2015-10-09

Transforming Wisdom offers an extensive multidisciplinary introduction to pastoral psychotherapy from some of the most respected practitioners in the field. With special attention to theological perspectives on the practice of psychotherapy, this collection of essays will be useful to students seeking an orientation to the art and science of pastoral psychotherapy as well as to seasoned professionals looking to refresh and renew their practice. As the subtitle Pastoral Psychotherapy in Theological Perspective suggests, this book is intended to represent the field of pastoral psychotherapy as a mental health discipline that maintains intentional dialogue with its theological roots. Even as pastoral psychotherapy has developed from the ancient notion of the cure of souls to the current search for a psychology of happiness, therapists grounded in faith communities seek a practice that is respectful of all persons, mindful of the deep wisdom that emanates from the true self or soul. While many contributors write from a psychoanalytic or psychodynamic perspective grounded in Christian theological idioms, diverse theoretical perspectives including Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy, Narrative Therapy, Buddhist Mindfulness and Jungian understanding of individuation are represented. If I Love You, Why Is It So Hard to Live With You? Susan

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

Max Weber's Complete Writings on Academic and Political Vocations Max Weber, 2008 Annotation This is the first edition in any language of all of Max Weber's writings on academic and political vocations The translation is new and liberally annotated including a look at Weber's personality and what it was that made him such a phenomenon. Max Weber made many significant interpretations of both academic and political vocations in his two lectures on Science as a Vocation (Wissenschaft als Beruf 1917) and Politics as a Vocation (Politik als Beruf 1919) as well as in a series of newspaper articles including those written between 1908 and 1920. Since these writings are of more than historical interest, there was a need to bring them all together in a single volume. Newly translated and annotated, this collection comprises both lectures plus 32 articles which Weber wrote on academia. Most of these have not been translated before. In the Introduction, Prof. John Dreijmanis relates the academic and political vocations to each other conceptually, showing that there is considerable overlap and some convergence: the need for passion, an inward calling, as well as career insecurity, both vocations. Dreijmanis then examines the person of Weber and provides a new view of him in part through the lens of Carl Jung's theory of psychological types as further developed by the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI). As an extravert with a powerful thinking function and intellect, he was driven to take an interest in events outside himself and to speak his mind. Coming after a long line of introverted German philosophers, he was a phenomenon. The new translations by Gordon C. Wells are more faithful to Weber's style of expression and they correct an accumulation of errors of previous translations in the oft-translated essays on Politics and Science. Contains Glossary, Bibliography, Names Index, Subject Index.

How to Find the Right Person for You Melinda Korenchuk, 2003. Choosing the right person to marry is probably the most significant factor in your personal happiness, but how do you know who is right for you? Most of us don't really know what we are looking for, so we look for the wrong things in the wrong places and fall in love with the wrong people. This is all in your power to change. After reading this book and working through the exercises, you will have your own personalized dating strategy. In the process, you will learn: What you value and how those values drive your decision making; What interests you and how your interests influence your relationships; Your preferred way of thinking, learning, organizing, and interacting with the world and how that affects your lifestyle choices; Your expectations for a relationship, both in terms of what you can give and what you need in return; The type of person you will stay in love with and who will accept and like you the way you are; Yes, that person is out there; Where to look for this type of person and how to find him or her; How to know when you have found him or her and when to keep looking; Your expectations.
