Gilbert Munger Quest For Distinction:

Gilbert Munger Michael D. Schroeder, J. Gray Sweeney, 2003 Explores the career of artist explorer Gilbert Munger who painted landscapes of the American West that took him to the top of the New York and San Francisco markets in the 1870s Describes how his move abroad in 1876 brought him European acclaim but relegated him to obscurity in the United States by his return in 1893 Gilbert Munger's Quest for Distinction, 2003 Cartographic Expeditions and Visual Culture in the Nineteenth-Century Americas Ernesto Capello, Julia B. Rosenbaum, 2020-11-16 During the nineteenth century gridding graphing and surveying proliferated as never before as nations and empires expanded into hitherto unknown territories Though nominally geared toward justifying territorial claims and collecting scientific data expeditions also produced vast troves of visual and artistic material This book considers the explosion of expeditionary mapping and its links to visual culture across the Americas arguing that acts of measurement are also aesthetic acts Such visual interventions intersect with new technologies with sociopolitical power and conflict and with shifting public tastes and consumption practices Several key questions shape this examination What kinds of nineteenth century visual practices and technologies of seeing do these materials engage How does scientific knowledge get translated into the visual and disseminated to the public What are the commonalities and distinctions in mapping strategies between North and South America How does the constitution of expeditionary lines reorder space and the natural landscape itself The volume represents the first transnational and hemispheric analysis of nineteenth century cartographic aesthetics and features the multi disciplinary perspective of historians geographers and art historians Before the Museums Came Leo J. Harris, 2013-03-05 Before the Museums Came A Social History of the Fine Arts in the Twin Cities gives an engaging portrayal of the fine arts scene of Minneapolis and St Paul Minnesota in the United States spanning from the appearance of the earliest artists in 1835 to the opening of the first permanent museum the Minneapolis Institute of Arts in 1915 Readers will learn about the institutions and organizations that were created in support of the fine arts the early art exhibitions and events and the collectors dealers and artists whose efforts made all of that come to fruition The text enriched and supplemented by reproductions of artworks photographs of various personages exhibition venues studios art galleries catalogues and ephemera presents a clear understanding of the period and breaks new ground for future scholars to research Leo John Harris had pursued three different careers before retiring to follow yet another vocation this time as a writer He served in the U S Department of State and Foreign Service he was an international lawyer and he founded a niche publishing house devoted to books on the arts history and popular culture In his retirement he has written articles and books on philately the arts and regional history and this passion has now resulted in a well researched and richly illustrated publication Painters of the Wasatch Mountains Robert S. Olpin, Thomas F. Rugh, Ann W. Orton, 2005 A distinct painting development with regard to the American West s Wasatch Range emerged in the nineteenth century and persists even today These painters of the Wasatch have set many precedents through their artistic interpretations of this mountain subject matter Painters of the Wasatch Mountains presents for the first time a survey of the gamut of painters who formed and have carried forward an expression of nature's mighty gift to both visitors and residents of Utah As natural successor to the Hudson River School in the East the Wasatch school persists because of the values we associate with that first of America's art movements a dedication to place a careful study and interpretation of the environment in a spiritual and cultural context The Painters of the Wasatch are not defined by a particular style or medium but by a physical presence that has unlimited appeal and inspiration Over 300 artworks are included from the earliest examples of painting in the nineteenth century to works by Utah's contemporary artists Also included are brief biographies of each artist with occasional stylistic analysis Artists featured in this book include William Warner Major Frank Ward Kent Dan Weggeland James T Harwood John W Clawson Edwin Evans Lee Greene Richards John Tullidge Lawrence Squires Valoy Eaton LeConte Stewart Mahonri Young John H Stansfield Hal Burrows Waldo Midgley Maynard Dixon Joseph A F Everett Francis L Horspool Alice Merrill Horne Dean Fausett Dennis Phillips Tom Leek Gary E Smith

Carleton Watkins Tyler Green, 2020-10-20 A fascinating and indispensable book Christopher Knight Los Angeles Times Best Books of 2018 The Guardian Gold Medal for Contribution to Publishing 2018 California Book Awards Carleton Watkins 1829-1916 is widely considered the greatest American photographer of the nineteenth century and arguably the most influential artist of his era He is best known for his pictures of Yosemite Valley and the nearby Mariposa Grove of giant sequoias Watkins made his first trip to Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Grove in 1861 just as the Civil War was beginning His photographs of Yosemite were exhibited in New York for the first time in 1862 as news of the Union's disastrous defeat at Fredericksburg was landing in newspapers and while the Matthew Brady Studio's horrific photographs of Antietam were on view Watkins's work tied the West to Northern cultural traditions and played a key role in pledging the once wavering West to Union Motivated by Watkins's pictures Congress would pass legislation signed by Abraham Lincoln that preserved Yosemite as the prototypical national park the first such act of landscape preservation in the world Carleton Watkins Making the West American includes the first history of the birth of the national park concept since pioneering environmental historian Hans Huth's landmark 1948 Yosemite The Story of an Idea Watkins's photographs helped shape America's idea of the West and helped make the West a full participant in the nation His pictures of California Oregon and Nevada as well as modern day Washington Utah and Arizona not only introduced entire landscapes to America but were important to the development of American business finance agriculture government policy and science Watkins's clients customers and friends were a veritable who's who of America's Gilded Age and his connections with notable figures such as Collis P Huntington John and Jessie Benton Fremont Eadweard Muybridge Frederick Billings John Muir Albert Bierstadt and Asa Gray reveal how the Gilded Age helped make today's America Drawing on recent scholarship and fresh archival discoveries Tyler Green reveals how an artist didn't just reflect his time but acted as an agent of influence This telling of Watkins's story will fascinate anyone interested in American history the West and how art and artists impacted the development of American ideas industry landscape conservation and politics

Painting Dissent Sophie Lynford, 2022-09-20 A revelatory history of the first artist collective in the United States and its effort to reshape nineteenth century art culture and politics The American Pre Raphaelites founded a uniquely interdisciplinary movement composed of politically radical abolitionist artists and like minded architects critics and scientists Active during the Civil War this dynamic collective united in a spirit of protest seeking sweeping reforms of national art and culture Painting Dissent recovers the American Pre Raphaelites from the margins of history and situates them at the center of transatlantic debates about art slavery education and politics Artists such as Thomas Charles Farrer and John Henry Hill championed a new style of landscape painting characterized by vibrant palettes antipicturesque compositions and meticulous brushwork Their radicalism however was not solely one of style Sophie Lynford traces how the American Pre Raphaelites proclaimed themselves catalysts of a wide ranging reform movement that staged politically motivated interventions in multiple cultural arenas from architecture and criticism to collecting exhibition design and higher education She examines how they publicly rejected their prominent contemporaries the artists known as the Hudson River School and how they offered incisive critiques of antebellum society by importing British models of landscape theory and practice Beautifully illustrated and drawing on a wealth of archival material Painting Dissent transforms our understanding of how American artists depicted the nation during the most turbulent decades of the nineteenth century

Collecting Stories Thomas Davies, 2008 Challenged by his son Kristian Davies the award winning author of Laynfaro's first book The Orientalists to write the story of a forty year passion for collecting American paintings Tom Davies quickly found himself not only recalling events surrounding their acquisition but also recounting how the art gene was passed from his father to him and onto his two sons This Collecting Stories is unlike any other book focusing on a family's lifelong pursuit of its passion It is written entirely by the collector not simply a hired art historian It communicates at a personal level the great joy and pleasure derived from the people artists dealers museum personnel and other collectors encountered along the way the lessons learned both good and bad and the satisfaction gained from increased knowledge and insight As the title states there are 400 pieces of artwork reflecting the ever expanding interests of Mr and Mrs Davies collected over forty years ranging from 19th century Hu
