Everything You Need to Know About Law School in 50 Pages Antonette Jefferson,2013-09-26 Law School is a rite of passage If you want to succeed as a law student you have to learn the ropes and you have to learn them well This 50 page treatise memoir will tell you just what you need to be a successful law student Read it and learn the method Brim Full of Passion Wasim Khan,Alan Wilkinson,2006 Adult sports autobiography printed in Large Print Brim Full of Passion follows the story of Wasim Khan s journey to becoming the first British born Asian to play professional cricket Eight year old Wasim Khan yanks a board out of the garden fence nicks his Mum s only decent knife and starts whittling A month later he s putting his first bat to good use sending the school's tennis balls high onto the roof so that he can sneak back over the gate at night and liberate them. Brim Full of Passion follows this son of Kashmiri immigrants from the grimy streets of Small Heath to leafy Edgbaston where he breaks in through the fence to watch England play Pakistan. A year later he's there legitimately batting for the under 13s. The dream is simple: Warwickshire, England, the world. After four gruelling years as an apprentice pro he makes the all-conquering Bears team of 1995 and is on the brink of the England A squad. But a loss of form, a dodgy selection policy and one of the first British-born Asians to make the country grade loses his confidence. A move to Sussex is a disaster: he falls out with captain Chris Adams, can't get a game and winds up playing for Derbyshire for nothing. At 30 it's all over and he's embarking on a new career as a coach. Anything to stay in the game he loves.

A Passion for the Past Ivor Noël Hume, 2010-08-12

Ivor Noël Hume has devoted his life to uncovering countless lives that came before him. In A Passion for the Past the world-renowned archaeologist turns to his own life, sharing with the reader a story that begins amid the bombed-out rubble of post-World War II London and ends on North Carolina's Roanoke Island where the history of British America began. Weaving the personal with the professional, this is the chronicle of an extraordinary life steered by coincidence, scarcely believable even as fiction. Born into the good life of pre-Depression England, Noël Hume was a child of the 1930s who had his silver spoon abruptly snatched away when the war began. By its end he was enduring a period of Dickensian poverty and clinging to aspirations of becoming a playwright. Instead, he found himself collecting antiquities from the shore of the river Thames and stumbling upon this new passion, becoming an accidental archaeologist. From those beginnings emerged a career that led Noël Hume into the depths of Roman London and later to Virginia's Colonial Williamsburg where for thirty-five years he directed its department of archaeology. His discovery of nearby Martin's Hundred and its massacred inhabitants is perhaps Noël Hume's best-known achievement, but as these chapters relate, it was hardly his last. His pursuit of the past, taking him to such exotic destinations as Egypt, Jamaica, Haiti, and to shipwrecks in Bermuda. When the author began his career, historical archaeology did not exist as an academic discipline. It fell to Noël Hume's books, lectures, and television presentations to help bring it to the forefront of his profession where it stands today. This story of a life and a career, unlike any other, reveals to us how the previously unimagined can come to seem beautifully inevitable.

Forgiveness Matthew Ichihashi Potts, 2022-11-22

A deeply researched and poignant reflection on the practice of forgiveness in an unforgiving world. In this sensitive and probing book, Matthew Ichihashi Potts explores the complex moral terrain of forgiveness, which he claims has too often served as a salve to the conscience of power rather than as an instrument of healing or justice. Though forgiveness is often linked with reconciliation or the abatement of anger, Potts resists these associations, asserting instead that forgiveness is simply the refusal of retaliatory violence through practices of penitence and grief. It is an act of mourning, irrevocable, wrong of refusing the false promises of violent redemption and of living in and with the losses we cannot recover. Drawing on novels by Kazuo Ishiguro, Marilynne Robinson, Louise Erdrich, and Toni Morrison, and on texts from the early

Christian to the postmodern era Potts diagnoses the real dangers of forgiveness yet insists upon its enduring promise Sensitive to the twenty first century realities of economic inequality colonial devastation and racial strife and considering the role of forgiveness in the New Testament the Christian tradition philosophy and contemporary literature this book heralds the arrival of a new and creative theological voice
