The Index of Middle English Prose: Handlist XXV Niamh Pattwell, 2024 Handlist to manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin covering all 79 Middle English prose manuscripts and indexing more than 539 separate items The manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin are predominantly from the library of Archbishop James Ussher 1581-1656 A well known bibliophile of the sixteenth century he was also primate of All Ireland and fellow and professor of Trinity College. Following some movement of the collection it was eventually returned to Trinity College after the Restoration at the behest of Charles II. It is a significant collection both in national and international terms with over 600 manuscripts, 79 of which contain Middle English prose. Among the manuscripts in the collection are several Wycliffite Bibles and collections of sermons and tracts, some of them unique copies. The collection also contains writings by Richard Rolle, Walter Hilton, and William Flete, and copies of Thomas Kempis's Imitation of Christ as well as the Pore Caitif and The Cloud of Unknowing, both of which are anonymous. There are several copies of the Brut chronicle, two of which, MSS 489 and 505, are illuminated translations of Giraldus Cambrensis's Expugnatio Hibernica and a copy of Robert Bale's Chronicle of London 1189-1461. Also of note are the various collections of recipes, medical, culinary, and alchemical. Dictionary-style items demonstrate the trilingual nature of the Medieval period, with single words being offered in English alongside Anglo-Norman and/or Latin words, or as marginal glosses. Fifteenth-century instructions for the coronation of a King or Queen, hidden among some later material, as well as other unidentified heraldic pieces, suggest that some of the manuscripts may be associated with the office of the Ulster King of Arms. The current handlist covers 79 manuscripts and indexes more than 539 separate items, offering a significant contribution to the understanding of the cultural world of the Medieval period.

The Index of Middle English Prose, Handlist IX. L. M. Eldredge, 2007. A catalogue of Middle English texts largely relating to heraldry and the sciences of the time. More than 700 manuscripts reflect Ashmole's life-long passions: heraldry and the sciences of his day, astrology, alchemy, geomancy, medicine. Well over 100 contain items in Middle English. There are manuscripts of great interest, such as the Ashmole Bestiary, but the important items in Middle English are no less noteworthy. Here we find the unique copy of an English translation of Bernard of Gordon's Lilium medicinae, a codex Ashmole 59, entirely in the hand of John Shirley, a Wycliffite Bible, and a copy of the Pore Caytif. Along with many anonymous pieces of popular astrology, there is an English translation of John Ashenden's Introductory, several copies of John of Burgundy's plague tract, and an elegant copy of Henry Daniel's Liber uricrisiae. There are also two copies of The Brut and an anthology of manuscripts collecting vast arrays of herbal medicine, astrological techniques, and alchemical procedures.

The Index of Middle English Prose: Handlist XXIV, 2023. Handlist to the rich collection of manuscripts contained in five major libraries across New York, giving a full account of their provenance. This volume provides detailed descriptions of Middle English prose materials found in the Columbia University Rare Book and Manuscripts Library, The Pierpont Morgan Library, The New York Public Library, The New York Academy of Medicine Library, and New York University Bobst Library Special Collections. The manuscripts tend to be less well known than those in English libraries, with overlooked texts such as the Pseudo-Hildegard Anti-Mendicant Prophecy, The Book of Palmistry, a subject index of legal statutes, culinary and medical recipes, and English instructions to Latin prayers in Books of Hours. Other manuscripts of note include Trevisa's translation of De proprietatibus rerum by Bartholomaeus Anglicus used as a copy text for Wynkyn de Worde's first edition printed ca 1495 and deluxe illustrated manuscripts of The Pilgrimage of the Soul and Ordinances of Chivalry. The introduction to the volume highlights the particular interests of the various collectors and the influences and characteristics underpinning their acquisitions. All but one of the manuscripts described from Columbia University were acquired by George A. Plimpton 1855-1936 whose firm Ginn and Co published spelling books. His collection records an interest in the history of education with MS 258 a primer probably compiled for an English schoolchild being a highlight. John Pierpont Morgan 1837-1913 specialized in expensive illustrated manuscripts aided in his purchases by Belle da Costa Greene who became the first director of the Morgan Library as a public institution under J. P. Morgan Jr. Curt F. B. Hiler became the Keeper of Printed Books at the Morgan in 1934 bequeathing to the Library the manuscripts that he had bought over the years. James Lenox and John Jacob Astor established the New York Public Library with Lenox donating two Wycliffite Bibles and Astor a third. The New York Academy of Medicine owns two manuscripts relating to the work of the French surgeon Guy de Chauliac. The Index of Middle English Prose Laurel Braswell, 2007-08. Among the finest manuscripts are a Roman de la Rose with 125 miniatures, a Piers Plowman, the Ormsby Psalter and the famous Douce Apocalypse. A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15. The Index of Middle English Prose Handlist V Peter Brown, Elton D. Higgs, 2007-08. Index of manuscripts in Middle English prose contained in the Additional Collection 10001-14000. British Library London. The great scholar and palaeographer Sir Frederic Madden 1801-73 was Keeper of Manuscripts at the British Museum as it then was when most of the items in this Handlist were acquired. The manuscripts here represented from the still expanding Additional Collection provide examples of almost every kind of Middle English prose composition. Many of the items in this Handlist are well known but some have been previously overlooked and a surprising number remain unedited.

Middle English Medical Recipes and Literary Play, 1375-1500 Hannah Bower, 2022-03-21. This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. Middle English Medical Recipes and Literary Play 1375-1500 is the first detailed book-length study of Middle English medical recipes in their literary, imaginative, social and codicological contexts. Analysing recipe collections in over seventy late medieval manuscripts, this book explores how the words and structures of recipes could contribute to those texts' healing purpose but could also confuse, impede, exceed and redefine that purpose. The study therefore presents a challenge to recipes' traditional reputation as mundane, unartful texts written and read solely for the sake of directing practical action. Crucially, it also relocates these neglected texts and overlooked manuscripts within the complex networks forming medieval textual culture, demonstrating that though marginalized in modern scholarship, medical recipes were actually linguistically, formally, materially and imaginatively interconnected with many other late medieval discourses including devotional writings, romances, fabliaux and Chaucerian poetry The monograph thus models for readers modes of analysis and close reading that might be deployed in relation to recipes in order to understand better their allusive fragmentary and playful qualities as well as their wide ranging influence on medieval imaginations A Check-list of Middle English Prose Writings of Spiritual Guidance P. S. Jolliffe, 1974

The Index of Middle English Prose, Handlist XII Ralph Hanna, 1997-09-04 The Index of Middle English Prose is an international collaborative project which will ultimately locate identify and record all extant Middle English prose texts composed between c 1200 and c 1500 in both manuscript and printed form in medieval and post medieval versions The first step towards this goal has been this series of Handlists each recording the holdings of a major library or group of libraries Compiled by scholars Handlists include detailed descriptions of each prose item with identifications categorisations and full bibliographical data Every Handlist will also contain a series of indexes including listings of opening and closing lines authors titles subject matter and rubrics For students of the middle ages Handlists provide essential bibliographical tools and shed light on a wide range of subjects
