ME and SAM LeRoy Crume,2014-03-06 This is the story of a skinny little country boy born in a little community called Swift Missouri Swift wasn t big enough to be a town It was just a dusty piece of farm land just off highway 61 That is not even charted on the map anymore My Dad was a farmer Not unlike most black men during that time in the south He earned his living that is if you could call it a living by the sweat of his brow plowing up farmland during the fall of the year and planting come the spring of the year and then came harvesting time a few months later That was the ritual for blacks and a few whites for the rest of their lives That is unless they were fortunate like some others and got a chance to leave that hell hole called a farm My dad I m sure like his father and grand father before him did the same thing Walking behind a plow and mules planting then came the chopping of the cotton and after that came the picking of the cotton Now that was a life s ritual from the time you were big enough to walk and talk until you were ready for the grave What a life Now the Crume s were fortunate enough to break that cycle at some point in life A Pittsburgh Kid - A Memoir Michael Repasky,2007 The Best New Horror 5 Ramsey Campbell,Stephen Jones,2013-11-28 Best New Horror has established itself as the world s premier horror annual showcasing the talents of the very best writers working in the horror and dark fantasy field today In this latest volume the multi award winning editors have chosen razor sharp stories of suspense and disturbing tales of terror by authors on the cutting edge of the genre Along with a comprehensive review of the year and a fascinating necrology this is the book no horror fan can afford to miss Lost Boy Brent W.
