Authored by an experienced writing instructor and a retired military officer both of whom teach in a professional military education institution, it is designed for members of the armed forces who are entering or perhaps re-entering the academic community and having spent much of their careers either writing in the professional military context or not writing at all. The book not only teaches officers how to write convincingly but also explains why a sound grasp of academic writing can enhance their effectiveness in their regular duties, particularly as they reach the more senior levels of service. Chapters focus on the value of written communication skills, the difference between professional staff and academic writing, the research process, the writing process, academic professionalism and common writing problems and challenges. A particularly innovative final chapter discusses how officers can use the knowledge that they have acquired through their professional experiences in the academic context.
