Oversight Hearings on the Reauthorization of the Library Services and Construction Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education,1984 Crash Course in Collection

Development Wayne Disher,2023-06-15 The third edition of Crash Course in Collection Development is a must have for librarians just entering the field and professionals in need of a refresher in effective library operations It now covers all aspects of collection development and management including inventory assessment market analysis budgeting marketing and customer service in all library environments including public academic and school libraries Focusing on collection development basics it begins with information on gathering statistics and analyzing community needs to design a collection that meets user needs It goes on to guide users in writing a collection development policy budgeting selecting materials managing vendor relations understanding the publishing industry merchandising and promoting the collection and handling complaints Newly included in the third edition is a discussion of new purchasing and lending models information for academic and school librarians and such new trends as libraries as spaces for users collection diversity issues makerspaces nontraditional collections pop up libraries the digital divide and noncirculating collections Author Wayne Disher has once again written a practical and simple introduction to an important complex and evolving area of library service Aboriginal and Visible Minority Librarians Deborah Lee, Mahalakshmi Kumaran, 2014-06-11 Aboriginal and Visible Minority Librarians Oral Histories from Canada is a collection of chapters written by librarians of color in Canada writing about their experiences working in libraries This book is not only for librarians in Canada and for those who aspire to become librarians it is also for deans directors and faculty of libraries and library schools managers and supervisors in libraries human resources personnel and other decision makers in the field It will also appeal to researchers interested in race relations multiculturalism intercultural communications and management cross cultural communications and management cross cultural studies diversity Aboriginal peoples indigenous populations and ethnic or visible minorities The majority of the chapters written by visible minority librarians come from those born outside of Canada They speak of their love for their new country its generosity and support towards newcomers and immigrants and their reasons for taking up the library profession While few of the librarians speak of open racism they narrate their experiences as those filled with challenges self doubt and courage Several of the Aboriginal librarians who contributed to this book have worked within tribal communities and tribal libraries In spite of working within community environments they have experienced challenges especially related to lack of funding These librarians speak of having to deal with tokenism lack of mentorship and working in professional isolation Some of them narrate their challenges in working with colleagues who do not relate to them Lack of support is common as many organizations do not have proper strategies to deal with discrimination However these chapters end with a positive note of encouragement for future librarians the authors encourage all librarians to be engaged find trusted mentors seek help when needed focus on professional development and find a niche in the organization Auditing Diversity in Library

Collections Sarah Voels, 2022-08-24 After explaining the importance of diversity audits this book offers a range of options for how to go about conducting them Library collections serve as a reflection of their communities and the wider world and audits are the best way to assess the inclusivity of these collections In this practical book Sarah Voels helps libraries meet the challenge of doing a diversity audit The task of auditing a collection for its diversity is essential to the development of a reflective collection Conducting a diversity audit gives library professionals a realistic and accurate assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the materials they provide their readers Only with this information at hand can libraries work toward improvement But what is the best way to conduct an audit What criteria should be used How can audits be tailored to specific communities How much will it cost and how much time will it take Voels has taken away the guesswork by surveying a wide range of libraries that have performed diversity audits and sharing their successes and challenges She suggests best practices while acknowledging that each library's specific situation will be unique All libraries considering a diversity audit will benefit from this guide      Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1955      Mobile Devices and the Library Joe Murphy,2014-01-02 Mobile devices are the it technology and everyone wants to know how to apply them to their environments This book brings together the best examples and insights for implementing mobile technology in libraries Chapters cover a wide variety of the most important tools and procedures from developing applications to marketing and augmented reality Readers of this volume will get complete and timely knowledge of library applications for handheld devices The Handheld Librarian conferences have been a centrepiece of learning about how to apply mobile technologies to library services and collections as well as a forum for sharing examples and lessons learned The conferences have brought our profession forward into the trend and kept us up to date with ongoing advances This volume brings together the best from that rich story and presents librarians with the basic information they need to successfully make the case for and implement programs leveraging mobile devices in their libraries Authors of the diverse practical and well researched pieces originate in all types of libraries and segments of the profession This wide representation ensures that front line librarians library administrators systems staff even library professors will find this volume perfectly geared for their needs This book was published as a special issue of The Reference Librarian      Michigan Library Bulletin ,1916      Library Partnerships with Writers and Poets Carol Smallwood,Vera Gubnitskaia,2017-02-19 Libraries and writers have always had a close working relationship Rapid advances in technology have not changed the nontechnical basis of that cooperation author talks book signings and readings are as popular as ever as are workshops and festivals This collection of 29 new essays from nearly 50 contributors from across the United States presents a variety of projects programs and services to help librarians establish relationships with the literary world promote literature to the public and foster creativity in their communities      Library Work ,1910      Library Closures Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2012-11-06 Recent campaigns against the closure of local libraries have highlighted the strong attachment that many people feel to their library services However much of the focus of the campaigns has been on library branches rather than the broader question of the preservation and possible enhancement of the library service Reductions in opening hours and the loss of professional staff may damage the service more than the closure of particular buildings The provision of a library service is a statutory duty but a number of councils have drawn up plans that fail to comply with the requirement to provide a comprehensive and efficient service A full assessment of the needs of the local population for the services is key Guidance on how to assess local needs does exist but more must be done to disseminate it Although the future of public libraries may be uncertain there is opportunity for reassessment of their roles and how they are organised The Committee saw many examples of innovative thinking about what libraries can offer to the local population and a number of models of how those services might be provided Councils which have transferred the running of libraries to community volunteers must continue to provide support otherwise failure may be viewed as closures by stealth The Committee looks forward to the promised report by the end of 2014 on the cumulative effect on library services of the cuts in local authority provision and the promotion of alternatives such as transfers to community volunteers     Iowa Library Quarterly ,1901     Biennial
