Fighting Against War Julie Kimber, Phillip Deery, Karen Agutter, Anne Beggs-Sunter, Robert Bollard, Verity Burgmann, Liam Byrne, Lachlan Clohesy, Rhys Cooper, Carolyn Holbrook, Nick Irving, Chris McConville, Douglas Newton, Bobbie Oliver, Carolyn Rasmussen, Phil Roberts, Kim Thoday, 2015-02-13 The extended commemorations to mark the 100th anniversary of the Great War have commenced in earnest Over the next four years people around the world will struggle to avoid the politicised public narratives of these remembrances Nationalistic sentiment is no less palpable today than imperial sentiment was a century ago Its opponents are still there too Among the countless commemorative activities that will occur there are innumerable counter narratives Although they are compelling in their telling of oppositional stories they have yet to capture the imagination of the dominant storytellers of our generation Mainstream media governments and politicians of all persuasions remain a captive of soft jingoism and the myth making of Geoffrey Serle s fire eating generals In such a view war remains a lamentable but necessary evil The true costs of war are absorbed only partially Given the destabilisation of much of the globe and the increasing militarisation of domestic politics by Western governments it is unsurprising that a widespread movement for peace is momentarily lost But history provides hope By looking back we can see the ebb and flow of peace movements and the lessons here are instructive The present commemorative phase provides historians with a license to tell the stories that underscore the feeble fabric of nationalistic hubris ones that seek to analyse and understand the human condition rather than simply commemorate it Tales of national re birth are but one facet of war complicated by a much richer dirtier and more nuanced reality This reality challenges the necessity of war and allows us to empathise with war s victims elucidate oppositional tactics and provide explanations for the difficulties in sustaining a pacifist approach in the midst of war The chapters here deal with aspects of peace and anti war of memory of forgetting and of legacy The majority unsurprisingly given the present historical moment concentrate on the experience of the First World War The shadows of that war are long and the historiography they build on extensive Contributors include Phillip Deery Julie Kimber Karen Agutter Anne Beggs Sunter Robert Bollard Verity Burgmann Liam Byrne Lachlan Clohesy Rhys Cooper Carolyn Holbrook Nick Irving Chris McConville Douglas Newton Bobbie Oliver Carolyn Rasmussen Phil Roberts and Kim Thoday

The Welsh in an Australian Gold Town Robert Llewellyn Tyler, 2010-11-15 Works which have sought to look specifically at the Welsh in Australia have been few in number and characterised by a concentration on prominent individuals and cultural religious societies thus excluding many facets of immigrant life This book provides an analysis of the Welsh immigrant community in the Ballarat

Sebastopol gold mining district of Victoria Australia during the second half of the nineteenth century and considers all aspects of the Welsh immigrant experience As its focus the book has the Welsh migrant group as a whole in one particular area during one period of time for ultimately it was the migrants themselves who were responsible for the strength or weakness of Welsh religious life the success or failure of Welsh cultural institutions they who decided whether or not to retain and transmit their national language if indeed they spoke it in the first place they who chose whether or not to marry within their own group to live amongst their own to retain the ties of Welshness and pass on the values of the Old Country or to attempt full and immediate integration they who were miners or shop owners abstainers or drunkards law abiding or criminal A true picture of Welsh immigrant life can only be obtained by considering the community in its entirety to view it in the round as it were This work attempts to do just that and hopes to make some small contribution to the understanding of what it was to be one amongst the thousands of Welsh people who lived in a particular place at a certain time in a land so far from Wales
