Excerpt from Life and Letters of Joseph Hardy Neesima Although personally acquainted with Mr Neesima and familiar with the main events of his life the reading of his letters and journal made upon me a fresh and deep impression It seemed to me that no pen could reveal the personality of the man or tell the story of his life so effectively as his own To say that one possesses certain qualities is well to see these qualities in action is better With no thought of the public ear Mr Neesima in his correspondence and journals disclosed himself with the simplicity and modesty peculiar to him and with the truthfulness of one who unconscious of an audience asks for no verdict I have therefore endeavored to let him speak who speaks best and this volume is essentially an autobiography From the large amount of material at hand all that does not contribute to a vivid impression of Mr Neesima has been I trust rejected the intent being not to write the history of the Japan mission but to show forth this man in the light of his own acts utterances and thought About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
