Hard Times Charles Dickens,2023-06-19 Hard Times originally Hard Times For These Times was published in 1854 and is the shortest novel Charles Dickens ever published It s set in Coketown a fictional mill town set in the north of England One of the major themes of the book is the miserable treatment of workers in the mills and the resistance to their unionization by the mill owners typified by the character Josiah Bounderby who absurdly asserts that the workers live a near idyllic life but they all expect to be set up in a coach and six and to be fed on turtle soup and venison with a gold spoon The truth of course is far different The other major topic which Dickens tackles in this novel is the rationalist movement in schooling and the denigration of imagination and fantasy It begins with the words Now what I want is Facts spoken by the wealthy magnate Thomas Gradgrind who is supervising a class at a model school he has opened This indeed is Gradgrind s entire philosophy Teach these boys and girls nothing but Facts Facts alone are wanted in life Plant nothing else and root out everything else He is supported and encouraged in this approach by his friend Bounderby Grandgrind raises his own children on these principles and as we discover in doing so blights their lives The novel also follows the story of a particular mill worker Stephen Blackpool who leads a tragic life He is burdened with an alcoholic slatternly wife who is mostly absent from his life but who returns at irregular intervals to trouble him This existing marriage and the near impossibility of divorce for someone of his class prevents him marrying Rachael who is the light of his life Dickens depicts Stephen as representing the nobility of honest work and contrasts his character with that of the self satisfied humbug Josiah Bounderby who represents the worst aspects of capitalism
