Gifts, Favors, and Banquets Mayfair Mei-Hui Yang, 2016-12-01 An elaborate and pervasive set of practices called guanxi underlies everyday social relationships in contemporary China Obtaining and changing job assignments buying certain foods and consumer items getting into good hospitals buying train tickets obtaining housing even doing business all such tasks call for the skillful and strategic giving of gifts and cultivating of obligation indebtedness and reciprocity Mayfair Mei hui Yang's close scrutiny of this phenomenon serves as a window to view facets of a much broader and more complex cultural historical and political formation Using rich and varied ethnographic examples of guanxi stemming from her fieldwork in China in the 1980s and 1990s the author shows how this gift economy operates in the larger context of the socialist state redistributive economy      Gifts and Interests Antoon Vanderveelde,2000 According to a common understanding of economics economists attempt to understand and explain societal reality in the light of individual self interest For them a gift is no exception to this except for the slight and misleading veil of altruism which covers a purely egoistic motivation On the other hand theologians philosophers and ethicists use a more normative concept of man Man realises his best potential through deeds of selfless sacrifice that remain unknown to everyone In reality however people are either entirely egoistic nor altruistic Marcel Mauss model of the gift is interesting because it seems to escape the classical or rather modern egoism altruism dichotomy Gifts are not primarily motivated by the well being of myself or the other but rather by the desire to bring about or maintain a certain kind of social relation between giver and receiver Altruistic as well as egoistic motivations are an integral part of that relation The role of gifts in the constitution of social relations and social cohesion explains why most kinds of gifts are reciprocal and even obligatory In this book anthropologists sociologists and economists as well as philosophers focus on the question of the relevance of Mauss work on the gift for the understanding of actual social phenomena      Family Traditions in Hawai'i Joan Namkoong,2004-11 Information on cultural traditions including birthdays holiday celebrations coming of age ceremonies marriages and funerals Description and explanations include anecdotes than emphasize the bonds these traditions create From the back cover      Gifts Richard

Hyland,2009-06-05 Gifts A Study in Comparative Law is the first broad based study of the law governing the giving and revocation of gifts ever attempted Gift giving is everywhere governed by social and customary norms before it encounters the law and the giving of gifts takes place largely outside of the marketplace As a result of these two characteristics the law of gifts provides an optimal lens through which to examine how different legal systems engage with social practice The law of gifts is well developed both in the civil and the common laws Richard Hyland s study provides an excellent view of the ways in which different civil and common law jurisdictions confront common issues The legal systems discussed include principally in the common law those of Great Britain the United States and India and in the civil law the private law systems of Belgium and France Germany Italy and Spain Professor Hyland also serves a critique of the dominant method in the field which is a form of functionalism based on what is called the praesumptio similitudinis namely the axiom that once legal doctrine is stripped away developed legal systems tend to reach similar practical results His study demonstrates to the contrary that legal systems actually differ not only in their approach and conceptual structure but just as much in the results

Gift-giving Behavior Russell W. Belk,1977      The Personal Web Mark Chignell,James R. Cordy,Ryan Kealey,Joanna Ng,Yelena Yesha,2013-07-15 This book grew out of the First Symposium on the Personal Web co located with CASCON 2010 in Markham Ontario Canada The purpose of the symposium was to bring together prominent researchers and practitioners from a diverse range of research areas relevant to the advancement of science and practice relating to the Personal Web

Research on the Personal Web is an outgrowth of the Smart Internet initiative which seeks to extend and transform the web to be centred on the user with the web as a calm platform ubiquitously providing cognitive support to its user and his or her tasks. As with the preceding SITCON workshop held at CASCON 2009, this symposium involved a multi-disciplinary effort that brought together researchers and practitioners in data integration, web services, modelling and architecture, human computer interaction, predictive analytics, cloud infrastructure, semantics and ontology, and industrial application domains such as health care and finance. The discussions during the symposium dealt with different aspects of the architecture and functionality needed to make the Personal Web a reality. After the symposium, the authors reworked their presentations into draft chapters that were submitted for peer evaluation and review. Every chapter went through two rounds of reviewing by at least two independent expert reviewers, and accepted chapters were then revised and are presented in this book.

The Complete Guide to Creative Gift Giving Cynthia Yates, 1997-10

Rediscovering the Essentiality of Marketing Luca Petruzzellis, Russell S. Winer, 2016-06-27

This book contains the full proceedings of the 2015 Academy of Marketing Science World Marketing Congress held in Bari, Italy. The current worldwide business environment is leading marketing scholars and practitioners to reconsider a number of historical and current views of the marketplace and how it functions. Further determining new marketing theories and practical methods whose effectiveness can be truly measured must be added to the list of current challenges for today and tomorrow. In such a period in marketing history, achieving and managing efficient and effective marketing actions is a necessity. Determining such actions is based on practical experience, solid theory, and appropriate research methodology. The enclosed papers focus on new research ideas on vibrant topics that can help academics and practitioners gain new perspectives and insights into today's turbulent marketplace.

Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses, and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series, which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field. Volumes deliver cutting-edge research and insights complementing the Academy's flagship journals, Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS) and AMS Review. Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science.

Against the Tide Miroslav Volf, 2010

This compelling collection gathers together articles previously published in The Christian Century from 1996 to 2008. The result is a cohesive book that unerringly points away from pettiness and selfishness and toward the love. Christians are called to exemplify.

Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006

This two-volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization. It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization      A Lawyer's Guide to Estate Planning L. Rush Hunt, Lara Rae Hunt, 2004 This book provides an introduction to the basics of estate planning and will make this area of the law more accessible to the nonspecialist

Intersecting Voices Iris Marion Young, 2020-07-21 Iris Marion Young is known for her ability to connect theory to public policy and practical politics in ways easily understood by a wide range of readers This collection of essays which extends her work on feminist theory explores questions such as the meaning of moral respect and the ways individuals relate to social collectives together with timely issues like welfare reform same sex marriage and drug treatment for pregnant women One of the many goals of Intersecting Voices is to energize thinking in those areas where women and men are still deprived of social justice Essays on the social theory of groups communication across difference alternative principles for family law exclusion of single mothers from full citizenship and the ambiguous value of home lead to questions important for rethinking policy How can women be conceptualized as a single social collective when there are so many differences among them What spaces of discourse are required for the full inclusion of women and cultural minorities in public discussion Can the conceptual and practical link between self sufficiency and citizenship that continues to relegate some people to second class status be broken How could legal institutions be formed to recognize the actual plurality of family forms In formulating such questions and the answers to them Young draws upon ideas from both Anglo American and Continental philosophers including Seyla Benhabib Joshua Cohen Luce Irigaray Susan Okin William Galston Simone de Beauvoir and Michel Foucault      Gifts Anytime Leah Ingram, 2005-05 Did you know that the average person buys nearly 50 gifts each year and that finding the perfect present is a quandary most gift buyers face with each gift giving occasion they celebrate Well here s the solution they ve been seeking Gifts Anytime How to Find the Perfect Present for Any Occasion This new book offers down to earth gift giving ideas and etiquette for all occasions from weddings to anniversaries business situations to birthdays and more It also teaches readers how to gather gift intelligence about family and friends and how to write thank you notes from the heart      The Gifting God Stephen H. Webb, 1996-04-18 Theories of generosity or gift giving are becoming increasingly important in recent work in philosophy and religion Stephen Webb seeks to build on this renewed interest by surveying a distinctively modern and postmodern approach to the issue of generosity and then developing a theological framework for it He contends that in many ways society has become suspicious of charity and generosity This cynicism has led to quick and easy judgments that in turn have led to a new orthodoxy with its own troubling consequences Webb believes that we need to recover the generosity that our culture obscures behind this monologue on self interest and that theology as a form of critical thought can play a helpful role Throughout the book Webb argues for a theory of giving that is other oriented without being self negating He maintains that the generosity of God s grace properly understood can reorient our own idea of the gift and must be correlated to our own practices of exchange and reciprocity      Gifts of Cooperation, Mauss and Pragmatism Frank Adloff, 2016-06-10 This book focuses on the contribution of Marcel Mauss 1872 1950 to social theory and a theory of cooperation It shows that Mauss's essay The Gift 1925 can be seen as a classic of a pragmatist interactionist and anti utilitarian sociology. It critiques the dichotomy of self interest and normatively orientated action that forms the basis of sociology. This conceptual dichotomization has caused forms of social interaction that cannot be localized either on the side of self interest or on that of morality to be overlooked or taken little notice of. The book argues that it is the logic of the gift and its reciprocity that accompany and structure all forms of interaction from the social micro to the macro level. It demonstrates that in modern societies agonistic and non agonistic gifts form their own orders of interaction. This book uniquely establishes the paradigm of the gift as the basis for a theory of interaction. It will be of great interest to researchers and postgraduates in social theory, cultural theory, political sociology and global cooperation, anthropology, philosophy and politics. Japanese Culture and Behavior Takie Sugiyama Lebra, William P. Lebra, 1986-08-01. Every chapter offers insights into one aspect or other of contemporary Japanese life. Newly included are discussions on such topics as dinner entertainment, skiing, cross culturally male chauvinism as a manifestation of love in marriage and domestic violence. Ten chapters have been retained from the first edition because they have achieved the status of classics.
