The Gift of Education K. Saltman, 2010-03-01 This is a cutting edge book that not only maps and criticizes venture philanthropy but also offers a new and different way of conceptualizing public education in response to the neoliberal climate affecting all aspects of public education

Education as Gift Damian Ruth, 2024-04-22 Education is about human flourishing and explores meaning purpose and values As a holistic and integral practice for developing sustained attention and concentration education is profoundly antithetical to the market and it is not a technological domain The combination of markets and technology in the pursuit of efficiency destroys the potential of education to help societies nurture well being This book dives deeply into the overlapping crises of education today The author draws on decades of experience and many disciplines to celebrate the spirit of education and to frame it as a gift

Higher Education for Good Laura Czerniewicz, Catherine Cronin, 2023-10-25 After decades of turbulence and acute crises in recent years how can we build a better future for Higher Education Thoughtfully edited by Laura Czerniewicz and Catherine Cronin this rich and diverse collection by academics and professionals from across 17 countries and many disciplines offers a variety of answers to this question It addresses the need to set new values for universities trapped today in narratives dominated by financial incentives and performance indicators and examines those wicked problems which need multiple solutions resolutions experiments and imaginaries This mix of new and well established voices provides hopeful new ways of thinking about Higher Education across a range of contexts and how to concretise initiatives to deal with local and global challenges In an unusual and refreshing way the contributors provide insights about resilience tactics and collective actions across different levels of higher education using an array of styles and formats including essays poetry and speculative fiction With its interdisciplinary appeal this book presents itself as a provocative and inspiring resource for universities students and scholars Higher Education for Good courageously offers critique hope and purpose for the practice and the trajectory of Higher Education

The Gift of Education Norman A. Newberg, 2006-06-01 Tells the story of how two philanthropists promised each of the 112 graduating sixth graders at Belmont Elementary a school in one of Philadelphia's poorest neighborhoods a fully paid college education to the institution of their choice

The Southern Workman, 1925 The May or June issue of 1900 1939 includes the report of the institute's president for 1900 1939

The Gift Aafke E. Komter, 1996 What moves us to give gifts to other people The Gift brings together perspectives on gift exchange and reciprocity from different social scientific disciplines The first part of this book contains anthropological and sociological classics on gift giving and reciprocity In the second part the focus is on social psychological theories and on empirical research on gift giving in Western society Finally the main concepts underlying gift exchange reciprocity self interest and altruism are discussed Here the focus is on fundamental assumptions about human nature Altruism and self interest turn out to be much more interwoven than we are Buechel,2021-06-01 Philanthropy has long been associated with images of industrial titans and wealthy families In Pittsburgh long a center for industry the shadows of Carnegie Mellon Frick and others loom especially large while the stories of working class citizens who uplifted their neighbors remain untold For the first time these two portraits of Pittsburgh philanthropy converge in a rich historic tapestry The Gift of Belief reveals how Pittsburghers from every strata creed and circumstance organized their private resources for the public good The industrialists and their foundations are here but stand alongside lesser known philanthropists equally involved in institution building civic reform and community empowerment Beginning with sectarian philanthropy in the nineteenth century moving to scientific philanthropy in the early twentieth century and Pittsburgh Renaissance era institution building and concluding with modern entrepreneurship twelve authors trace how Pittsburgh aligned with led or lagged behind the national philanthropic story and explore how ideals of charity and philanthropy entwined to produce distinctive forms of engagement that has defined Pittsburgh s civic life     The English Illustrated Magazine: "The Gift of the Sea" ,1890     Stevens Indicator ... ,1912     Regents' Proceedings University of Michigan.
