Gift Of Heritage:

DEcolonial Heritage Aníbal Arregui, Gesa Mackenthun, Stephanie Wodianka, 2018 The volume attempts to triangulate three vibrant discourses of our times It combines postcolonial and decolonial readings of cultural conflicts with assessments of ecological dimensions of those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage The examples from four continents range from the medieval Middle East already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval Vikings the persistence of Indigenous knowledge in the Arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of Mediterranean urban architecture Authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing Western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time Colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability But the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices Without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory

Heritage and the Legacy of the Past in Contemporary Britain Ryan Trimm, 2017-08-24 Bringing together heritage studies and literary studies this book examines heritage as a ubiquitous trope in contemporary Britain a seemingly inescapable figure for relations to the past Inheritance has been an important metaphor for characterizing cultural and political traditions since the 1970s but one criticized for its conservatism and apparent disinheritance of new Britons Engaging with contemporary literary and cinematic texts the book interrogates metaphoric resonances that bestowing past receiving present and transmitted bounty are all singular and unified that transmission between past and present is smooth despite heritage depending on death that the past enjoins the present to conserve its legacy into the future However heritage offers an alternative to modern market driven relations transactions stressing connection only through a momentary exchange for bequest resembles gift giving and connects past to present Consequently heritage contains competing impulses subtexts largely unexplored given the trope's lapse into cliché The volume charts how these resonances developed as well as charting more contemporary aspects of heritage as postmodern image tourist industry historic environment and metaculture These dimensions develop the trope moving it from singular focus on continuity with the past to one more oriented around different lines of relation between past present and future Heritage as a trope is explored through a wide range of texts core accounts of political theory Locke and Burke seminal documents within historic conservation phenomenology and poststructuralism film and television Merchant Ivory Downton Abbey and a broad range of contemporary fiction from novelists including Zadie Smith Julian Barnes Hilary Mantel Sarah Waters Alan Hollinghurst Peter Ackroyd and Helen Oyeyemi

Marketing Heritage Yorke Rowan, Uzi Baram, 2004-09-01 What are the implications of mass tourism and globalization for the field of archaeology How does this change popular understandings of the past

Increasingly archaeological sites worldwide are being commodified for a growing tourist trade. At best expansion of programs can aid in the protection and historic preservation of sites and strengthen community identities. However unchecked commercial development may undermine the integrity of these same sites replacing local interests with corporate ones economically and culturally. Within this volume original case studies from well known sites in Cambodia Israel England Mexico and North America are presented to address the complex interaction between archaeology and nationalist political and commercial policies. This book should appeal to archaeologists applied anthropologists tourism and economic development specialists and historic preservationists alike as well others with an interest in the preservation of archaeological sites as historic locales

Writing and Heritage in Contemporary Spain Stuart Davis, 2012 This volume is an innovative exploration of cultural heritage through museum studies metacriticism and literary criticism. This is an innovative exploration of cultural heritage and the literary traditions that shape the contemporary literary scene in Spain. Through a coalescence of museum studies metacriticism and traditional literary criticism the study interweaves discussion of museum spaces with literary analysis exploring them as agents of memorialisation and a means for preserving and conveying heritage. Following introductory explorations of the development of museums and the literary canon each chapter begins with a visit to a Spanish museum establishing the framework for the subsequent discussion of critical practices and texts. Case studies include examination of the palimpsest and unconscious influence of canonical cores the response to masculine traditions of poetry and art counter culture of the 1990s and the ethical concerns of postmemory writing. STUART DAVIS is a Lecturer in Spanish Girton College and Newton Trust Lecturer in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese University of Cambridge

Performing Nordic Heritage Lizette Gradén, 2016-05-13 The performance of heritage takes place in prestigious institutions such as museums and archives in officially sanctioned spaces such as jubilees and public monuments but also in more mundane ephemeral and banal cultural practices such as naming of phenomena viewing exhibitions or walking in the countryside This volume examines the performance of Nordic heritage and the shaping of the very idea of Norden in diverse contexts in North America the Baltic and the Nordic countries and examines the importance of these places as sites for creating and preserving cultural heritage Offering rich perspectives on a part of Europe which has not been the centre of discussion in the Anglophone world this volume will be of value to a wide readership including cultural historians museum practitioners policy makers and scholars of heritage ethnology and folkloristics

Hip Heritage and Museum Practices in Contemporary Hybrid Markets Lizette Gradén, Tom O'Dell, 2023-12-22 Focusing on how museums prioritize and produce content Hip Heritage demonstrates how economic issues play an ever larger role in determining how cultural heritage is being framed and presented in contemporary heritage museums Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork conducted by the authors at seven museums over the course of five years this book offers an in depth analysis of heritage museums in Nordic Scandinavian and North American contexts It investigates how economic realities coupled with the cultural contexts in which museums operate affect how these institutions organize manage and develop their collections to make themselves relevant in society Once charged with the primary task of educating citizens about their cultural identity and history national museums and heritage organizations are also under pressure to rethink their market demands and meet stakeholders increasing interest in growing visitor numbers and expanding economic returns Simultaneously many museums are part of a cultural sector with diminished public funding and increased competition for the existing financing Against this background this book questions When the budget is tight whose heritage counts most It considers museums as arenas for heritage politics in action on the local national and international levels as well as at the institutional level Hip Heritage will appeal to scholars and students engaged in the study of ethnology heritage museum studies marketing leisure and tourism public folklore and sociology

A Gift of Freedom John Jos. Miller, 2022-03-22 In the 1970s John M Olin one of the country's leading industrialists decided to devote his fortune to saving American free enterprise Over the next three decades the John M Olin Foundation funded the conservative movement as it emerged from the intellectual ghetto and occupied the halls of power The foundation spent hundreds of millions of dollars fostering what its longtime president William E Simon called the counterintelligentsia to offset liberal dominance of university faculties and the mainstream media and to make conservatism a significant cultural force Among the counterintellectuals the foundation identified and supported at key stages of their careers were Charles Murray during his early work on welfare reform Allan Bloom as he wrote The Closing of the American Mind and Francis Fukuyama as he was developing his End of History thesis

Using exclusive access to the John M Olin Foundation's leading personalities as well as its extensive archives John J Miller tells the story of an intriguing man and his unique philanthropic vision He gives fascinating insights into the foundation's role in helping the CIA fund anti Communist organizations during the Cold War and its extensive help to Irving Kristol and others as they moved from left to right to found the neoconservative movement He tells of the foundation's early and critical role in building institutions such as the Federalist Society and the Heritage Foundation which served to transform conservative ideas into national policies A Gift of Freedom shows how John M Olin's venture capital fund for the conservative movement helped develop one of the leading forces in American politics and culture Skiing Heritage Journal, 2011-07 Skiing Heritage is a quarterly Journal of original entertaining and informative feature articles on skiing history Published by the International Skiing History Association its contents support ISHA's mission to preserve skiing history and to increase awareness of the sport's heritage Sociology of World Heritage Masahiro Ogino, 2021-11-29 Taking mainly Japanese and other Asian case studies as examples Ogino examines the motivations behind the preservation of objects and sites considered to be of cultural significance Using mainly the perspectives of Japanese approaches to cultural heritage the book critiques the European logic of cultural heritage enshrined by UNESCO It contrasts a Western emphasis on monuments and sites with an Asian emphasis on more intangible forms of heritage which place less emphasis on a linear view of time More practically the authors also analyse the positive and negative impacts that UNESCO listed status has had on sites in Asia including Angkor Wat Nagasaki and Lijiang Finally they address fundamental questions about who gets to decide what counts as cultural heritage and what the underlying rationale is for actively preserving heritage in the first place This book is a thoughtful and provocative analysis of issues that will be of interest to sociologists as well as scholars and students of cultural heritage Skiing Heritage Journal, 1999-03 Skiing Heritage is a quarterly Journal of original entertaining and informative feature articles on skiing history Published by the International Skiing History Association its contents support ISHA's mission to preserve skiing history and to increase awareness of the sport's heritage The Dynamics of Heritage Laurence Gouriévidis, 2016-03-23 There has been much academic interest in the role of museums as places where understanding of the past is shaped and legitimised for a wide and increasingly diverse public This book focuses on the museum representations of the Highland Clearances a much neglected aspect of one of the most disputed and politically charged issues in modern Scottish history Drawing together a range of inter disciplinary themes and notions it considers the cultural legacy of the period brings to light the socially and historically conditioned meanings and values encapsulated in museum narratives of the Clearances and shows the significance of collective memory in the negotiations inherent in heritage work Examining both national and local museums in Scotland and concluding with comparisons with Australian museums of migration Dynamics of Heritage contributes to our understanding of the processes of heritage construction and its relationship to issues of memory and other modes of engagement with the past Raj Rhapsodies: Tourism, Heritage and the Seduction of History Maxine Weisgrau, Carol Henderson, 2016-03-23 Heritage is a prized cultural commodity in the marketing of tourism destinations Particular aspects of heritage are often more actively promoted with others played down The representation of heritage in tourism as static and timeless derived since time immemorial from a distant past is seductive In Asia a major part of the tourism market lies in the sale and consumption of highly orientalized images and versions of culture and history In India s marketing discourse the state of Rajasthan symbolizes the nation in its heritage laden traditional and most authentic form These images draw heavily on the British period in India the Raj In one sense this vision of Rajasthan is ennobling highlighting moments of cultural pride In another sense it demeans by omitting and obscuring salient features of contemporary life This fascinating book explores the cultural politics of tourism through interdisciplinary perspectives Carol E Henderson and Maxine Weisgrau demonstrate that tourism heritage privileges elite histories that recapitulate colonial relationships compelling non elites to collude in these narratives of subordination even as they advance their own alternative visions of history The Scots Digest ,1915
