The Parish Hadley firm's list of clients reads like an American Who's Who including Astors Paleys Rockefellers and Whitneys and she helped Jacqueline Kennedy transform the White House from a fusty hodge podge into a historically authentic symbol of American elegance. Cozy, airy, colorful but understated, her style came to be known as American country and its influence continues to this day. Compiled by her daughter and granddaughter from Sister's own unpublished memoirs as well as from hundreds of interviews with family members, friends, staff, world renowned interior designers Mark Hampton, Mario Buatta, Keith Irvine, Bunny Williams and her longtime partner Albert Hadley among many others, and clients including Annette de la Renta, Glenn Bernbaum and Mrs. Thomas Watson, Sister Parish takes us into the houses and lives of some of the most fascinating and famous people of this inimitable woman's time. Fully updated, the revised edition features a new foreword by Albert Hadley and an appreciation by Bunny Williams who began her career at Parish Hadley. Selections from Mrs. Parish's own rather wonderful, often moving reminiscences intercut with observations from her family, employees, clients and friends. The New York Times Book Review. Sister's delightfully self-deprecating humor illuminates the biography throughout. Kirkus Reviews. Includes photographs. Encyclopedia of American Short Films, 1926-1959 Graham Webb, 2020-07-10. Short subject films have a long history in American cinemas. These could be anywhere from 2 to 40 minutes long and were used as a filler in a picture show that would include a cartoon, a newsreel, possibly a serial, and a short before launching into the feature film. Shorts could tackle any topic of interest: an unusual travelogue, a comedy musical, revues, sports, nature, or popular vaudeville acts. With the advent of sound on film in the mid to late 1920s, makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films, using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies. After the Second World War and the rising popularity of television, short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s. This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s. Here Beneath Low-Flying Planes Merrill Feitell, 2004-10. The stories in Merrill Feitell's award-winning collection Here Beneath Low Flying Planes examine the fleeting and unexpected moments of human connection, reminding us of the indelible impact we have on one another, no matter how insignificant or anonymous we might feel under our huge collective sky. Feitell's characters deal with shifting dynamics in relationships, whether they be best friends, lovers, family, or even strangers, that consistently leave them torn between two places or commitments. In the title story, Janie has undergone a painful childbirth experience, and her group of friends must pioneer new dynamics while she wonders how to bring her old self back. In Bike New York, amid thirty thousand cyclists, a man on the brink of marriage meets a young girl who, in a tiny Brooklyn bakery, affirms both who he has been and who he is going to be. On this short detour from normal life, he comes to understand the funny thing about finding your way in the world: There was a place laid out for you, and even as you stepped into it, happy for the chance to rest, you wondered how you ever ended up there. Funny, big-hearted, and deft, Here Beneath Low Flying Planes navigates the reader through the life that happens when you're planning other things It is a collection of experiences roads not taken and the intense and unforeseen sparks of connection we hope for
