Five women revolutionize the modern art world in postwar America in this gratifying generous and lush true story from a National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize finalist Jennifer Szalai New York Times Set amid the most turbulent social and political period of modern times Ninth Street Women is the impassioned wild sometimes tragic always exhilarating chronicle of five women who dared to enter the male dominated world of twentieth century abstract painting not as muses but as artists From their cold water lofts where they worked drank fought and loved these pioneers burst open the door to the art world for themselves and countless others to come Gutsy and indomitable Lee Krasner was a hell raising leader among artists long before she became part of the modern art world's first celebrity couple by marrying Jackson Pollock Elaine de Kooning whose brilliant mind and peerless charm made her the emotional center of the New York School used her work and words to build a bridge between the avant garde and a public that scorned abstract art as a hoax Grace Hartigan fearlessly abandoned life as a New Jersey housewife and mother to achieve stardom as one of the boldest painters of her generation Joan Mitchell whose notoriously tough exterior shielded a vulnerable artist within escaped a privileged but emotionally damaging Chicago childhood to translate her fierce vision into magnificent canvases And Helen Frankenthaler the beautiful daughter of a prominent New York family chose the difficult path of the creative life Her gamble paid off At twenty three she created a work so original it launched a new school of painting These women changed American art and society tearing up the prevailing social code and replacing it with a doctrine of liberation In Ninth Street Women acclaimed author Mary Gabriel tells a remarkable and inspiring story of the power of art and artists in shaping not just postwar America but the future Running on Empty John A. Strong, 2013-06-01 Explores how Southampton College went from the jewel in the university crown to an albatross around the university neck Harold Rosenberg Debra Bricker Balken, 2021-10-06

Despite being one of the foremost American intellectuals of the mid twentieth century Harold Rosenberg 1906 1978 was utterly incapable of fitting in and he liked it that way Signature cane in one hand and a cigarette in the other he cut a distinctive figure on the New York City culture scene with his radiant dark eyes and black bushy brows A gangly giant at six foot four he would tower over others as he forcefully expounded on his latest obsession in an oddly high pitched nasal voice And people would listen captivated by his ideas With Harold Rosenberg A Critic's Life Debra Bricker Balken offers the first ever complete biography of this great and eccentric man Although he is now known mainly for his role as an art critic at the New Yorker from 1962 to 1978 Balken weaves together a complete tapestry of Rosenberg's life and literary production cast against the dynamic intellectual and social ferment of his time She explores his role in some of the most contentious cultural debates of the Cold War period including those over the commodification of art and the erosion of individuality in favor of celebrity demonstrated in his famous essay The Herd of Independent Minds An outspoken socialist and advocate for the political agency of art he formed deep alliances with figures such as Hannah Arendt Saul Bellow Paul Goodman Mary

McCarthy Jean Paul Sartre Willem de Kooning and Jackson Pollock all of whom Balken portrays with vivid accounts from Rosenberg's life Thoroughly researched and captivantly written this book tells in full Rosenberg's brilliant fiercely independent life and the five decades in which he played a leading role in US cultural intellectual and political history An Accidental Corpse Helen A. Harrison, 2020-08-04 Accidents happen But so does murder On the night of August 11 1956 in a quiet East Hampton hamlet Jackson Pollock crashed his car into a tree The accident killed Pollock the world renowned abstract painter and notorious alcoholic and his 25 year old passenger Edith Metzger or did it Metzger's autopsy reveals that she was already dead before the crash Was it murder This shocking question draws vacationing Detective Juanita Diaz and her husband Captain Brian Fitzgerald of the NYPD into a homicide investigation that implicates famous members of East Hampton's art community including Pollock himself Edifying and juicy Newsday Restless Ambition Cathy Curtis, 2015-02-17 This first ever biography of American painter Grace Hartigan traces her rise from virtually self taught painter to art world fame her plunge into obscurity after leaving New York to marry a scientist in Baltimore and her constant efforts to reinvent her style and subject matter Along the way there were multiple affairs four troubled marriages a long battle with alcoholism and a chilly relationship with her only child Attempting to channel her vague ambitions after an early marriage Grace struggled to master the basics of drawing in night school classes She moved to New York in her early twenties and befriended Willem de Kooning Jackson Pollock and other artists who were pioneering Abstract Expressionism Although praised for the coloristic brio of her abstract paintings she began working figuratively a move that was much criticized but ultimately vindicated when the Museum of Modern Art purchased her painting The Persian Jacket in 1953 By the mid fifties she freely combined abstract and representational elements Grace who signed her paintings Hartigan was a full fledged member of the men's club that was the 1950s art scene Featured in Time Newsweek Life and Look she was the only woman in MoMA's groundbreaking 12 Americans exhibition in 1956 and the youngest artist and again only woman in The New American Painting which toured Europe in 1958 1959 Two years later she moved to Baltimore where she became legendary for her signature tough love counsel to her art school students Grace continued to paint throughout her life seeking for better or worse something truer and fiercer than beauty Horizon Chasers Gerry Max, 2007-03-07 Richard Halliburton was the quintessential world traveler of the early 20th century In 1930 his celebrity equaled that of Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart Halliburton called himself a horizon chaser and recommended that one should see the world before committing to a routine Not only did he live up to his ideal but he was eager to write about his adventures A prolific partnership with gifted editor and ghost writer Paul Mooney produced excellent work and theirs became a close personal relationship Sadly Halliburton and Mooney disappeared at sea on March 24 1939 along with the entire crew of Halliburton's Chinese junk Sea Dragon as they attempted to cross the Pacific from Hong Kong to the San Francisco World's Fair This biography records the life and adventures of Halliburton and Mooney focusing as no other Halliburton biography has on the

Kurt Vonnegut Remembered Jim O'Loughlin, 2019-03-26 A collection of reminiscences that illuminate the career and private life of the iconic author of Slaughterhouse-Five Kurt Vonnegut 1922-2007 who began his writing career working for popular magazines held both literary aspirations and an attraction to genre fiction His conspicuous refusal to respect literary boundaries was part of what made him a countercultural icon in the 1960s and 1970s Vonnegut's personal life was marked in large part by public success and private turmoil Two turbulent marriages his sudden adoption of his late sister's four children and the equally sudden removal of one of those children and a mid-eighties suicide attempt all signaled the extent of Vonnegut's inner troubles Yet he was a generous friend to many maintaining close correspondences throughout his life Kurt Vonnegut Remembered gathers reminiscences by those who knew him intimately and from those met him only once that span Vonnegut's entire life Among the anecdotes in this collection are remembrances from his immediate family reflections from his comrades in World War II and tributes from writers he worked with in Iowa City and from those who knew him when he was young Editor Jim O'Loughlin offers biographical notes on Vonnegut's relationship with each of these figures Since Vonnegut's death much has been written on his life and work but this new volume offers a more generous view of his life particularly his last years In O'Loughlin's introduction to the volume he argues that we can locate and understand

Vonnegut's best self through his public persona and that in his performance as the kind and humane figure that many of the speakers here knew him as Vonnegut became a better person than he ever felt himself to be
