Other People David Shields, 2018-01-16 Other People is something of a revelation seventy plus essays that form neither a miscellany nor a memoir but an intellectually thrilling and emotionally wrenching investigation of otherness Can one person know another person How do we live through other people Is it possible to fill the gap between people If not what function does art serve Whether he is writing about sexual desire or information sickness George W Bush or Kurt Cobain women's eyeglasses or Greek tragedy Howard Cosell or Bill Murray the comedy of high school journalism or the agony of first love Shields sustains a piercing focus on the multiplicity of perspectives the irreducible log jam of human information and the possibilities and impossibilities for human connection

Crisis Style Michael Dango, 2021-11-16 In this expansive and provocative new work Michael Dango theorizes how aesthetic style manages crisis and why taking crisis seriously means taking aesthetics seriously Detoxing filtering bingeing and ghosting these are four actions that have come to define how people deal with the stress of living in a world that seems in permanent crisis As Dango argues they can also be used to describe contemporary art and literature Employing what he calls promiscuous archives Dango traverses media and re shuffles literary and art historical genealogies to make his case The book discusses social media filters alongside the minimalism of Donald Judd and La Monte Young and the television shows The West Wing and True Detective It reflects on the modernist cuisine of Ferran Adri and the fashion design of Issey Miyake And it dissects writing by Barbara Browning William S Burroughs Raymond Carver Mark Danielewski Jennifer Egan Tao Lin David Mitchell Joyce Carol Oates Mary Robison and Zadie Smith Unpacking how the styles of these works detox filter binge or ghost their worlds Crisis Style is at once a taxonomy of contemporary cultural production and a theorization of action in a world always in need of repair Ultimately Dango presents a compelling argument for why we need aesthetic theory to understand what we re doing in our world today

Remote David Shields,2003-10-30 In this truly one of a kind book the author narrator a representative in extremis of contemporary American obsession with beauty celebrity transmitted image finds himself suspended fascinated in the remoteness of our wall to wall mediascape It is a remoteness that both perplexes and enralls him Through dazzling sleight of hand in which the public becomes private and the private becomes public the entire book clicking from confession to family album photograph to family chronicle to sexual fantasy to pseudo scholarly footnote to reportage to personal essay to stand up comedy to cultural criticism to literary criticism to film criticism to prose poem to litany to outtake becomes both an anatomy of American culture and a searing self portrait David Shields reads his own life reads our life as if it were an allegory about remoteness and finds persuasive hilarious heartbreaking evidence wherever he goes Winner of the PEN Revson Award
