Handbook For Conflict Resolution In South Asia:

A Handbook for Conflict Resolution in South Asia Sundeep Waslekar,1996 SAPANA: Conflict resolution in South Asia Imtiaz Alam,2006 Conflict Resolution in Asia Stephanie P. Stobbe,2020-07-06 Conflict Resolution in Asia Mediation and Other Cultural Models is an exploration of human interaction conflict and conflict resolution in the incredibly diverse region that consists of South East and Southeast Asia It examines how traditional indigenous and culturally based conflict resolution processes interact with more formal legal systems to build infrastructures that address conflicts at the interpersonal to international levels in ways that maintain social harmony This book provides insight into situations where unique cultures come together to create a larger cultural identity and how constructive and appropriate conflict resolution systems can work every day to establish positive relationships and overall peace in these complex communities It demonstrates the importance of culture in addressing conflict and conflict resolution and validates the significance of culturally appropriate processes in building and sustaining peace From Southeast Asia a survey of Indonesia Laos Philippines Thailand Singapore and Vietnam highlights their rich cultures and conflict resolution processes From East Asia Mainland China and Hong Kong show the history of traditional models and the incorporation of mediation within a more formal legal system Finally a section on South Asia examines customary methods of dispute resolution working alongside a judiciary structure in India These nine countries represent very different cultural groups with complex national histories and varying degrees of influence from Western powers Using select Asian nations as case studies of conflict resolution systems this edited book examines the power of mediation and other cultural conflict resolution models as a tool for addressing conflicts and social justice South Asia, 2010 Kant Kishore Bhargava,Sridhar K. Human Rights and Conflict Resolution Claudia Fuentes Julio,Paula Drumond,2017-11-22 Human rights and conflict resolution have been traditionally perceived as two separate fields sometimes in competition or in tension and occasionally with contradictory approaches towards achieving a lasting peace Although human rights norms have been incorporated and institutionalized by various national regional and international organizations that deal with conflict resolution negotiators and mediators are often pressured in practice to overlook international human rights principles in favor of compliance and more immediate outcomes The chapters in this volume navigate the relationship between human rights and conflict resolution by fleshing out practical conceptual and institutional encounters of the two agendas and engaging with lessons learned and windows of opportunities for mutual learning Recognizing the increasing relevance of this debate and important gaps in the current research on the topic this book addresses the following questions How can we improve our practical and theoretical understanding of the complementarity between human rights and conflict resolution How would a human rights based approach to conflict resolution look like How are international regional and national organizations promoting implementing and or adapting to better coordinate between human rights and conflict resolution Building on empirical evidence from contemporary conflict resolution processes how have human rights been integrated in different efforts on the ground What are the main lessons learned in this regard Examining a wide range of countries and issues this work is essential reading for human rights conflict resolution and security experts including scholars diplomats policy makers civil society representatives and students of international politics Women and Conflict in India Sanghamitra Choudhury,2016-02-05 This book analyses the impact that prolonged socio political conflict in India has had on political and social spaces for women Focusing in particular on Assam in the North East of India it looks at how the conflict can be restricting and yet can also have the potential to expand these spaces for women owing to the collapsing of boundaries of gender roles thereby creating niche areas that may be leveraged for socio political transformation Based on empirical material collected from in depth interviews with individuals on both sides of the conflict the book locates the analysis in both a legal and political context It examines the causes dynamics and impact of the ethno political conflicts in Assam as well as the efficacy and outcomes of capacity building programmes aimed at rehabilitating the surrendered militants as well as assisting affected women The book goes on to look at the role played by civil society especially the Mahila Shanti Sena Women Peace Corp towards conflict transformation It highlights the preventive mitigative and adaptive measures taken by the women and their role as agents of peace in the volatile zones of North East India Analysing the changing role of women in conflict situations as well as the legal measures and regulatory mechanisms in place for women in vulnerable pockets of India this book is a useful contribution to Gender Studies Peace and Conflict Studies and South Asian Politics Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress Office, New Delhi,1996-05 Critical Aspects of Gender in Conflict Resolution, Peacebuilding, and Social Movements Anna Christine Snyder,Stephanie Phetsamay Stobbe,2011-11-02 Investigates gendered aspects of social activism and peacebuilding This title focuses on the agency of grassroots citizens refugee indigenous and ethnic minority women It brings gendered aspects of practice that assists scholars and practitioners in research and policy development Conflict and Reconciliation Uddipana Goswami,2014-08-07 Diverging from reductionist studies of Northeast India and its multifarious conflicts this book presents an exclusive and intricate empirical and theoretical study of Assam as a conflict zone It traces the genesis and evolution of the ethnic and nationalistic politics in the state and explores how this gave birth to nativist and militant movements It further discusses how the State s responses seem to have exacerbated rather than mitigated the conflict situation The author proposes ethnic reconciliation as an effective way out of the current chaos and finds the key in examining the relations between three communities Axamiy Bodo and Koch from Bodoland the most violent region of Assam She stresses upon the need to redefine Axamiy an issue of much discord in Assam s ethnic politics since the modern day formulation of the Axamiy nation The book will prove essential to scholars and students of peace and conflict studies sociology political science and history as also to policy makers and those interested in Northeast India Reconstructing South Asia ,2007 A collection of articles by the scholars across the South Asian region attempts to suggest ways and means to overcome the problems of varied colours major bottlenecks in achieving a particular identity in affirmation to reconstruct South Asia region The need of a South Asian Union and a single currency in the region and other issues like peace security economic cultural and political issues are well discussed from the people centric perspective

Track Two Diplomacy and Jerusalem Tom Najem, Michael James Molloy, Michael Dougall Bell, John Bell, 2017-02-03 Track Two Diplomacy and Jerusalem is the first in a series of three books which collectively present the work of the Jerusalem Old City Initiative or JOCI a major Canadian led Track Two diplomatic effort undertaken between 2003 and 2014 JOCI's raison d'être was to find sustainable governance solutions for the Old City of Jerusalem arguably the most sensitive and intractable of the final status issues dividing Palestinians and Israelis Track Two Diplomacy and Jerusalem includes a series of studies that place JOCI within its historical setting and explain the theoretical context of Track Two diplomacy The book then proceeds to present the Initiative's culminating documents which outline in detail its proposed Special Regime governance model Until now the proposals have remained unpublished and available only to a limited audience of key stakeholders Presenting the information in an accessible format this book will contribute positively to the wider conversation on Jerusalem especially with respect to the longstanding conflict over control and governance of this holy city It will therefore be of value to several audiences from the policy making community to the various traditions found in academia Contemporary Conflict

Resolution Oliver Ramsbotham, Tom Woodhouse, Hugh Miall, 2005-12-08 Offering an assessment of the theory and practice of conflict resolution in post Cold War conflicts this book addresses a number of questions It explores the nature of contemporary conflict and the development of conflict resolution Asia's Trouble Spots A. S. Bhalla, 2019-08-06 The art of successful negotiations over protracted conflicts presupposes a political commitment to peace and a willingness to compromise which are sorely lacking in the current disorderly world Part of the blame for this lies in weak and ineffective national and global leadership This book's sharp focus on the role of leadership at different levels national government rebel and Western regional government mediators as well as that of the UN and non governmental players in settling intra state disputes is a unique feature which sets it apart from others Much of the existing literature does not adequately discuss the role of the above actors in developing countries Asia's Trouble Spots is a serious attempt to fill this gap The seven country studies in Asia Myanmar Indonesia Philippines Thailand Sri Lanka India and China discuss inter alia how peace negotiations between national political and rebel leaders have unfolded The role of state sponsored cross border terrorists and non state spoilers such as Al Qaeda and ISIS is addressed in the context of geopolitical rivalry among regional and global powers A S Bhalla challenges the view that Western leaders can act as impartial mediators in intra state and inter state disputes With few exceptions their record has been dismal at best Their failure in conflict resolution arises from a loss of moral authority and credibility which follows the gradual erosion over the years of such liberal values as the rule of law and respect for democracy and human rights Commercial and strategic self interests have also tended to undermine peacebuilding efforts

Religious Militancy and Security in South Asia Mufleh R. Osmany, Shaheen Afroze, 2006

Gender and Peacebuilding Maureen P. Flaherty, Thomas G. Matyók, Sean Byrne, Hamdesa Tusso, 2015-10-16

The twenty first century has brought with it a shift from the notion of human security being located in secure national borders to the need to secure the safety freedom and dignity of all. Despite efforts to equalize women's status in the world evidenced by changes in many international projects requiring a gender focus, women and men experience most of the world in very different ways according to gender. Further the reality is that humans who do not all fall neatly into one of these categories, male or female, often find their lives further challenged. In the 1980s Peace and Conflict Studies first began to acknowledge and study the different experiences males and females have during war and peace. Since then there have been books about women and war, women working at grassroots levels to build peace, women and transitional justice, women and peace education, and women's views of human security. All of these works have contributed to the discourse of our changing world. This book brings together some of those themes and voices and adds more, with the final product being more than the sum of its parts. We add to the conversation a book that considers foundational fundamental issues that span from the interpersonal to the global. Many of the chapters describe empirical research completed with author and community shared here for the first time. Part One is a collection of case studies documenting challenges and responses to peacebuilding by women from various parts of the world. Part Two focuses on Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) as a discipline examining not only what is but also what should be taught. This section critiques today's efforts at teaching Peace and Conflict Studies and provides suggestions of how this important work might be shared in more open and equitable ways. Part Three enters territory found even less in the PACS literature. In this section our authors confront patriarchy, engage in a discussion about the contribution queer theory makes to PACS, and tussle with the notion of inclusivity with considerations of both gender and disability. It then ends with a discussion about the contribution feminist methodologies make to PACS.

Handbook on Peace Education Gavriel Salomon, Ed Cairns, 2011-02-25

This handbook encompasses a range of disciplines that underlie the field of peace education and provides the rationales for the ways it is actually carried out. The discipline is a composite of contributions from a variety of disciplines ranging from social psychology to philosophy and from communication to political science. That is, peace education is an applied subject which is practiced in differing ways but must always be firmly based on a range of established empirical disciplines. The volume is structured around contributions from expert scholars in various fields that underpin peace education, plus contributions from experts in applying peace education in a range of settings, all complemented by chapters which deal with issues related to research and evaluation of peace education.

Comparative Politics of Southeast Asia Aurel Croissant, Philip Lorenz, 2017-12-26

This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the political systems of all ASEAN countries and Timor-Leste from a comparative perspective. It investigates the political institutions, actors, and processes in eleven states, covering democracies as well as autocratic regimes. Each country study includes an analysis of the current system of governance the party and electoral system and an assessment of the state its legal system and administrative bodies Students of political science and regional studies will also learn about processes of democratic transition and autocratic persistence as well as how civil society and the media influence the political culture in each country

Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2021-05-21 Violent extremism is not new but we have witnessed its rise to the point that it has become a defining issue of our time We cannot brush it aside any longer it characterizes who we are as a people and as a global society Why is violent extremism rising What are its drivers and triggers These questions must be asked and answered first and Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism takes up the questions and the answers In an effort to end violent extremism the next questions that must be pursued are these How shall we prevent and undo extremism especially the militant and violent kind In this world of violent extremism what curriculum designs educational programs and pedagogies shall we employ to develop competent citizens civic leaders and pastors as well as resilient communities

Ceasefire Agreements and Peace Processes Malin Akebo, 2016-11-10 This book analyses and compares ceasefire agreements as part of peace processes in intrastate armed conflicts Research repeatedly underscores the importance of ceasefire agreements in peace processes but suggests that they can influence such processes in fundamentally different ways However despite contradictory expectations remarkably few studies have so far been devoted to systematic and in depth analysis of ceasefire agreements in contemporary intrastate armed conflicts This book contributes to filling this gap by using a process oriented conflict dynamics approach to analyse and explain how ceasefire agreements are being influenced by and in turn influences the broader dynamics of peace processes Empirically the book focuses on the armed conflicts in Aceh Indonesia and Sri Lanka Based on document studies and 57 interviews with key actors it presents comparative insights and in depth knowledge about ceasefire agreements in different contextual settings The book problematizes the common assumption in the literature that ceasefire agreements create momentum in peace processes and pave the way to peace and it provides a more nuanced analysis and understanding based on two empirical cases analysed within a comparative framework In contrast to conventional wisdom it demonstrates how ceasefires on the contrary also can have negative implications on peace processes This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies intra state conflict security studies and IR in general
