Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores,1916 Specters of War Ignacio Sarmiento,2025-03-11 Specters of War explores mourning practices in postwar Central America particularly in El Salvador and Guatemala Ignacio Sarmiento delves into the intricate dynamics of grieving through an interdisciplinary lens analyzing expressions of mourning in literature theater and sites of memory At the heart of this analysis is the contention over who has the right to mourn how mourning is performed and who is included in this process Sarmiento reveals mourning not as a private affair but as a battleground where different societal factions vie for the possibility of grieving the dead Through meticulous research and theoretical nuance Specters of War sheds light on the politics of mourning in postconflict societies Sarmiento argues that mourning is not merely a personal experience but a deeply political act intertwined with power struggles and societal divisions From victims of state terrorism to military elites various groups engage in a complex dance of grief revealing the fraught nature of public mourning in postwar Central America By examining cultural artifacts and memorialization projects Sarmiento uncovers the multifaceted nature of mourning and its implications for memory justice and reconciliation This groundbreaking work is essential reading for scholars students and professionals interested in Central American history and culture as well as post authoritarian societies Specters of War promises to deepen our understanding of postwar Central America and the legacy of loss in shaping collective identities and narratives of the past

Grammatical Analyses in Basque and Romance Linguistics Jon Franco, Alazne Landa, Juan Martín, 1999-01-01 This volume contains fifteen articles on current theoretical issues in Basque and Romance linguistics Even though Basque and Romance languages are typologically different and have different genetic origins one thousand years of coexistence have shown certain parallelisms in their respective grammars It is Mario Saltarelli that first offered a formal linguistic account of phonological and syntactic phenomena that occur in these two language groups Thus this compilation of articles in both Basque and Romance linguistics not only pays tribute to Saltarelli's work by acknowledging his formalization of this relational insight but also comprises state of the art research on languages with strong geographical and historical kinship Fifteen reviewed articles written by sixteen top scholars in the field provide fresh analyses of long standing challenging phenomena in Romance and Basque linguistics such as geminates the evolution of Basque plosives clitic doubling clitic clustering directionality of cliticization the role of agreement focus the interaction of voice and aspect unaccusativity semantic interpretation and syntactic structure of Determiner Phrases obviation control and anaphoric and pronominal binding This variety of topics however is unified by limiting the contributions to the four major formal areas of linguistics and to one single framework Generative Grammar although in some of its many incarnations such as Minimalism Optimality Theory and Relational Grammar All this along with the number of languages covered by the authors Aragonese Basque Catalan French Galician Gascon Italian and many of its dialects Ligurian Piedmontese Tuscan Classical and Late Latin Occitan Brazilian and European Portuguese Romanian Old and Modern Spanish among others makes the book of great value to any linguist working in Romance or Basque linguistics Studies in Historical Linguistics and Language Change. Grammaticalization, Refunctionalization and Beyond Dorien Nieuwenhuijsen, Mar Garachana, 2019-10-23 The present volume examines the usefulness of a particular set of concepts and processes of change studying their applicability to a range of linguistic changes in Spanish and Latin that cannot be easily or can only be partially accounted for within the framework of grammaticalization Rather than challenging the insights of grammaticalization theory the different contributions to this monograph demonstrate that exaptation capitalization refunctionalization and adfunctionalization as well as changes motivated by rhetorical guidelines constitute interesting and valuable notions that allow for a better understanding of specific language changes in Spanish and by extension of language change in general Issues in Formal German(ic) Typology Werner Abraham, C. Jan-Wouter Zwart, 2002 This book takes up a variety of general syntactic topics which either yield different solutions in German in particular or which lead to different conclusions for theory formation One of the main topics is the fact that languages that allow for extensive scrambling between the two verbal poles V 2 and V last need to integrate discourse functions like thema and rhema into the grammatical description This is attempted in terms of Minimalism thus extending the functional domain Special attention is given to the asymmetrical scrambling behavior of indefinites vs definites and their semantic interpretation Related topics are Transitive expletive sentences types of existential sentences with either BE or HAVE the that trace phenomenon and its semantics negative polarity items ellipsis and gapping passivization double negation all of which have extensive effects both on distributional behavior and semantic disambiguation reaching far beyond effects observable in English with its rigid unscrambable word order American Gnosis Arthur Versluis, 2023-10-20

El Salvador's civil war began in 1980 and ended twelve bloody years later It saw extreme violence on both sides including the terrorizing and targeting of civilians by death squads recruitment of child soldiers and the death and disappearance of more than 75 000 people Examining El Salvador's vibrant life story literature written in the aftermath of this terrible conflict including memoirs and testimonials Erik Ching seeks to understand how the war has come to be remembered and rebattled by Salvadorans and what that means for their society today Ching identifies four memory communities that dominate national postwar views civilian elites military officers guerrilla commanders and working class and poor testimonialists Pushing distinct and divergent stories these groups are today engaged in what Ching terms a narrative battle for control over the memory of the war Their ongoing publications in the marketplace of ideas tend to direct Salvadorans attempts to negotiate the war s meaning and legacy and Ching suggests that a more open coordinated reconciliation process is needed in this postconflict society In the meantime El Salvador fractured by conflicting interpretations of its national trauma is hindered in dealing with the immediate problems posed by the nexus of neoliberalism gang violence and outmigration
