BOOK JACKET

Frontier Mission Walter Brownlow Posey, 2021-10-21 Religion is viewed here as the great cultural force which introduced and preserved civilization in the era of westward expansion from 1776 to the eve of the Civil War In this first major study of religion in the South Mr Posey surveys the work of the seven chief denominations Methodist Baptist Presbyterian Disciples of Christ Cumberland Presbyterian Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal as they developed in the frontier region that now comprises the states of Kentucky Tennessee Alabama Mississippi Louisiana Texas Arkansas and Missouri The great challenges faced by the churches Mr Posey believes were first the barbarism continually threatening a people isolated in a savage wilderness and second the materialism likely to engross minds preoccupied with the hard necessities of frontier survival Many frontiersmen who had wandered across the mountains to escape the trammels and restrictions of an established society were distrustful of traditional religion and some forgot their inherited beliefs entirely To overcome these attitudes demanded new approaches As organizations the churches faced great obstacles in attempting to minister to the folk on the moving frontier One early answer was the camp meeting and many of its features an emphasis upon fervid emotion and individualism and the active participation and use of untrained people in religious services continued as dominant elements in frontier religion Indeed those churches flexible enough to make use of these appeals were the most successful in spreading their beliefs But inherent in the emotion and individualism was the danger of fragmentation a danger most tragically evident when the slavery controversy split most southern denominations from their northern brethren In education the churches fared better even those that were at first skeptical of its benefits were by the time of the Civil War actively engaged in its support But overall the southern churches were hampered by too little money for the support of priests and preachers too little communication between isolated congregations and too little regard for service to the community At the center of the churches work the care of congregations the missions to the Indians and the Negroes and the founding of educational institutions were the frontier ministers Mr Posey pictures these men stern and hard but full of zeal as performing a stupendous task in their efforts to build and maintain spiritual life on the southern frontier      The Christian Advocate
