Life As I See It A Poetic Diary:

Life As I See It Pamela O. Humphrey, 2004-10-01 These poems are moments in my life I estimate between the ages of 23 and 28 These were not the good old days These were just days when I didn't know what to do with myself I went from one thing to the next and changed my mind as frequently as I took a breath of air The only important thing that existed in my life was my daughter and trying to find a way to make something out of nothing Poetry for me is like therapy it helps me rationalize and work through all the confusion in my mind I have a love of the written word and poetry is an entertaining and memorable means of communicating my ideas This book is a collection of my emotions these are my innermost thoughts about relationships friendships sorrow pain anger frustration and confusion Anisa's Poem Diary. Life is a Story - Story.one Anisa Elmazi, 2024-05-13 The Life of Billy Yank Bell Irvin Wiley, 2008-09-01 In this companion to The Life of Johnny Reb Bell Irvin Wiley explores the daily lives of the men in blue who fought to save the Union With the help of many soldiers letters and diaries Wiley explains who these men were and why they fought how they reacted to combat and the strain of prolonged conflict and what they thought about the land and the people of Dixie This fascinating social history reveals that while the Yanks and the Rebs fought for very different causes the men on both sides were very much the same This wonderfully interesting book is the finest memorial the Union soldier is ever likely to have Wiley has written about the Northern troops with an admirable objectivity with sympathy and understanding and profound respect for their fighting abilities He has also written about them with fabulous learning and considerable pace and humor Japanese Poetic Diaries, The Sarashina Diary Sugawara no Takasue no Musume, 2018-03-20 A thousand years ago a young Japanese girl embarked on a journey from deep in the countryside of eastern Japan to the capital Forty years later with the long account of that journey as a foundation the mature woman skillfully created an autobiography that incorporates many moments of heightened awareness from her long life Married at age thirty three she identified herself as a reader and writer more than as a wife and mother enthralled by fiction she bore witness to the dangers of romantic fantasy as well as the enduring consolation of self expression This reader's edition streamlines Sonja Arntzen and Moriyuki It's acclaimed translation of the Sarashina Diary for general readers and classroom use This translation captures the lyrical richness of the original text while revealing its subtle structure and ironic meaning highlighting the author's deep concern for Buddhist belief and practice and the juxtaposition of poetic passages and narrative prose The translators commentary offers insight into the author's family and world as well as the style structure and textual history of her work Mere Bagatelles: Women's Diaries from Ireland, 1760-1810 Amy Prendergast, 2024-09-13 Honorable Mention in the ACIS Robert Rhodes Prize for Books on Literature 2024 An Open Access edition of this book will be available on publication on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Engaging with previously overlooked diaries by women in Ireland written between 1760 and 1810 this book opens new avenues concerning authorship and female agency transforming our understanding of women's contributions to both literature and culture The result of extensive archival research across multiple international archives this book presents an entirely new corpus that demonstrates the creativity and literary capabilities of women in this period The surviving diaries showcase these women's engagement with a form that allowed them to explore their subjectivity and to experiment with the presentation of self This book demonstrates how these bagatelles should be treated as literary works that were shaped by and in turn influenced wider cultures of reading and writing underlining the generic fluidity at play The diary form forces a dismantling of the neat binaries of public and private of imaginative and non imaginative prose writing complicating our understandings of each The content of these diaries prompts a re evaluation of the very contours of Irish writing and what we consider as literature while allowing us to rediscover the importance of manuscripts to our explorations of literary culture

Remarkable Russian Women in Pictures, Prose and Poetry Marcelline Hutton, 2013 Many Russian women of the late 19th and early 20th centuries tried to find authentic religious marital professional and political experiences Some very remarkable ones found these things in varying degrees while others sought unsuccessfully but no less desperately to transcend the generations old restrictions imposed by church state village class and gender Like a Slavic Downton Abbey this book tells the stories not just of their outward lives but of their hearts and minds their voices and dreams their amazing accomplishments against overwhelming odds and their roles as feminists and avant gardists in shaping modern Russia and indeed the twentieth century in the West In their own words and images and each in their own unique way these remarkable Russian women construct a fascinating tapestry of a culture at the crossroads of modernity and on the brink of catastrophe

Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly, Claire Westall, 2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world British Diaries William Matthews, 2023-04-28 William Matthews British Diaries 1442 1942 An Annotated Bibliography offers an unparalleled exploration of British diary literature spanning five centuries This meticulously compiled resource catalogs diaries from diverse perspectives ranging from monarchs to farmers scholars to soldiers and clergy to craftsmen providing a comprehensive cross section of British society across eras With annotations that highlight the unique content and context of each diary the bibliography serves as an invaluable guide for scholars of history linguistics sociology and cultural studies This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1950 A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia's most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner's work Bernadette Brennan's A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner's forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner's archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books, journals and correspondence of one of Australia's most beloved women of letters. Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing, literature and ethics. She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections: Just Words: Australian Authors Writing for Justice (UQP, 2008) and Ethical Investigations: Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics (Vagabond, 2008). She lives in Sydney.

Garner has always been a boundary crosser. Refusing the constrictions of literary genre, she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them. She readily admits to a 'me' character in all her work. That character is a carefully constructed self. In her fiction, she unsettles her readers' assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters, most blatantly in Little Helen's Sunday Afternoon, Habe Dank and The Spare Room. In so doing, she demonstrates the complexity of a constructed fictional self. Billed as the first full-length study of Garner's 40 years of work, a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life, Well, who wouldn't want to read that? Australian Bernadette Brennan's ingenious A Writing Life: Helen Garner and Her Work gets around the subject's resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing, as Garner herself does.

Susan Wyndham, Best Books of 2017, Australian Book Review: Brennan's depiction of Garner's fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone, Joe Cinque's Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph. She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully.

Books Publishing: Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice. It is not a biography. Garner was quite clear that she didn't want that, but because Garner is so often present in her own writing, it's inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works. This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer.

Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book.

Mark Rubbo, Readings: Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner's work. Big Issue: The writing is clear, measured and graceful throughout. The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward, tracing Garner's development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip, which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push-me-pull-you vagaries of love and junk, through the perfection of The Children's Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards, from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room.

Sydney Morning Herald: This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner's boundary-crossing work. Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner's work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned.

Australian Book Review: Absorbing, informative and engaging read. Conversation: Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner's steps to becoming a full-time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable.

Australian Book Review: Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner's life, literature and impact on Australia's cultural and socio-political landscape. She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we've enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia's great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan's first full length study of Helen Garner's work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner's books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes The Best Books We've Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings A remarkably shrewd study of Garner's work knitted with a tender representation of her personal life Mascara Literary Review Brennan performs a kind of call for literature its criticism as well as creation Sydney Review of Books You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan's superb literary portrait of Garner A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which combines a close analysis of Garner's work with illuminating insights into her life Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her It shows Sydney Morning Herald Can't Put Down Titles for Summer A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature And in doing that it is itself a significant book Whispering Gums Boswell's Life of Johnson James Boswell, 1904 Boswell's Life of Johnson, Including Boswell's Journal of a Tour to the Hebrides, and Johnson's Diary of A Journey Into North Wales James Boswell, 1904 The Intimate Life of L.M. Montgomery Irene Gammel, 2005-01-01 Who ultimately is L M Montgomery and why was there such an obsession with secrecy hiding and encoding in her life and fiction Delving into the hidden life of Canada's most enigmatic writer The Intimate Life of L M Montgomery answers these questions The eleven essays illuminate Montgomery's personal writings and photographic self portraits and probe the ways in which she actively shaped her life as a work of art This is the first book to investigate Montgomery's personal writings which filled thousands of pages in journals and a memoir correspondence scrapbooks and photography Using theories of autobiography and life writing the essays probe the author's flair for the dramatic and her exuberance in costuming while also exploring the personal facts behind some of her fiction including the beloved Anne of Green Gables Focussing on topics such as sexuality depression marriage aging illness and writing the essays strip away the layers of art and artifice that disguised Montgomery's most intensely guarded secrets including details of her affair with Herman Leard her marriage with Ewen Macdonald and her friendships with Nora Lefurgey and Isabel Anderson The book also includes rare photographs taken by Montgomery and others many of which have not previously appeared in print One of the highlights of The Intimate Life of L M Montgomery is the inclusion of a secret diary that Montgomery wrote with Lefurgey in 1903 This hilarious document is a rare find for Montgomery's teasing banter presents us with a new voice that is distinct from the sombre tone of her journals Published here for the first time more than 100 years after its composition this diary is virtually unknown to readers and scholars and is a welcome addition to the literature on this important figure This volume fills in many of the blanks surrounding Montgomery's personal life Engaging and erudite it is a boon for scholars and Montgomery fans alike Endowed by Our Creator Michael Meyerson, 2012-06-05
