FORGOTTEN FORGOTTEN FRONTIER

TRISTAN JONES ALEXANDER BUMBULUT

Forgotten Frontier:

Forgotten Frontier Geoffrey Tyson, 1945 Role of Indian Tea Association in assisting the refugees from upper Burma escape into India during World War 1939 1945 The Lost Frontier Charles Allen McConnell,1927 Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman, 2014-12-24 From the very beginning of cinema there have been amateur filmmakers at work It wasn t until Kodak introduced 16mm film in 1923 however that amateur moviemaking became a widespread reality and by the 1950s over a million Americans had amateur movie cameras In Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman explores the meaning of the amateur in film history and modern visual culture In the middle decades of the twentieth century the period that saw Hollywood's rise to dominance in the global film industry a movement of amateur filmmakers created an alternative world of small scale movie production and circulation Organized amateur moviemaking was a significant phenomenon that gave rise to dozens of clubs and thousands of participants producing experimental nonfiction or short subject narratives Rooted in an examination of surviving films this book traces the contexts of advanced amateur cinema and articulates the broad aesthetic and stylistic tendencies of amateur films Hidden Histories of Gordonia Martin Legassick, 2016-04-01 The Gordonia region of the Northern Cape province has received relatively little attention from historians In Hidden Histories of Gordonia Land dispossession and resistance in the Northern Cape 1800 1990 Martin Legassick explores aspects of the generally unknown brown and black history of the region Emphasising the lives of ordinary people his writing is also in part an exercise in applied history historical writing with a direct application to people s lives in the present Tracing the indigenous history of Gordonia as well as the northward movement of Basters and whites from the western Cape through Bushmanland to the Orange River the book presents accounts of family histories episodes of indigenous resistance to colonisation and studies of the ultimate imposition of racial segregation and land dispossession on the inhabitants of the region A recurrent theme is the question of identity and how the extreme ethnic fluidity and social mixing apparent in earlier times crystallised in the colonial period into racial identities until with final conquest came imposed racial classification Honourable Intentions? Penny Russell, Nigel Worden, 2016-03-22 Honourable Intentions compares the significance and strategic use of honour in two colonial societies the Cape Colony and the early British settlements in Australia between 1750 and 1850 The mobile populations of emigrants and sojourners sailors and soldiers merchants and traders slaves and convicts who surged into and through these regions are not usually associated with ideas of honour But in both societies competing and contradictory notions of honour proved integral to the ways in which colonisers and colonised free and unfree defended their status and insisted on their right to be treated with respect During these times of flux concepts of honour and status were radically reconstructed Each of the thirteen chapters considers honour in a particular sphere legal political religious or personal and in different contexts determined by the distinctive and changing matrix of race gender and class as well as the distinctions of free and unfree status in each colony Early chapters in the volume show how and why the political ideological and moral stakes of the concept of honour were particularly important in colonial societies later chapters look more closely at the social behaviour and the purchase of honour among specific groups Collectively the chapters show that there was no clear distinction between political and social life and that honour crossed between the public and private spheres This exciting new collection brings together new and established historians of Australia and South Africa to highlight thought provoking parallels and contrasts between the Cape and Australian colonies that will be of interest to all scholars of colonial Oceanic Histories David Armitage, Alison Bashford, Sujit Sivasundaram, 2018 societies and the concept of honour Freshly presents world history through its oceans and seas in uniquely wide ranging original chapters by leading experts in The Forgotten Frontier Arva Moore Parks, 2004 Here in this remarkable previously unknown collection of their fields 230 of his photographs from 1800s to 1900 we see a Florida we will never see again We see people carving out a life on a frontier that was in many ways more unique than any other Here sailboats were the counter parts of the covered wagon and the barefoot mailman of the pony express Through Munroe's Ralph Middleton camera we see carefully detailed scenes that historians cannot fully describe the Gold Coast before settlement the first pictures of the Seminole Indians Key West as the wrecking capital of the world beauty primeval and untouched jacket Colonial Violence Dierk Walter, 2017 A comprehensive account of how Europeans have used violence to conquer coerce and police in pursuit of imperialism and colonial settlement Genocide on Settler Frontiers Mohamed Adhikari, 2015-06-01 European colonial conquest included many instances of indigenous peoples being exterminated Cases where invading commercial stock farmers clashed with hunter gatherers were particularly destructive often resulting in a degree of dispossession and slaughter that destroyed the ability of these societies to reproduce themselves The experience of aboriginal peoples in the settler colonies of southern Africa Australia North America and Latin America bears this out The frequency with which encounters of this kind resulted in the annihilation of forager societies raises the question of whether these conflicts were inherently genocidal an issue not yet addressed by scholars in a systematic way

The Islands of the Eastern Mediterranean Ozlem Caykent, Luca Zavagno, 2014-08-28 The Mediterranean or Middle Sea has long been regarded as the symbolic centre of European civilization The binding water between Turkey the Middle East the trading communities of North Africa and the European powerhouses Italy France and Greece a history of this sea is a new and vital way of understanding the history of the societies which have flourished in the region The Islands of the Eastern Mediterranean charts the story of the water as both connector and border and analyses the islands role in world history Covering Mehmed II's efforts to conquer the old Roman Empire through to the claims of Rhodes and the role of the Aegean Islands in Ottoman international relations to the British in Cyprus and the present day tensions this book s interconnected essays from leading scholars form a tapestry of knowledge Together they represent a new frontier in the way in which we look at sea histories This will become essential reading for scholars of History International Relations Trade and Migration "Nuestros Antepasados" (Our Ancestors)

Ernest S. Sanchez, Paul R. Sanchez, 2015-09-15 This is a book that for over forty years was carefully researched and footnoted by the principal author Ernest S Sanchez It is a story that is weaved together by multiple interviews with families and their familial history that makes this account and supported by documentation This book brings into focus the following points 1 History of the settlement of New Mexico from Onate to the present 2 The principal families that were involved in the settlement and their experiences 3 The New Mexican experience from the Hispanic view in the history of the settlement of Lincoln County and the Lincoln County War 4 An insight on the personal relationship of the Hispanics with William H Bonney Billy the Kid 5 A very accurate reference in the genealogy of the families that settled in Lincoln County New Mexico This story illuminates the rich customs and traditions of the people that make up New Mexico history We get a view of the every day life experiences of the Nuevo Mexicanos that were passed forward from generation to generation This account also exposes the violence greed and racism that not only permeated the Spanish settlement of New Mexico but also fueled the Lincoln County War It is an American story a story of the painful birth of a nation The Important Things of Life Dee Garceau, 2022-01-07 Sweetwater County lies in southwestern Wyoming and has stood as a significant symbolic geography for the new Western Woman's history As the county in which Elinore Pruitt Stewart Letters of a Woman Homesteader Nebraska 1990 said she proved up her homestead in 1913 it is a fitting locale for the study of western gender relations The Important Things of Life examines women s work and family lives in Sweetwater County in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The 1880 s discovery of coal caused a population boom attracting immigrants from numerous ethnic groups At the same time liberalized homestead law drew sheep and cattle ranchers Dee Garceau demonstrates how survival on the ranching and mining frontier heightened the value of group cooperation in ways that bred conservative attitudes toward gender Augmented by reminiscences and oral histories Garceau traces the adaptations that broadened women s work roles and increased their domestic authority Hers is a compelling portrait of the American West as a laboratory of gender role change in which migration relocation and new settlement underscored the development of new social identities Fear in Early Modern Society William G. Naphy, Penny Roberts, 1997-11-15 Fear of fire flood plague invasion by the infidel purgatory death witchcraft these are just some of the fears that plaqued the early modern world which are dealt with in this fascinating well integrated collection of essays based on extensive and ground breaking new research Drawing on British and Continental examples the volume explores the panoply of personal and communal tragedies which tormented and terrified both elite and popular communities in this period and shows how they formed strategies for dealing both practically and psychologically with their fears it tells of the creation of the first fire service in France of dog massacres in times of plaque in England and of flood emergency plans in Holland Spain in the Southwest John L. Kessell, 2013-02-27 John L Kessell s Spain in the Southwest presents a fast paced abundantly illustrated history of the Spanish colonies that became the states of New Mexico Arizona Texas and California With an eye for human interest Kessell tells the story of New Spain s vast frontier

today's American Southwest and Mexican North which for two centuries served as a dynamic yet disjoined periphery of the Spanish empire Chronicling the period of Hispanic activity from the time of Columbus to Mexico s independence from Spain in 1821 Kessell traces the three great swells of Hispanic exploration encounter and influence that rolled north from Mexico across the coasts and high deserts of the western borderlands Throughout this sprawling historical landscape Kessell treats grand themes through the lives of individuals He explains the frequent cultural clashes and accommodations in remarkably balanced terms Stereotypes the author writes are of no help Indians could be arrogant and brutal Spaniards caring and vice versa If we select the facts to fit preconceived notions we can make the story come out the way we want but if the peoples of the colonial Southwest are seen as they really were more alike than diverse sharing similar inconstant natures then we need have no favorites The Griqua Past and the Limits of South African History, 1902-1994 Edward Cavanagh, 2011 The Griqua people are commonly misunderstood Today they do not figure in the South African imagination as other peoples do nor have they for over a century This book argues that their comparative invisibility is a result of their place in the national narrative In this revisionist analysis of South African historiography the author analyses over a century s worth of historical studies and identifies a number of narrative frameworks that have proven resilient to change over this time The Griqua in particular have fared poorly compared to other peoples They appear in and disappear from this body of work in a number of consistent ways almost as though scholars have avoided re imagining their history in ways relevant to the present This book questions why that might be the case
