Fortnight By The Sea:

Shaftesbury Magazine ,1913 A Sea Monster's Tale Colin Speedie,2017-03-06 There are few marine creatures as spectacular as the Basking Shark At up to 11 metres in length and seven tonnes in weight this colossal plankton feeding fish is one of the largest in the world second only to the whale shark Historically Basking Sharks were a familiar sight in the northern hemisphere off the coasts of Norway Scotland Ireland Canada and the USA for example In an 18th Century world without electricity they became the focus of active hunting for their huge livers containing large amounts of valuable oil primarily used in lamps Catch numbers were small enough to leave populations largely intact but during the 20th Century a new breed of hunter joined the fray some driven as much by a need for adventure as for financial gain With improved equipment and experience they exploited the shark on an industrial scale that drastically reduced numbers leading to localised near extinction in some areas From the 1970 s onward a new generation took to the seas this time with conservation in mind to identify where the shark might still be found in the waters around the British Isles employing new technologies to solve long standing mysteries about the behaviour of this elusive creature Using the best of both old and new research techniques the case was built to justify the species becoming one of the most protected sharks in the oceans Today the Basking Shark is a much loved cornerstone of our natural heritage There are positive signs that the population has stabilised and may even be slowly recovering from the damage of the past proving that timely conservation measures can be effective Join us on a journey amidst wild seas places people and conservation history in the battle to protect this iconic creature a true sea monster s tale The Bystander ,1915 Georgian Stories ,1923 The Outlook ,1911 The Greatest Sea Novels and Tales of All Time Jules Verne,James Fenimore Cooper,Edgar Allan Poe,Jeffery Farnol,Randall Parrish,Jack London,Victor Hugo,Joseph Conrad,Herman Melville,Walter Scott,Ralph Henry Barbour,Daniel Defoe,Rudyard Kipling,Frederick Marryat,Rafael Sabatini,Charles Boardman Hawes,L. Annual report of the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor. 1917, 1917 Audubon at Sea Christoph Irmscher, Richard J. King, 2024-05-31 This one of a kind lavishly illustrated anthology celebrates Audubon's connection to the sea through both his words and art. The American naturalist John James Audubon (1785-1851) is widely remembered for his iconic paintings of American birdlife. But as this anthology makes clear, Audubon was also a brilliant writer, and his keen gaze took in far more than creatures of the sky. Culled from his published and unpublished writings, Audubon at Sea explores Audubon's diverse observations of the ocean, the coast, and their human and animal inhabitants. With Audubon expert Christoph Irmscher and scholar of the sea Richard J. King as our guides, we set sail from the humid expanses of the American South to the shores of England and the chilly landscapes of the Canadian North. We learn not only about the diversity of sea life Audubon documented—birds, sharks, fish, and whales—but also about life aboard ship, travel in early America, Audubon's work habits, and the origins of beloved paintings. As we face an unfathomable loss of seabirds today, Audubon's warnings about the fragility of birdlife in his time are prescient and newly relevant. Charting the course of Audubon's life and work from his birth in Haiti to his death in New York City, Irmscher and King's sweeping introduction and carefully drawn commentary confront the challenges Audubon's legacy poses for us today, including his participation in American slavery and the thousands of birds he killed for his art. Rounded out by hundreds of historical and ornithological notes and beautiful illustrations, and with a foreword by distinguished photographer and conservationist Subhankar Banerjee, Audubon at Sea is the most comprehensively annotated collection of Audubon's work ever published.
