Fortunes Choice:

Fortune's Warriors James R. Davis, 2009-12-01 From the jungles of west Africa to the killing fields of the former Yugoslavia wherever the next global hotspot flares into action the private military waits ready to step into the fray Once they were known as soldiers of fortune Now they call themselves military advisors The honourable history of soldiers for hire clashes with the modern distaste for mercenaries In this compelling and controversial new book James Davis reveals the shadowy inside world of the multi billion dollar international security industry

Becoming Past Jane Blocker, 2015-12-20 Is there such a thing as contemporary art history The contemporary after all as much as we may want to consider it otherwise is being made history as it happens By what means do we examine this moving target These questions lie at the center of Jane Blocker's Becoming Past The important point is not whether there is or should be contemporary art history Blocker argues but how Focusing on a significant aspect of current art practice in which artists have engaged with historical subject matter methods and inquiry Blocker asks how the creation of the artist implicates and interrogates that of the art historian She moves from art history to theater to performance and to literature as she investigates a series of works including performances by the collaborative group Goat Island the film Deadpan by Steve McQueen the philosophies of science fiction writer Samuel Delany and documentary filmmaker Ross McElwee the film Amos Fortune Road by Matthew Buckingham and sculptures by Dario Robleto Many books have sought to understand the key directions of contemporary art In contrast Becoming Past is concerned with the application of art history in the pursuit of such trends Setting the idea of temporality decisively in the realm of art Blocker's work is crucial for artists art historians curators critics and scholars of performance and cultural studies interested in the role of history in the practice of art
