Foundation For Social Theology Praxis Process And Salvation:

Dialectic of Salvation Anselm Kyongsuk Min, 1989-01-01 This book provides a detailed examination of the central philosophical and theological themes of liberation theology. It covers the role of history and praxis, the dialectics of salvation and liberation, the concept of social and personal sin, Marxism, and the anthropology of concrete totality as the basis of theology.

Love's Strategy John K. Downey, 1999-10-01 Brings together the best and most popular papers and lectures of one of the most stimulating voices in contemporary theological conversation.

Whiteheadian Ethics Mihály Tóth, Theodore Walker, 2009-03-26 For deliberations on the ethical and meta ethical implications of Alfred North Whitehead's process philosophy, here are abstracts and papers from the Ethics Section of the 6th International Whitehead Conference held at the University of Salzburg in Salzburg, Austria, in July 2006. In accordance with the conference schedule, there are three subsections. The subsection on Metaphysics of Morals and Moral Theory includes contributions from Franklin I. Gamwell, 'Does Morality Presuppose God?', John W. Lango (abstract only), Duane Voskuil, 'Ethics, Dipolar Necessities, and Theistic Implications', and Theodore Walker Jr., 'Neoclassical Cosmology and Matthew 22:36-40'. The subsection on Evaluating Moral Practices includes contributions from Frederick Ferré (abstract only), Seung Gap Lee, 'Hope for the Earth: A Process Eschatological Eco-ethics for South Korea', Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore, 'Compassion, Creativity, and Form: The Ethics of Institutions', and George W. Shields, 'Ruse, Altruism, and Process Philosophy'. The subsection on Ethics and Aesthetic Values includes contributions from Stephen T. Franklin (abstract only), Brian G. Henning, 'Is There an Ethics of Creativity?', Mihály Tóth, 'Art of Life and the Ethics of Life-Forming', and Guorong Yang, 'Problems and Perspectives in the Emerging of Global Society'.

The Moral Quest Stanley J. Grenz, 2016-09-27 Stanley J. Grenz masterfully leads readers into a theological engagement with moral inquiry that is a first-rate introduction to Christian ethics.

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale. Both in the academy and in the public square, as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism, the social, the postmodern, and the theological intermingle in engaging and border-crossing ways. The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch, using jazz as a metaphor, writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences, combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction. A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts. The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy, global, and narrative, deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story.

The Principle of Subsidiarity in Catholic Social Thought Simeon Tsetim Iber, 2010-11 The Principle of Subsidiarity in Catholic Social Thought: Implications for Social Justice and Civil Society in Nigeria provides a theoretical and practical framework for a just vision of society It focuses on how support for individuals and social groups in Nigeria can foster the building of their communities through the practice of social justice Social justice will ensure the building of trust across ethnic lines challenge corruption encourage accountability and servant leadership protect minority tribes from larger ones and promote grassroots self help tribal communal religious and non governmental associations as agents of positive social change and development These dynamics interact within a healthy federal structure that respects its constituent parts for the common good This volume is recommended as a graduate text for courses in theology religious education and social philosophy and for all interested in promoting the common good

Fundamental Ethics Patricia McAuliffe, 1993 In this stimulating rethinking of the basic foundations of ethics Patricia McAuliffe derives a fundamental ethic from liberation theology She asserts that the experience of resisting suffering especially oppressive social suffering must be brought from the fringe to the very center of ethics Arguing for the conceptual priority of ethics over religion McAuliffe defines an innovative ethic based on experience and practice Ethics precedes religion and theology because experience and practice precede theory and interpretation which are the human activities of religion and theology knowledge is based on experience She proposes that ethics can be independent of religion but that while her liberationist ethic can be either Christian or universal finally the poor and oppressed are the paradigm source of the disclosure of God and of final salvation In rethinking the basic foundations of ethics she compares a liberationist ethic including Latin American and women's liberation theology with various classical ethics and examines and critiques the works of Edward Schillebeeckx Juan Luis Segundo Dorothee Soelle James Gustafson and George Lindbeck McAuliffe offers a flexible ethic that balances the absolute and the relative the particular and the universal personal and social creativity and conditioning practice and theory and the ethical and religious Combining superior scholarship with an original and creative approach to ethics this book is likely to create debate in the fields of fundamental ethics theology and philosophy

Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber, 2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead's treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his/her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker

Rosemary Haughton Eilish Ryan, 1997 Familiar with the ordinary stuff of life teething babies family crises and elderly parents Haughton applied her understanding of the Gospel to her life in the Church and the world unique spirituality for everyone      Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole      20th-Century Theology Stanley J. Grenz, Roger E. Olson, 2010-01-26 Stanley J Grenz and Roger E Olson offer a sympathetic guide and a critical assessment of the significant theologies and theologians of the 20th century They trace the shifts in theology as it has moved back and forth between God's immanence and God's transcendence      The Promise of Critical Theology Marc P. Lalonde, 2006-01-01 Written in tribute to one of the foremost Catholic theologians in the English speaking world the essays in The Promise of Critical Theology address the question Can critical theology secure its critical operation without undermining its foundation in religious tradition and experience Is critical theology simply an oxymoron when viewed from both sides of the equation From Marc Lalonde's introductory essay which delimits Davis' fundamental position that the primary task of critical theology is the critique of religious orthodoxy the essays examine Davis' distinction between faith and belief and build upon the promise of critical theology as inextricably bound to the promise of faith They ask What is its promise What particular religious ideas themes stories are appropriate for its concrete expression How can the community of faith receive its transformative message What might be the contribution of other religious traditions and philosophies Essays by Paul Lakeland Dennis McCann Kenneth Melchin Michael Oppenheim and Marsha Hewitt respond to these and other questions and critically relate Davis' work to ongoing developments in modern theology critical theory philosophy and the social sciences Their diversity attests to the comprehensive scope of Davis' thought and exemplifies the progressive character of contemporary religious discourse They honour Davis and illuminate the promise of critical religious thinking in itself      Structures of Grace Kevin Ahern, 2015-03-01 In his encyclical Sollicitudo rei socialis On Social Concerns 1984 Pope St John Paul II wrote of structures of sin operating in the world and how Christian solidarity held the key to confronting and overcoming them In Structures of Grace teacher and activist Kevin Ahern profiles successful Catholic organizations from around the globe some well known some less so that embody Christian solidarity by addressing the urgent human issues of our day immigration and human rights healthcare and housing food agriculture and water war peace and reconciliation In telling the stories of organizations such as Jesuit Refugee Service the Young Christian Workers Plowshares and Network Dr Ahern sheds light on the mission theology and outreach of hundreds of such organizations offering church professionals students educators and volunteers a directory of grace at work in the world today Publisher Practice, Practice Theory and Theology Kirstine Helboe Johansen,Ulla Schmidt,2022-05-09 How might practice theories and engagement with practice contribute to and advance theological study of religion and religious life and practices This volume explores and discusses how theological engagement with practice theoretically as well as empirically might profit from theories of practice developed in disciplines such as philosophy sociology education and organisational studies during the recent decades but so far scarcely employed within theology In part I the volume unfolds key components of practice theory especially as they have more recently been developed within sociological practice theories reflect on their significance and potential with regard to theology In part II these perspectives are employed in the study of concrete religious practices established as well as experimental religious practices and collective as well as individual ones By unfolding connections between theology and practice theories and reflecting on practice theories analytical and theoretical potential for theological study of religion the book will be of interest for any scholar in the study of contemporary religion and practical theology Foundations for a Social Theology Dermot A. Lane,1974 God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald J. Dietrich,2009-08-01 God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti-Semitism in our civilization Donald J Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God's covenant with Israel which were provoked by Auschwitz Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti-Semitism to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that when institutionally implemented can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians sociologists historians and political theorists Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane,2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying

The Dramatic Encounter of Divine and Human Freedom in the Theology of Hans Urs Von Balthasar Thomas G. Dalzell, 2000 This book surveys the major theological writings of Hans Urs von Balthasar from the perspective of the relationship between finite and infinite freedom The first part examines Balthasar's early treatment of the question in the context of the analogy of being The second part concentrates on the Theological Dramatics

What is Liberation Theology? Denis Carroll, 1987

Living the Justice of the Triune God David N. Power, Michael Downey, 2012-02-01 This groundbreaking book is distinctive for the explicit attention it gives to the communal intersubjective cultural and linguistic embodiment of the workings of God in the world It emphasizes not simply acting justly but living with in and from the justice of the triune God by which we are justified Finally it offers an important sacramental and liturgical grounding to the Christian understanding of both justice and the triune God David N Power and Michael Downey make clear to contemporary believers why a spiritual and sacramental life that is ordered by its trinitarian orientation must include the desire for justice In short it is an ethic of social justice that springs from contemplation of the Divine Trinity in the world
