Holland Dada en de internationale context Paulo Martina, K. Schippers, 2016-04-23 Kurt Schwitters Merzbau Elizabeth Burns Gamard, 2000-04 The Building Studies series examines important buildings through original documents detailed text photography and drawings in an affordable format Myself and My Aims Kurt Schwitters, 2021-03-10 Kurt Schwitters was a major protagonist in the histories of modern art and literature whose response to the contradictions of modern life rivals that of Marcel Duchamp in its importance for artists working today His celebrated Merz pictures collaged and assembled from the scrap materials of popular culture and the debris of the studio such as newspaper clippings wood cardboard fabric and paint reflect a lifelong interest in collection fragmentation and abstraction techniques he also applied to language and graphic design As the first anthology in English of the critical and theoretical writings of this influential artist Myself and My Aims makes the case for Schwitters as one of the most creative thinkers of his generation Including material that has never before been published this volume presents the full range of his prolific writing on the art and attitudes of his time joining existing translations of his children's stories poetry and fiction to give new readers unprecedented access to his literary imagination With an accessible introduction by Megan R Luke and elegant English translations by Timothy Grundy this book will prove an exceptional resource for artists scholars and enthusiasts of his art Avant-Garde and Criticism , 2015-06-29 Avant Garde and Criticism sheds new light on the complex aims functions practices and contexts of art criticism in relation to the European avant garde Although many avant garde works and the avant gardes of various countries have been analyzed considerably less attention has been given to the reviews in newspapers and journals on avant garde literature art architecture and film This volume of Avant Garde Critical Studies will look at how art critics operated in a strategic way The strategies of avant garde criticism are diverse Art critics especially when they are artists themselves attempt to manipulate the cultural climate in their favour They use their position to legitimize avant garde concepts and to conquer a place in the cultural field But they are also markedly influenced by the context in which they operate The position of fellow critics and the ideological bias of the papers in which they publish can be as important as the political climate in which their criticism flourishes The analysis of avant garde art criticism can also make clear how strategies sometimes fail and involuntarily display non avant garde characteristics On the other hand traditionalist criticism on the avant garde offers new insights into its status and reception in a given time and place This volume is of interest for scholars teachers and students who are interested in the avant garde of the interbellum period and work in the field of literature art film and architecture

A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins, 2022-01-06 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres Holland Dada K. Schippers, 2000 De dada tournee die Theo en Nelly van Doesburg en Kurt Schwitters in 1923 in Nederland ondernamen en de Hollandse dada sten als Paul Citroen Otto van Rees en zijn vrouw en H N Werkman Dada Culture , 2016-08-01 How Dada is to break its cultural accommodation and containment today necessitates thinking the historical instances through revised application of critical and theoretical models The volume Dada Culture Critical Texts on the Avant Garde moves precisely by this motive bringing together writings which insist upon the continuity of the early twentieth century moment now at the start of the twenty first Engaging the complex and contradictory nature of Dada strategies instanced in the linguistic gaming and performativity of the movement s initial formation and subsequently isolating the specific from the general with essays focusing on Ball Tzara Serner Hausmann Dix Heartfield Schwitters Baader Cravan and the exemplary Duchamp the political philosophy of the avant garde is brought to bear upon our own contemporary struggle through critical theory to comprehend the cultural usefulness relevance validity and effective or otherwise oppositionality of Dada s infamous anti stance The volume is presented in sections that progressively point towards the expanding complexity of the contemporary engagement with Dada as what is often exhaustive historical data is forced to rethink realign and reconfigure itself in response to the analytical rigour and exercise of later twentieth century animal anarchic thought the testing and cultural placement of thoughts upon the virtual and the eventual implications for the once blissfully unproblematic idea of expression From the opening provocative proposition that historically Dada may have been the falsest of all false paths the volume rounds to dispute such condemnation as demarcation continues not only of Dada s embeddedness in western culture but more precisely of the location of Dada culture Ten critical essays by Cornelius Partsch John Wall T J Demos Anna Schaffner Martin I Gaughan Curt Germundson Stephen C Foster Dafydd Jones Joel Freeman and David Cunningham are supplemented by the critical bibliography prepared by Timothy Shipe which documents the past decade of Dada scholarship and in so doing provides a valuable resource for all those engaged in Dada studies today Kurt Schwitters Megan R. Luke, 2014-02-14 German artist Kurt Schwitters 1887 1948 is best known for his pioneering work in fusing collage and abstraction the two most transformative innovations of twentieth century art Considered the father of installation art Schwitters was also a theorist a Dadaist and a writer whose influence extends from Robert Rauschenberg and Eva Hesse to Thomas Hirschhorn But while his early experiments in collage and installation from the interwar period have garnered much critical acclaim his later work has generally been ignored In the first book to fill this gap Megan R Luke tells the fascinating even moving story of the work produced by the aging isolated artist under the Nazi regime and during his years in exile Combining new biographical material with archival research Luke surveys Schwitters's experiments in shaping space and the development of his Merzbau describing his haphazard studios in Scandinavia and the United Kingdom and the smaller quieter pieces he created there She makes a case for the enormous relevance of Schwitters's aesthetic concerns to contemporary artists arguing that his later work provides a guide to new narratives about modernism in the visual arts These pieces she shows were born of artistic exchange and shaped by his rootless life after exile and they offer a new way of thinking about the history of art that privileges itinerancy over identity and the critical power of humorous inversion over unambiguous communication Packed with images Kurt Schwitters completes the narrative of an artist who remains a considerable force today

Kokoli, 2009-10-02 Feminism Reframed Reflections on Art and Difference addresses the on going dialogue between feminism art history and visual culture from contemporary scholarly perspectives Over the past thirty years the critical interventions of feminist art historians in the academy the press and the art world have not only politicised and transformed the themes methods and conceptual tools of art history but have also contributed to the emergence of new interdisciplinary areas of investigation including notably that of visual culture Although the impact of such fruitful transformations is indisputable their exact contribution to contemporary scholarship remains a matter for debate not least because feminism itself has changed significantly since the Women s Liberation Movement Feminism Reframed reviews and revises existing feminist art histories but also reasserts the need for continuous feminist interventions in the academy the art world and beyond With contributions by Anthea Behm Alisia Grace Chase Jennifer G Germann Catherine Grant Joanne Heath Ruth Hemus Alexandra Kokoli Beth Anne Lauritis Griselda Pollock Karen Roulstone Anne Swartz and Sue Tate Coming at the moment when contemporary art practices are themselves involved in re cycling re evaluating and re enacting the past this collection asks how feminism s own troubled histories can be reframed productively in the present The questions that feminism raised in the 1970s and 80s are still pertinent and are addressed in a number of original essays What does gender equality mean in the arts How can women s subjectivities be articulated or performed differently in art practices Can attention to gender enable us to engage with complex differences of race sexuality and class of age and generation Do we need new interpretative and conceptual models for writing about art Alexandra Kokoli s thoughtful and illuminating introduction reminds us that reframing is a risky but exciting business if it makes us ask these
