Hollanders Daughter:

Hollander's Deal Peter Mark Richman, 2000-09-05 Eyes of the Innocent G.R.R. Restivo, 2002-11-19 Caesar a gifted black cat witnesses a murder and then after his masters and mother are murdered that same night seeks revenge on the killer Mark Gallo a police detective tries to unravel the mystery of the killings somehow linked to Warner Hollander the head of a worldwide company and drug smuggling operation Throughout we see the vast differences between man and animal dealing with their own demons Caesars trek leads to Europe where Gallo is almost killed and Caesar saves him on the North Atlantic with a surprising climax on Long Island Pieterella - Daughter of Eva Dalene Matthee, 2012-10-02 Pieterella Daughter of Eva opens in the early days of the first white settlement at the Cape of Good Hope beneath the shadow of Table Mountain with the Dutch East India Company clinging precariously to a little piece of land Robben Island in Table Bay Eva was one of the first interpreters and intermediaries between her Goringhaicona tribe and the Dutch and Pieterella's father was Pieter van Meerhoff the Company surgeon who was murdered by slave dealers in Madagascar Pieterella and her siblings were among the first mixed race children born at the Cape and their lives are a manifestation of a sentiment often expressed by Matthee in this novel that life can consist of heaven and hell rolled up together in one bundle After her mother's sudden and untimely death the orphaned Pieterella and her brother Salomon are sent to the hurricane and drought afflicted Mauritius a penal colony at the time to work as slaves to foster parents Pieterella barely survives the exhausting sea voyage and a premature marriage becomes her salvation Pieterella remains attached to the memory of her mother and is full of turbulent emotions about how she is both brown and white in the same body What will her children look like Is she really only half human as she has so scornfully been told Will she ever come to terms with who she is and find the peace and comfort she yearns for Through this remarkable true story which took three years of intensive research into old journals diaries and historical records Matthee has resurrected and breathed new life into the early history of the Cape and Robben Island and Mauritius the isles of banishment She skilfully balances the elements of Pieterella's life love and shame for her mother the impersonal might of the Company versus one individual and a slave who is freer than a free woman She allows the historically misunderstood Eva finally to come into her own through the eyes of her clever sensitive daughter Facing the Holocaust Gila Ramras-Rauch (editor), Joseph Michman, 1985 A selection of some of Israel's finest writers Creepy Archives Volume 27 Budd Lewis, Nicola Cuti, William Dubay, 2018-12-11 Creepy Archives Volume 27 opens one crypt too many to expose a writhing mass of frightful fun reanimating classic tales of terror from the most harrowing horror series in comics history Featuring stories by the finest writers and artists of the day including William DuBay Alfredo Alcalá Nicola Cuti and Budd Lewis Creepy Archives brings the fear to new generations of readers and victims War Lives Nitza Ben-Dov, 2024-11-15 Since the nation's founding Israel has existed in a state of near perpetual warfare Despite this Hebrew novels that deal with the experience of contemporary conflict are surprisingly rare In War Lives Nitza Ben Dov argues that Israeli writers employ the freedoms granted by fiction to challenge the heroic myth of war. She suggests that these writers do so not only by turning inwards towards the home front and the psyches of individuals marked by post trauma but also by unsettling the relationship between historical fact and fiction between purported reliability and representation. Through close readings of a range of novels by authors such as S Y Agnon, Yehuda Amichai and Amos Oz, Ben Dov foregrounds war as a coordinate from which Israeli novels are driven and to which they return in equal measure. While each chapter focuses on a different theme from mourning to battleground camaraderie to vengeance, Ben Dov's literary analyses demonstrate how these canonical works afford an in depth view of the symbiosis between civilian and military life, the comorbidity of life living under the constant threat of war.

De fliegender Hollander Richard Wagner, 2018-01-01. Der fliegende Holländer is the first of Wagner's operas that the author considered to be representative of his mature style. The Dutchman embodies one of the major themes that recur throughout Wagner's work: that of a central character seeking redemption from a loving woman. Originally taken from a story by Heinrich Heine, Wagner extended and enriched his musical and dramaturgical language to produce an opera of extraordinary power. An essay in the guide places the opera in the context of emerging German Romanticism and another highlights the musical riches of the score. A further article explores the emerging importance of myth to Wagner and his contemporaries. As well as a detailed description of the work's performance history, the volume contains Wagner's own instructions to his performers and his programme note about the overture. Illustrations, a thematic guide, the full libretto with English translation and reference sections are also included. Contains: Behind Der fliegende Holländer, John Warrack; An Introduction to Der fliegende Holländer, John Deathridge; Loneliness, Love and Death, William Vaughan; How Wagner Found the Flying Dutchman, Mike Ashman; Of Storms and Dreams, Reflections on the Stage History of Der fliegende Holländer, Katherine Syer; The Overture to Der fliegende Holländer, Richard Wagner; Remarks on Performing the Opera Der fliegende Holländer, Richard Wagner; Der fliegende Holländer Poem by Richard Wagner; The Flying Dutchman, English translation by Lionel Salter.

Ceylon and the Hollanders, 1658-1796 Paul Edward Pieris, 1918. The Jews of Long Island Brad Kolodny, 2022-03-01. In an engaging narrative, The Jews of Long Island tells the story of how Jewish communities were established and developed east of New York City, from Great Neck to Greenport and Cedarhurst to Sag Harbor. Including peddlers, farmers and factory workers struggling to make a living, as well as successful merchants and even wealthy industrialists like the Guggenheims, Brad Kolodny spent six years researching how, when and why Jewish families settled and thrived there. Archival material, including census records, newspaper accounts, never before published photos and personal family histories, illuminate Jewish life and experiences during these formative years. With over 4,400 names of people who lived in Nassau and Suffolk counties prior to the end of World War I, The Jews of Long Island is a fascinating history of those who laid the foundation for what has become the fourth largest Jewish community in the United States today.
