Disneyland and Culture Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2011-08-31 The success of Disneyland as the world's first permanent commercially viable theme park sparked the creation of a number of other parks throughout the world from Florida to Japan France and Hong Kong But the impact of Disneyland is not confined to the theme park arena These essays explore a far reaching ideology Among the topics are Disney s role in the creation of children s architecture Frontierland as an allegorical map of the American West the cultural invasion of France in Disneyland Paris the politics of nostalgia and hyperurbanity in the town of Celebration Florida Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn, Guy Westwell, 2012-06-21 Written by experts in the field this dictionary covers all aspects of film studies including terms concepts debates and movements in film theory and criticism national international and transnational cinemas film history film movements and genres film industry organizations and practices and key technical terms and concepts in 500 detailed entries Most entries also feature recommendations for further reading and a large number also have web links The web links are listed and regularly updated on a companion website that complements the printed book The dictionary is international in its approach covering national cinemas genres and film movements from around the world such as the Nouvelle Vague Latin American cinema the Latsploitation film Bollywood Yiddish cinema the spaghetti western and World cinema The most up to date dictionary of its kind available this is a must have for all students of film studies and ancillary subjects as well as an informative read for cinephiles and for anyone with an interest in films and film criticism Film Genre for the Screenwriter Jule Selbo, 2014-07-25 Film Genre for the Screenwriter is a practical study of how classic film genre components can be used in the construction of a screenplay Based on Jule Selbo s popular course this accessible guide includes an examination of the historical origins of specific film genres how and why these genres are received and appreciated by film going audiences and how the student and professional screenwriter alike can use the knowledge of film genre components in the ideation and execution of a screenplay Explaining the defining elements characteristics and tropes of genres from romantic comedy to slasher horror and using examples from classic films like Casablanca alongside recent blockbuster franchises like Harry Potter Selbo offers a compelling and readable analysis of film genre in its written form The book also offers case studies talking points and exercises to make its content approachable and applicable to readers and writers across the creative field Seasons Such As These Cynthia J. Bogard, 2003 Homelessness had become a social problem that was primarily not about solving the nation s housing crisis The pressing question becomes How and why did homelessness become the social problem in its own right one that was only tangentially related to the problem of inappropriate or insufficient housing Why when people demanded that something be done about homelessness did they get specific policies and unintended outcomes Cynthia Bogard is not content with the shorthand answers that rested on bias and ideology such as conservative politics bred conservative policies or American individualism precludes government investment in housing This did not explain homelessness sufficiently especially given all the advocacy and research that had occurred in the 1980s and 1990s Examining these claimsmaking activities as constructionists call them however is a daunting task because the activities engaged in by people in the attempt to persuade others are fluid subtle and complicated as are the responses to these social actions This raised a second set of issues that the author is concerned with How can we adequately represent and sociologically examine this very complicated human activity of social problems construction Who does the construction and to what effect Bogard s answer to these questions is a book that can be read in two ways and on multiple levels For those who are interested in the story of the career of homelessness as a social problem in America s two national cities the book should be read from the beginning through the conclusion as a straight narrative The technical matter in the appendix can be ignored But for those readers with an interest in social problems constructionism however this book is meant as a cook book of sorts Each chapter emphasizes a feature of constructionism such as an important group of claims makers or an important aspect of the claims making process The work highlights a major feature in advanced societies the intersection of interests and claims Social constructions may be real but they are comprised of no less real social interests The work marks a real departure and advance over the original formulations of construction theory in social research Cynthia J Bogard is associate professor of sociology at Hofstra University

Female Celebrity and Ageing Deborah Jermyn,2016-04-29 Female Celebrity and Ageing Back in the Spotlight interrogates the myriad ways in which celebrity culture constructs highly visible ideologies of femininity and ageing and how ageing female celebrities have negotiated the media in a variety of industrial historical and national contexts In the era when the baby boomers have started drawing their pensions the boundaries of what constitutes old age have never seemed more fluid and ageing has never been presented by advertisers and marketers in a more dynamic fashion However the fact remains that ageing is still widely feared and growing old is an inherently gendered process in which ageing women are paradoxically both rendered invisible and subjected to damning scrutiny Nowhere is this conflicting state of affairs more evident than in celebrity culture where ageing female stars are praised for growing old gracefully one moment and condemned for letting themselves go the next when they fail to age appropriately Examining a variety of themes and ageing women in the spotlight from Barbara Stanwyck to Madonna to Charlotte Rampling the essays collected here forge new critical and conceptual insights into how women grow older in the media and the implications of this for what Susan Sontag memorably called the double standard of ageing This book is based on a special issue of Celebrity Studies
