Hollywood, 1936 Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles Mark Shiel, 2013-02-15 Hollywood cinema and Los Angeles cannot be understood apart Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles traces the interaction of the real city its movie business and filmed image focusing on the crucial period from the construction of the first studios in the 1910s to the decline of the studio system fifty years later As Los Angeles gradually became one of the ten largest cities in the world the film industry made key contributions to its rapid growth and frequent crises in economic social political and cultural life Whether filmmakers engaged with the real city on location or recreated it on a studio set Los Angeles shaped the films that were made there and circulated influentially worldwide The book pays particular attention to early cinema slapstick comedy movies about the movies and film noir which are each explored in new ways with an emphasis on urban and architectural space and its representation as well as filmmaking style and technique Including many previously unpublished photographs and new historical evidence Hollywood Cinema and the Real Los Angeles gives us a never before seen view of the City of Angels

The American Enemy Philippe Roger, 2006-11 Georges Louis Buffon an eighteenth century French scientist was the first to promote the widespread idea that nature in the New World was deficient in America which he had never visited dogs don t bark birds don t sing and by extension humans are weaker less intelligent and less potent Thomas Jefferson infuriated by these claims brought a seven foot tall carcass of a moose from America to the entry hall of his Parisian hotel but the five foot tall Buffon remained unimpressed and refused to change his views on America

s inferiority Buffon as Philippe Roger demonstrates here was just one of the first in a long line of Frenchmen who have built a history of anti Americanism in that country a progressive history that is alternately ludicrous and trenchant The American Enemy is Roger s bestselling and widely acclaimed history of French anti Americanism presented here in English translation for the first time With elegance and good humor Roger goes back 200 years to unearth the deep roots of this anti Americanism and trace its changing nature from the belittling as Buffon did of the savage American to France s resigned dependency on America for goods and commerce and finally to the fear of America s global domination in light of France s thwarted imperial ambitions Roger sees French anti Americanism as barely acquainted with actual fact rather anti Americanism is a cultural pillar for the French America an idea that the country and its culture have long defined themselves against Sharon Bowman s fine translation of this magisterial work brings French anti Americanism into the broad light of day offering fascinating reading for Americans who care about our image abroad and how it came about Mr Roger almost single handedly creates a new field of study tracing the nuances and imagery of anti Americanism in France over 250 years He shows that far from being a specific reaction to recent American policies it has been knit into the very substance of French intellectual and cultural life His book stuns with its accumulated detail and analysis Edward Rothstein New York Times A brilliant and exhaustive guide to the history of French Ameriphobia Simon Schama New Yorker

Vice, Crime, and Poverty Dominique Kalifa, 2019-04-16 Beggars outcasts urchins waifs prostitutes criminals convicts madmen fallen women lunatics degenerates part reality part fantasy these are the grotesque faces that populate the underworld the dark inverse of our everyday world Lurking in the mirror that we hold up to our society they are our counterparts and our doubles repelling us and yet offering the tantalizing promise of escape Although these images testify to undeniable social realities the sordid lower depths make up a symbolic and social imaginary that reflects our fears and anxieties as well as our desires In Vice Crime and Poverty Dominique Kalifa traces the untold history of the concept of the underworld and its representations in popular culture He examines how the myth of the lower depths came into being in nineteenth century Europe as biblical figures and Christian traditions were adapted for a world turned upside down by the era of industrialization democratization and mass culture From the Parisian demimonde to Victorian squalor from the slums of New York to the sewers of Buenos Aires Kalifa deciphers the making of an image that has cast an enduring spell on its audience While the social conditions that created that underworld have changed Vice Crime and Poverty shows that from social scientific ideas of the underclass to contemporary cinema and steampunk culture its shadows continue to haunt us

Anatole Litvak Michelangelo Capua, 2015-01-28 During his 40 year career director producer Anatole Litvak 1902 1974 made films of all genres in Russia Germany England France and the United States His rootless background was cited by critics lamenting his lack of consistent style but it also added to his mystique as a chameleon like realisateur Litvak directed Hollywood greats like Edward G Robinson John Garfield Kirk Douglas Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Sophia Loren Anthony Perkins Olivia de Havilland Yul

Brynner Burt Lancaster Barbara Stanwick and many others He was twice nominated for Best Director by the Academy of Motion Picture Art and Sciences for The Snake Pit 1948 and for Decision Before Dawn 1951 These films along with Mayerling 1936 Sorry Wrong Number 1946 and Anastasia 1956 are considered classics but his pictures don't offer many clues about Litvak the man Apart from passing references to his wartime service as combat documentarian he never discussed his life in print allowing only brief interviews relating exclusively to his work This biography fills that void providing the first detailed portrait of an artist described by film historian Richard Schickel as an adept adaptable and prolific man the kind of director that Hollywood likes best
