Farney, 2020-09-03 Since he first appeared in the 1887 Beeton's Christmas annual A Study in Scarlet a great deal has been written about Arthur Conan Doyle's legendary character the consulting detective Sherlock Holmes Now for the first time Raymond G Farney offers a concise case by case compendium of these Sherlockian adventures In an easy to read format Farney presents a study of each Sherlock Holmes novel and short story Each case is broken down in a similar format covering fast facts on the publication the plot and the outcome of the story itself The studies include information such as Characters Crime Victim Crime Scene Timeline Evidence Clues and of course Holmes own Observations Deductions A Study in Sherlock is a comprehensive treasure trove of Holmesian information and a must read for any Holmes aficionado RAYMOND G FARNEY is a retired business owner who designed and built new residential homes at the New Jersey shore and since childhood an avid reader of Sherlock Holmes stories      Gillette Castle Erik Ofgang, 2017-06-05 During his career as an actor William Gillette portrayed world renowned character Sherlock Holmes in more than 1 300 performances His career as a playwright and actor afforded him the opportunity to purchase a 184 acre estate where he also built a twenty four room medieval style castle Overlooking the Connecticut River Gillette's castle was complete with spy mirrors sliding furniture hidden rooms and a three mile quarter scale railroad Since becoming a state park in 1943 it has evolved into one of Connecticut's most popular tourist attractions Writer and award winning journalist Erik Ofgang examines the history of an iconic structure and Gillette's life and role in the evolution of Sherlock Holmes      The Hound of the Baskervilles John O'Connor, 1999-06 Ideal for the English classroom and the Drama Studio The sophisticated themes and complex plots have been specifically designed to appeal to 11 16 year olds and have a language level accessible to all pupils      Screening Sherlock James Chapman, 2025-04-01 Screening Sherlock is the first book length academic study of the film and television career of the most famous detective in fiction Chapman explores the contexts adaptation strategies and critical reception of Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson on film and television in Britain and the United States The book includes case studies of such famous Holmes impersonators as William Gillette Basil Rathbone Peter Cushing Jeremy Brett and Benedict Cumberbatch as well as charting a path through many lesser known productions From early cinema to the Hollywood studio system and from heritage drama to contemporary postmodern television Screening Sherlock is an indispensable work for all aficionados of Arthur Conan Doyle's consulting detective of Baker Street      The Detective's Companion in Crime Fiction Lucy Andrew, Samuel Saunders, 2021-07-24 This book aims to establish the position of the sidekick character in the crime and detective fiction literary genres It re evaluates the traditional view that the sidekick character in these genres is often overlooked as having a small generic or singular role either to act as the foil to the detective in order to accentuate their own abilities at solving crimes or else to simply tell the story to the reader. Instead, essays in the collection explore the representations and functions of the detective's sidekick across a range of forms and subgenres of crime fiction. By incorporating forms such as children's detective fiction, comics, and graphic novels and film and television alongside the more traditional fare of novels and short stories, this book aims to break down the boundaries that sometimes exist between these forms, using the sidekick as a defining thread to link them together into a wider conceptual argument that covers a broad range of crime narratives.

The Hound of the Baskervilles Clive Francis, Arthur Conan Doyle, 2013-06-17 A bloodcurdling howl is heard across a cold moonlit moor: the spectral hound has claimed another victim. Sherlock Holmes, the world-famous detective of Baker Street, and the ever-reliable Watson are called upon to investigate the legendary plague of Baskerville Manor. This modern adaptation of the hound on the moor was commissioned by Nottingham and Salisbury Playhouses, and Clive worked alongside Tim Bird, who created an ingenious projection design, and the director Richard Baron. Subsequent to this initial production, this adaptation has just completed its third UK tour in seven years.

The Incredible Murder of Cardinal Tosca Alden Nowlan, Walter Learning, 1981

Arthur Conan Doyle's Art of Fiction Nils Clausson, 2019-01-22 This groundbreaking book rescues Arthur Conan Doyle from the sub-literary category of popular fiction and from the myth of Sherlock Holmes. Instead of following new historicists and postcolonialists and asking what Conan Doyle's fiction reveals about its author and what it tells us about Victorian attitudes to crime, class, Empire, and gender, this provocative and convincingly argued literary study shifts the critical emphasis to the neglected art of the novels, tales, and stories. It demonstrates through close reading that they can be read the same way as canonical literary fiction. Unapologetically polemical and written in an accessible jargon-free style, this book will stimulate debate and provoke counterarguments, but most importantly, it will send readers both within and outside the academy back to the fiction with heightened understanding and renewed pleasure. At a time when evaluation has virtually disappeared from literary studies, this iconoclastic book returns it to the centre.

Stephen Hetherington on Epistemology Stephen Hetherington, 2024-04-18 Philosophy has long embraced epistemology as one of its central elements. What is knowledge? How do we gain it Can we gain it Or do we always deceive ourselves when thinking that we have knowledge Are we too deeply fallible ever to know something For centuries these questions have helped to define and motivate epistemological research This volume engages strikingly with them offering some unusual answers Stephen Hetherington's prominent career within epistemology has been a series of bold varied and provocative arguments and ideas Bringing together some elements of his unique body of writing for the first time this collection features previously published as well as new material displaying and extending some of his highly original approaches to key issues including knowledge justification fallibility scepticism and the Gettier Problem Advancing our understanding of the systemic nature of Hetherington's thinking Stephen Hetherington on Epistemology presents his distinctive perspective on some of philosophy's central questions about knowledge an inviting blend of forensic detail and big picture proposals

The Criminal Mastermind of Baker Street Rob Nunn, 2017-09-19 What if Sherlock Holmes had turned to crime instead of detection THE CRIMINAL MASTERMIND OF BAKER STREET by Rob Nunn investigates this very concept Holmes famously said that when a clever man turns his brains to crime it is the worst of all A sinister influence is at work in Victorian London with Sherlock Holmes and Doctor Watson running a hidden criminal empire THE CRIMINAL MASTERMIND OF BAKER STREET explores all of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's original stories through the lens of Holmes as a criminal while adding many new exciting tales of Holmes daring to delight its readers

The Adventure of Black Drop Radkris, 2011-09-12 A gunshot leaves a dead man in an East End alley A beautiful woman lies dead on the lawns of Windsor Castle The only certain aspect of a beadle's death is its precipitation by gravity A mere bump into a gentleman sends an old man to his death amidst Piccadilly's evening throngs Did the gunshot echo through time and claim the three other souls or had their time simply run out One man's calibre matches these crimes A mathematician's ingenious deviance compounds London's smog as he surpasses his past transgressions and discovers the means to control the future But his plan is plagued by one man brave enough to play in the web in his criminal parlour Coerced to alter his modus operandi this man works on more than one case simultaneously navigating smoke and mirrors while trying to earn back a trusted friend trusting reluctantly in a mysterious Indian and evading death at every corner of London Can this man emerge a victor in a fight to save something as whimsical as the future of the world But above all else will he emerge alive body mind and soul Who is this man He is Sherlock Holmes
