Form And Spirit A Study In Religion:

Form and Spirit John Haden Badley, 1952 Form and Spirit J H Badley, 2023-12-30 First published in 1951 Form and Spirit deals with two primary questions regarding religion a the nature of religion as a permanent need in human life and its relation to the cults and creeds in which it has been embodied and b whether what is admittedly a crying need of our time can be met by the revival of religious forms which have lost their hold An attempt is made to trace the evolution of religion and a brief survey is given of the development of the chief world religions The object is not to show that any of these can be accounted truer than the rest but rather to see what were the reasons for the forms that they have taken and what elements and tendencies are common to them as throwing light both on the meaning of religion and on the needs of man s spiritual nature This is an essential read for general readers interested in religion Studies in Religion Eliza Thayer Clapp, 1845

Studies in Religion Glyn Richards, 2016-07-27 These studies in religion embrace Hindu Buddhist and Christian themes and examine the spiritual insights and philosophical reflections of prominent thinkers from different religious traditions Where appropriate comparisons are drawn between the views of representatives of the different traditions from an empathetic standpoint and in a way that would meet with the approval of adherents of those religions The main aim of these essays in the pluralistic religious situation of today is to enable us to escape from the small island of our own cultural tradition and to explore the richness and diversity of other cultures with their wide variety of religious experiences

Religion and Science as Forms of Life Carles Salazar, Joan Bestard, 2015-01-01 The relationships between science and religion are about to enter a new phase in our contemporary world as scientific knowledge has become increasingly relevant in ordinary life beyond the institutional public spaces where it traditionally developed The purpose of this volume is to analyze the relationships possible articulations and contradictions between religion and science as forms of life ways of engaging human experience that originate in particular social and cultural formations Contributions use this theoretical and ethnographic research to explore different scientific and religious cultures in the contemporary world Excel Senior

Form and Faith in Victorian Poetry and Religion Kirstie Blair, 2012-05-24 Kirstie Blair explores Victorian poetry in relation to Victorian religion with particular emphasis on the bitter contemporary debates over the use of forms in worship She argues that poetry made significant contributions to these debates not least through its formal structures By assessing the discourses of church architecture and liturgy in the first half of the book Form and Faith in Victorian Poetry and Religion demonstrates that Victorian poets both reflected on and affected ecclesiastical practices The second half of the book focuses on particular poets and poems including Browning s Christmas Eve and Tennyson s In Memoriam to show how High Anglican debates over formal worship were dealt with by Dissenting Broad Church and Roman Catholic poets and other writers This book features major Victorian poets Tennyson the Brownings Rossetti Hopkins Hardy from different Christian denominations but also argues that their work was influenced by a host of minor and less studied writers particularly the Tractarian or Oxford Movement poets whose writings are studied in detail here Form and Faith presents a new take on Victorian poetry by showing how important now forgotten religious controversies were to the content and form of some of the best known poems of the period In methodology and content it also relates strongly to current critical interest in poetic form and formalism while recovering a historical context in which form carried a particular weight of significance Perspectives in Religious Studies: Volume I Adelowo, E. Dada, 2014-08-23 Perspectives in Religious Studies is in three Volumes It is a product of expertise of specialists from universities in Nigeria and abroad The book is a response to the lack in Nigerian universities of relevant books in the various branches of Religious Studies Topics covered by the volumes include Church History Philosophy of Religion Islamic Studies generally Biblical Studies History of Religions Comparative Religion African Traditional Religion Sociology of Religion Ethics and Phenomenology of Religion

Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Ecstasy Alison Marshall, Rubina Ramji, Michael Wilkinson, 2025-03-20 Why do people seek a connection to something beyond the social dimensions of the world Ecstatic experiences are often labelled religious spiritual mystical or even sacred However ecstasy is not just extraordinary for many people throughout the world it is an ordinary part of daily life The Handbook highlights the diverse individuals who have experienced ecstasy in the past and present from ordinary people to mystics pastors healers spirit mediums and urban neo therapeutic shamans Chapters show that ecstasy may be experienced during trance possession prayer and even through the use of drugs such as soma peyote ayahuasca ibogaine mushrooms LSD and other substances While institutional expressions of religion may be on the decline experiences of religious ecstasy and interactions among living people and gods saints angels and demons individually and collectively are happening everywhere occurring at home online in the community and through prayer dance song possession and the ingestion of drugs Ecstatic religious experience as this handbook shows provides meaning belonging and for some profit in the late capitalist marketplace Progress and Religion Christopher Dawson, 2012-08-09 Progress and Religion was perhaps the most influential of all Christopher Dawson's books establishing him as an interpreter of history and a historian of ideas Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo, 2013-06-13 It has been maintained that the secular nature of modern human rights makes them incompatible with the religious orientation of African and non Western societies However in view of the resilience of religion in the global and local public sphere it is important to explore how religion can contribute to the promotion and enjoyment of human rights Based on fieldwork conducted in Ghana Abamfo Ofori Atiemo here establishes a convergence between human rights and local religious and cultural values in African societies He argues that human rights represent universal dream values This allows for a cultural embedding of human rights in Ghana and other non Western societies He argues that dream values are usually presented in religious language and proclaimed for example by prophets and seers or expressed in certain forms of taboo proverbs or legal norms He employs the concept of inculturation adaptation of the way Church teachings are presented to non Christian cultures as a hermeneutical tool for developing a model to understand the encounter between universal human rights and local cultures Offering a new model for explaining the relation between religion and human rights Religion and the Inculturation of Human Rights in Ghana offers a novel perspective on the links between global trends and local cultures underpinned by strong currents of religious ideas

A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew Wilkinson, 2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts
