Forming Tribalized Communities:

Forming Tribalized Communities Forbes Leslie, 1992 Forming a Global Community Joseph de Rivera, 2022-10-18 To address global problems such as pandemics warming economic inequality mass migration and widespread terrorism Joseph de Rivera argues that we must form a global community A community of eight billion humans is difficult to conceive However it can be imagined and created if we transform our understanding of who humans are and what community entails We can understand who persons are how they are motivated and how a community can be conceived in a way that offers an alternative to individualism and collectivism The mutualism that is proposed provides a moral compass for navigating the challenges that confront us and encourages specific governing structures political economies and rituals that will further the formation of a global community Based on the philosophical analysis of John Macmurray the author s argument relies on an extensive review of the current literature on self personhood emotional motivation social identity forms of community and religious and secular rituals Interdisciplinary in nature it aims to direct philosophy and the social sciences to the challenges of globalism and the creation of a global community Tribal Community Development Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-12-23 In this book we will study about the unique social cultural and economic aspects of tribal communities It covers tribal rights land issues education and health initiatives aimed at empowering indigenous populations Educational Perspectives of Paniya Tribal Community Dr. TOMY KUTTICKAL OUSEPH, Reimagining Community Festivals and Events Allan Stewart Jepson, Raphaella Stadler, Trudie Walters, 2024-05-06 This book celebrates and builds on Alan Clarke 1956 2021 and Allan Jepson s 2015 book Exploring Community Festivals and Events It showcases how far the study of community festivals and events has come in the intervening years and in so doing it is a response to recent calls for researchers to take a more critical approach to event studies This is an interdisciplinary book that draws together empirical research across a wide range of community event types sizes and within diverse communities Chapters in this book are grouped into four themes that highlight the breadth and depth of work being done reviving and maintaining tradition s a focus on belonging challenges and tensions and innovations in teaching and research Another of its core strengths is its international perspective the book encompasses research from around the world including Turkey Portugal Greece India the UK the US Austria and New Zealand There is also a diverse range of theoretical lenses applied to the study of community events and some innovative methodologies used to achieve research aims and objectives This volume will appeal to students and researchers in the fields of critical event studies cultural studies place making tourism music sociology and geography Several chapters also provide insights and key learnings for those lecturing and working in event management and industry professionals Trance Formation Robin Sylvan, 2013-10-08 Robin Sylvan combines colorful firsthand accounts extensive interviews with ravers and cutting edge scholarly analysis to paint a compelling portrait of global rave culture as an important new religious and spiritual phenomenon that also serves as a template for mapping the future evolution of new forms of religion and spirituality in the twenty first century The Village Community George Laurence Gomme,1890 Modern Africa Basil Davidson,2014-07-10 Basil Davidson s famous book now updated in a welcome Third Edition reviews the social and political history of Africa in the twentieth century It takes the reader from the colonial era through the liberation movements to independence and beyond It faces squarely the disappointments and breakdowns that have dulled the early successes of the post colonial era yet for all the sorrows and uncertainties of Africa today Basil Davidson shows how much has been achieved since decolonization and the mood of his new final chapter is hopeful and buoyant Handbook of American Indians North of Mexico: A-M Frederick Webb Hodge,1911 Social Change and Cultural Continuity Among Native Nations Duane Champagne,2007 This book defines the broad parameters of social change for Native American nations in the twenty first century as well as their prospects for cultural continuity Many of the themes Champagne tackles are of general interest in the study of social change including governmental economic religious and environmental perspectives This book is an excellent resource for use in anthropology sociology ethnic studies or Native American studies classes Ethical Implications of Environmental Crisis on Present-Day Society Dr. Rupali Devi Barua,2020-09-12 The current condition on the Earth vis a vis the pollution with impact of climate change looming large caused to it by human activities it can be considered a gloomy period for the Earth which needs to be addressed as soon as possible American Indian Constitutional Reform and the Rebuilding of Native Nations Eric D. Lemont,2009-08-17 Since 1975 when the U S government adopted a policy of self determination for American Indian nations a large number of the 562 federally recognized nations have seized the opportunity to govern themselves and determine their own economic political and cultural futures As a first and crucial step in this process many nations are revising constitutions originally developed by the U S government to create governmental structures more attuned to native people s unique cultural and political values These new constitutions and the governing institutions they create are fostering greater governmental stability and accountability increasing citizen support of government and providing a firmer foundation for economic and political development This book brings together for the first time the writings of tribal reform leaders academics and legal practitioners to offer a comprehensive overview of American Indian nations constitutional reform processes and the rebuilding of native nations The book is organized in three sections The first part investigates the historical cultural economic and political motivations behind American Indian nations recent reform efforts The second part examines the most significant areas of reform including criteria for tribal membership citizenship and the reform of governmental institutions The book concludes with a discussion of how American Indian nations are navigating the process of reform including overcoming the politics of reform maximizing citizen participation and developing short term and long term programs of civic education Fundamentals of Historical Materialism Doug Lorimer,1999 The Indian Village Community Baden-Powell,1896 Facebook Democracy José Marichal,2016-04-15 In July 2010 Facebook had over 500 million subscribers worldwide and the rapid rise of the site prompted Time magazine to name Facebook's founder Mark Zuckerberg its person of the year for 2010 This novel book advances our understanding of how democratic citizens are transformed by the Facebook revolution Despite increasing interest in politics and popular media there has been little academic work on the impact of Facebook on politics in general and on democratic processes in particular The work that does exist has been limited to Facebook's impact on politics as a mobilization tool used by social movement activists In this book Jos Marichal argues that understanding Facebook's impact on political processes requires an understanding of how Facebook's architecture of disclosure shapes the construction of individuals' political identities by drawing users further into their pre-selected social networks Drawing on a number of disciplines and an ethnographic analysis of 250 Facebook political groups Marichal explores how Facebook's emphasis on social connection impacts key dimensions of political participation e.g. mobilization deliberation and attitude formation Xenophobia in the Media Senthan Selvarajah, Nesrin Kenar, Ibrahim Seaga Shaw, Pradeep Dhakal, 2024-01-31 Through its global and critical perspectives this book brings together knowledge, ideas and tools to understand the problems and identify effective solutions, best practices and alternative approaches to combat xenophobia in the media and build tolerance and social cohesion Although various studies have been conducted on the extent to which the media construct xenophobic discourse against immigrants and refugees and how they represent immigrants, there exists a research lacuna as to the dynamics of the xenophobia construction in the media, the effect of xenophobic discourse of the media and its function, the nexus between xenophobia construction of the media and the social, economic and political conditions and the impact of the xenophobic discourse of the media on immigrants and host communities This book adds knowledge and empirical evidence to fill this research gap This book will be an important resource for journalists, scholars and students of media and communication studies, journalism, political science, sociology and anyone covering issues of race and racism, human rights, immigration and refugees The Village Community Gomme, 1890 The Montenegrin Warrior Tradition Branko Banovi?, 2016-04-29 Montenegro has been a much neglected part of former Yugoslavia The Montenegrin Warrior Tradition aims to scrutinize the identity debates in Montenegrin public opinion over the question of membership to NATO and to explore how narratives created for that purpose have been linked with Montenegrin identity, history, tradition and the concept of Montenegrin masculinity The intertwining of the question of identity with that of NATO membership and the inseparability of these issues from the context of quotidian politics produces an array of controversies among Montenegrin citizens The book interprets the public and private debates about Montenegro joining NATO through the prism of anthropological studies of identity in particular those focused on a general theory of culture and the anthropology of multiculturalism Solutions for Safer Communities, 2004 Pre-tsarist and Tsarist Central Asia Paul Georg Geiss, 2004-11-23 This study, written from the perspective of political sociology, represents the first comparative examination of Central Asian communal and political organisation before and after the tsarist conquest of the region It covers Turkman, Kyrgyz, Kazakh and other tribal societies analyses the patrimonial state structures of the Emirate of Bukhara and the Khanates of Khiva and Khokand and discusses the impacts of the established tsarist civil military administration on communal and political orientations of the Muslim population
