Formulation Of Christianity By Conflict Through The Ages:

The Formulation of Christianity by Conflict Through the Ages Katharine B. Free,1995 The Oxford Handbook of the Second Sophistic Daniel S. Richter,William Allen Johnson,2017 Focusing on the period known as the Second Sophistic this Handbook offers guidance on the wide range of textual materials that survive many of which are useful or even core to inquiries of particularly current interest while also keeping a sharp focus on how we can best situate these texts within the broader socio cultural milieu The Making of a Christian Aristocracy Michele Renee Salzman,2009-06-30 What did it take to cause the Roman aristocracy to turn to Christianity changing centuries old beliefs and religious traditions Salzman takes a fresh approach to this much debated question by focusing on a sampling of individual aristocratic men and women as well as on writings and archeological evidence Christian Identity in the Jewish and Graeco-Roman World Judith Lieu,2004-05-27 Judith Lieu s study explores how a sense of being a Christian was shaped within the setting of the Jewish and Graeco Roman world By exploring this theme she reveals what made early Christianity so distinctive and separate

Christianity Through the Centuries Earle E. Cairns,1996 This respected well known comprehensive resource has established itself as a classic on church history Cairns looks for the glory of God in the total process conveying the issues that have divided the church and also affirming that the church of Jesus Christ is basically one Classifying Christians Todd S. Berzon,2021-05-25 Classifying Christians investigates late antique Christian heresiologies as ethnographies that catalogued and detailed the origins rituals doctrines and customs of the heretics in explicitly polemical and theological terms Oscillating between ancient ethnographic evidence and contemporary ethnographic writing Todd S Berzon argues that late antique heresiology shares an underlying logic with classical ethnography in the ancient Mediterranean world By providing an account of heresiological writing from the second to fifth century Classifying Christians embeds heresiology within the historical development of imperial forms of knowledge that have shaped western culture from antiquity to the present

Symbolic Blackness and Ethnic Difference in Early Christian Literature Gay L Byron,2003-10-04 How were early Christians influenced by contemporary assumptions about ethnic and colour differences Why were early Christian writers so attracted to the subject of Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians Looking at the neglected issue of race brings valuable new perspectives to the study of the ancient world now Gay Byron s exciting work is the first to survey and theorise Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians in Christian antiquity By combining innovative theory and methodology with a detailed survey of early Christian writings Byron shows how perceptions about ethnic and color differences influenced the discursive strategies of ancient Christian authors She demonstrates convincingly that in spite of the contention that Christianity was to extend to all peoples certain groups of Christians were marginalized and rendered invisible and silent Original and pioneering this book will inspire discussion at every level encouraging a broader and more sophisticated understanding of early Christianity for scholars and students alike A Companion to Ethnicity in the Ancient Mediterranean Jeremy McInerney,2014-08-25 A Companion to Ethnicity in the Ancient Mediterranean presents a comprehensive collection of essays contributed by Classical Studies scholars that explore questions relating to ethnicity in the ancient Mediterranean world Covers topics of ethnicity in civilizations ranging from ancient Egypt and Israel to Greece and Rome and into Late Antiquity Features cutting edge research on ethnicity relating to Philistine Etruscan and Phoenician identities Reveals the explicit relationships between ancient and modern ethnicities Introduces an interpretation of ethnicity as an active component of social identity Represents a fundamental questioning of formally accepted and fixed categories in the field Perpetua's Passion Joyce E. Salisbury, 2013-06-17 Perpetua's Passion studies the third century martyrdom of a young woman and places it in the intellectual and social context of her age Conflicting ideas of religion family and gender are explored as Salisbury follows Perpetua from her youth in a wealthy Roman household to her imprisonment and death in the arena Ethnicity and Argument in Eusebius' Praeparatio Evangelica Aaron P. Johnson, 2006-10-12 Readership Scholars and students of early Christianity classics late antiquity ancient philosophy BOOK JACKET The Conqueror's Gift Michael Maas, 2025-02-25 The essential role of ethnographic thought in the Roman empire and how it evolved in Late Antiquity Ethnography is indispensable for every empire as important as armies tax collectors or ambassadors It helps rulers articulate cultural differences and it lets the inhabitants of the empire especially those who guide its course understand themselves in the midst of enemies allies and friends In The Conqueror's Gift Michael Maas examines the ethnographic infrastructure of the Roman Empire and the transformation of Rome's ethnographic vision during Late Antiquity Drawing on a wide range of texts Maas shows how the Romans ethnographic thought evolved as they attended to the business of ruling an empire on three continents Ethnography the conqueror's gift gave Romans structured ways of finding a place for foreigners in the imperial worldview and helped justify imperial action affecting them In Late Antiquity Christianity revolutionized the imperial ethnographic infrastructure by altering old concepts and introducing credal models of community The Bible became a source for organizing the Roman world At the same time many previously unseen collective identities emerged across Western Eurasia in reaction to the diminution of Roman power These changes deeply affected the Empire's ethnographic infrastructure and vision of the world Maas argues that a major consequence of these developments was the beginning of a sectarian age as individuals and political communities came to identify themselves primarily in terms of religion as well as ethnicity As they adjusted to changing ethnographic realities Romans understood their place among the peoples of the world in new ways Willingly or not we continue to be recipients of the conqueror's gift today Her Story Barbara J. MacHaffie, 2006 The Bible has been written translated and interpreted for centuries by men in cultures that were patriarchal In patriarchy women are subordinated within the gradations of a hierarchical society Material on women therefore has often been misinterpreted or overlooked In some instances generic nouns and pronouns in the original languages have been translated into English as masculine words A careful textual study must be made using all the available tools of biblical scholarship An accurate understanding of the meaning of words must be sought Also readers must try to discern the intentions of the author and try to gain a knowledge of the historical and social background of the biblical material The demands of God must be distinguished from the demands of a particular culture The bible as a whole makes it clear that God's people are to bring justice and wholeness to all human beings the injunctions that degrade women do not provide principles valid for every age of Christianity but instead reflect cultural situations in which men related to women through dominance The standard for the Christian community today should be the glimmers of female dignity and leadership that shine through the pages of the Bible

Why This New Race Denise Buell, 2008-08-28 Denise Kimber Buell radically rethinks the origins of Christian identity arguing that race and ethnicity played a central role in early Christian theology Focusing on texts written before the legalization of Christianity in 313 C E including Greek apologetic treatises martyr narratives and works by Clement of Alexandria Origen Justin Martyr and Tertullian Buell shows how philosophers and theologians defined Christians as a distinct group within the Roman world characterizing Christianness as something both fixed in its essence and fluid in its acquisition through conversion Buell demonstrates how this view allowed Christians to establish boundaries around the meaning of Christianness and to develop the kind of universalizing claims aimed at uniting all members of the faith Her arguments challenge generations of scholars who have refused to acknowledge ethnic reasoning in early Christian discourses They also provide crucial insight into the historical legacy of Christian anti-Semitism and contemporary issues of race

The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds Rebecca Futo Kennedy, Molly Jones-Lewis, 2016-01-08 The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds explores how environment was thought to shape ethnicity and identity discussing developments in early natural philosophy and historical ethnographies Defining environment broadly to include not only physical but also cultural environments natural and constructed the volume considers the multifarious ways in which environment was understood to shape the culture and physical characteristics of peoples as well as how the ancients manipulated their environments to achieve a desired identity This diverse collection includes studies not only of the Greco-Roman world but also ancient China and the European Jewish and Arab inheritors and transmitters of classical thought In recent years work in this subject has been confined mostly to the discussion of texts that reflect an approach to the barbarian as other The Routledge Handbook of Identity and the Environment in the Classical and Medieval Worlds takes the discussion of ethnicity on a fresh course contextualising the concept of the barbarian within rational discourses such as cartography medicine and mathematical sciences an approach that allows us to more clearly discern the varied and nuanced approaches to ethnic identity which abounded in antiquity The innovative and thought-provoking material in this volume realises new directions in the study of identity in the Classical and Medieval worlds

Reconciliation and Justice in Africa Sipho Mahokoto, Christo Thesnaar, 2025-07-31 The world is groaning beneath a seemingly endless cycle of oppression and injustice This is particularly evident in Africa where colonization racism and violent conflicts have left deep scars on both nations and peoples In this collection of essays theologians from across Africa draw from their nations painful histories to grapple with the complex questions of reconciliation forgiveness and healing Using examples of religious ethnic and tribal conflicts across the continent these essays explore reconciliation and justice in the context of liberation theology biblical studies ecclesiology and pastoral care An excellent resource for peacemakers and academics alike this book offers a powerful and contextualized vision of the gospel s power to restore justice and offer true hope to a wounded world Christianity Through the Centuries Isaac Padinjarekutt,2005 The Ethnographic Character of Romans Susann M. Liubinskas,2019-02-05 In this work Susann Liubinskas provides a coherent reading of Paul s letter to the Romans in light of ancient ethnography Paul like his contemporaries harnesses the apologetic power of this genre in order to fortify the members of the Roman house churches to maintain their distinctiveness by arguing for the historical legitimacy of the Christ movement s laws customs and way of life When the law faith dichotomy is considered within the larger context of Paul s ethnic discourse its primary function as the means by which Paul draws lines of continuity and discontinuity between the Christ movement and its venerable Jewish roots comes to light Rather than viewing Paul as dealing with two different religions we see Paul working to position believing Jews and Gentiles in relationship to Israel s history with God particularly as its finds its climax in Jesus Christ Thus Paul utilizes the law faith dichotomy not to describe two paths of salvation but to redefine the people of God in the new age as ethnically inclusive Journal of Greco-Roman Christianity and Judaism ,2000 ACT & College Preparation Course for the Christian Student James Stobaugh,2012 The author presents 50 lessons presenting a variety of vocabulary math reading and English test topics each accompanied by test taking insights Christian devotions and prayer points History of the Christian Church: The preparation for modern times 600-1517 A.D George Herbert Dryer,1897
