Fostering Emotional Intelligence in K-8 Students Gwen Doty, 2001-01 Shows how to help students build character and gain leadership skills by incorporating simple techniques into their daily lessons

A Critique of Emotional Intelligence Kevin R. Murphy, 2014-02-25 This book analyzes important criticisms of the current research on Emotional Intelligence EI a topic of growing interest in the behavioral and social sciences It looks at emotional intelligence research and EI interventions from a scientific and measurement perspective and identifies ways of improving the often shaky foundations of our current conceptions of emotional intelligence With a balanced viewpoint A Critique of Emotional Intelligence includes contributions from leading critics of EI research and practice e g Frank Landy Mark Schmit Chockalingam Viswesvaran proponents of EI e g Neal Ashkanasy Catherine Daus as well as a broad range of well informed authors Proponents claim that EI is more important in life than academic intelligence while opponents claim that there is no such thing as emotional intelligence Three key criticisms that have been leveled at emotional intelligence include 1 EI is poorly defined and poorly measured 2 EI is a new name for familiar constructs that have been studied for decades and 3 claims about EI are overblown While the book presents these criticisms the final section proposes ways of improving EI research and practice with EI theories tests and applications

Acceleration for Gifted Learners, K-5 Joan Franklin Smutny, Sally Y. Walker, Elizabeth A. Meckstroth, 2006-10-19 This valuable book dispels common myths about acceleration reviews social emotional considerations and provides tools for effectively determining the most appropriate learning options for gifted students

Middle Grades Curriculum Kathleen Roney, Richard P. Lipka, 2013-05-01 High stakes testing standards and accountability politics is taking us away from the importance of the affective domain in curriculum development This critical learning domain is often an unrecognized and infrequently considered topic in the literature Through this book we extend the current knowledge base by addressing a curriculum model developed in the 1980s We add a 2012 knowledge base as we delineate the role of self perceptions in school related learning how middle level curriculum affects self perceptions and the type of curriculum planning which enhances self perceptions and improves learning in the cognitive affective and psychomotor domains The combination of sound psychological principles and practical teaching and curriculum suggestions with an empirical basis makes the book attractive to both higher education and local school professional libraries In the former it will serve as the primary text in graduate and advanced undergraduate middle level education programs and practices courses It might also be a primary text in courses or workshops in affective education or other experiences which emphasize affective values and self concept It also has potential as a supplementary text in undergraduate educational psychology courses At the in service level this book could be used as a workshop resource or as a professional reference for middle level teachers administrators curriculum workers and supervisors Our interest in young adolescents and their school setting coincides with the fourth edition of This We Believe NMSA 2010 The self enhancing school is characterized by from to statements for example from avoiding parents to working with parents Using theory and research we discuss the costs of staying in the from position and the benefits derived from moving to the to position By combining educational psychology and curriculum development we make a unique contribution to middle grades curriculum developers
