Legal and Rhetorical Foundations of Economic Globalization Keren Wang, 2019-06-13 This book examines the subtle ways in which rhetorics of sacrifice have been re appropriated into the workings of the global political economy in the 21st century It presents an in depth analysis of the ways in which ritual practices are deployed under a diverse set of political and legal contexts as legitimation devices in rendering exploitative structures of the prevailing political economic system to appear inescapable or even palatable To this end this work explores the deeper rhetorical and legal basis of late capitalist governmentality by critically interrogating its mythical and ritual dimensions The analysis gives due consideration to the contemporary incarnations of ritual sacrifice in the transnational neoliberal discourse from those exploitative yet inescapable contractual obligations to calendrical multi billion dollar offerings to the insatiable needs of too big to fail corporations The first part of the book provides a working interpretative framework for understanding the politics of ritual sacrifice one that not only accommodates multidisciplinary interdisciplinary knowledge of ritual practices but that can also be employed in the integrated analysis of sacrificial rituals as political rhetoric under divergent historical and societal contexts The second conducts a series of case studies that cut across the wide variability of ritual public takings in late capitalism The book concludes by highlighting several key common doctrines of public ritual sacrifice which have been broadly observed in its case studies These common doctrines tend to reflect the rhetorical and legal foundations for public takings under hegemonic market driven governance They define appropriate and proper occasions for suspending pre existing legal protections to regularize otherwise transgressive transfers of rights and possessions for the greater good of the economic order

The Foundations of Economics Walter Eucken, 2012-12-06 THE FIRST GERMAN edition of this book appeared in 1940 Since then the book has gone through five more editions and has been translated into Spanish and Italian The present English translation is based on the sixth German edition The author was Professor of Economics at the University of Freiburg Germany Professor Eucken was a student at a time when the Historical School dominated the teaching of economics at the German universities Although at the beginning of his career he did some work along the lines of the Historical School neither the aims nor the methods of historical research in the field of economics as practised by the representatives in of the Historical School satisfied him and the fact that the members of this school were unable to explain the causes of economic events such as the German inflation after World War I was an added reason for him to turn to economic theory He became among German economists the foremost opponent of the Historical School which he criticised in several publications Through his writings and his teaching he contributed his share to the revival of interest in economic theory which was noticeable in the twenties And he was one of the few economists left in Germany who helped to keep this interest alive during the thirties and during World War II During this time he published Kapitaltheoretische Untersuchungen 1936 and the present volume which immediately gave rise to an extensive discussion in German economic journals

Foundations for a Humanitarian Economy William D. Bishop,2022-03-17 The modern global economy and discipline of economics place mathematical calculation above human concern However a re reading of

Boethius The Consolation of Philosophy can positively highlight the contrast in values and spirit of the early medieval European world with our own scientific age This book discusses the historical and cultural contexts that influenced Boethius writing and explores how Consolation offers a radically different understanding of economic concepts wealth from inner happiness and virtues poverty from hoarding outer possessions self sufficiency in the greater whole enlightenment through misfortune and development as fruition from the Good These economic considerations resonate with a range of heterodox economic perspectives such as Ecological and Buddhist Economics The fundamental revaluations gained through Boethius pose a critique of mainstream neoclassical and neoliberal economics to consumerism avarice growth and technology fetishism and market rationality These economic foundations resonate into a time when global crises raise the question of fundamental human priorities offering alternatives to an ever expanding industrial market economy designed for profit and helping to avoid irrevocable socio ecological disasters The issues raised and questioned in this book will be of significant interest to readers with concern for pluralist approaches to economics philosophy classics ancient history and theology The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
