Foundations of Citizenship Bernard Shawn, 1962 Foundations of Citizenship Bernard Shawn, 1971 Foundations of Citizenship Bernard Shawn, 1970 Citizenship as Foundation of Rights Richard Sobel, 2016-10-26 Citizenship as Foundation of Rights explains what it means to have citizen rights and how national identification requirements undermine them The Foundations of Citizenship Dawn Oliver, Derek Benjamin Heater, 1994 The Foundations of American Citizenship Richard C. Sinopoli, 1992-04-02 This study of exemplary writings from the debates over the ratification of the 1787 Constitution deals with the American constitutional founders understandings of citizenship and civic virtue Discussion of these debates is set in an analytical and historical context addressing the rationales for and the nature of civic allegiance in liberal political regimes Sinopoli analyzes the development of a distinctly liberal political psychology from its origins in John Locke Adam Smith and David Hume through the American founding and traces its implications for the current American polity Handbook of Citizenship Studies Engin F Isin, Bryan S Turner, 2002-08-16 The contributions of Woodiwiss Lister and Sassen are outstanding but not unrepresentative of the many merits of this excellent collection The British Journal of Sociology From women s rights civil rights and sexual rights for gays and lesbians to disability rights and language rights we have experienced in the past few decades a major trend in Western nation states towards new claims for inclusion This trend has echoed around the world from the Zapatistas to Chechen and Kurdish nationalists social and political movements are framing their struggles in the languages of rights and recognition and hence of citizenship Citizenship has thus become an increasingly important axis in the social sciences Social scientists have been rethinking the role of political agent or subject Not only are the rights and obligations of citizens being redefined but also what it means to be a citizen has become an issue of central concern As the process of globalization produces multiple diasporas we can expect increasingly complex relationships between homeland and host societies that will make the traditional idea of national citizenship problematic As societies are forced to manage cultural difference and associated tensions and conflict there will be changes in the processes by which states allocate citizenship and a differentiation of the category of citizen This book constitutes the most authoritative and comprehensive guide to the terrain Drawing on a wealth of interdisciplinary knowledge and including some of the leading commentators of the day it is an essential guide to understanding modern citizenship About the editors Engin F Isin is Associate Professor of Social Science at York University His recent works include Being Political Genealogies of

The Artistic Foundations of Nations and Citizens Ann Ward, 2021-09-28 This book examines politics through the lens of art and literature Through discussion on great works of visual art literature and cultural representations of political thought in the medieval early modern and American eras it explores the relevance of the nation state to human freedom and flourishing as well as the concept of citizenship and statesmanship that it implies in contrast to that of the global community The essays in this volume focus on shifting notions of various core political concepts like citizenship republicanism and nationalism from antiquity to the present day to provide a systematic understanding of their evolving histories through Western Art and literature It highlights works such as the Bayeux Tapestry Shakespeare s Henry V Henry VI and A Midsummer Night s Dream Twain s Joan of Arc and Hermann s Nichts als Gespenster among several other canonical works of political interest Further it questions if we should now look beyond the nation state to some form of transnational global community to pursue the human freedom desired by progressives or look at smaller forms of community resembling the polis to pursue the friendship and nobility valued by the ancients The volume will be invaluable to students and teachers of political science especially political theory and philosophy visual arts and world literature

Globalizing Minds Iveta Silova, Daphne P. Hobson, 2014-05-01 Globalization has a profound effect on the mission and goals of education worldwide One of its most visible manifestations is the worldwide endorsement of the idea of education for global citizenship which has been enthusiastically supported by national governments politicians and policy makers across different nations Increasingly the educational institutions feel under pressure to respond to globalization forces by preparing students to engage competitively and successfully with this new realm lest their nations be left in the dust What is the role of international schools in implementing the idea of education for global citizenship How do these schools create a culturally unbiased global curriculum when the adopted models have been developed by Western societies and at the very least are replete with Western cultural values traditions and biases This collection of essays attempts to grapple with these complex issues while highlighting that culture and politics closely intertwine with schooling and curriculum as parents administrators teachers and students of different backgrounds and interests negotiate definitions of self and each other to construct knowledge in particular contexts The goal is to examine the complexity of factors that drive the global demand for education for global citizenship and de construct the contested nature of global citizenship by examining how the phenomenon is understood interpreted and modified in different cultural settings The authors provide not only a thick description of their cases but also a critical assessment of various attempts to initiate and implement educational reforms aimed at the development of globally minded citizens in various national settings
