Hockey Dreams:

Hockey Dreams Gil Conrad, 2006-09 Wayne Miller dreams of playing hockey but fears his small size will keep coaches from noticing him until one lucky break gives him a chance to play and show everyone how well he can play

Programming Reality Zoë Druick, Aspa Kotsopoulos, 2008-08-01 Programming Reality Perspectives on English Canadian Television the first anthology dedicated to analyses of Canadian television content is a collection of original interdisciplinary articles combining textual analysis and political economy of communications It explores the television that has thrived in the Canadian regulatory and cultural context namely programs that straddle the border between reality and fiction or even blur it The conceptual basis of this collection is the hybrid nature of television fare the widely theorized notion that all mediations of reality involve fiction in the form of narrative or symbolic shaping Each of the contributions here is a reminder too of the significant relationship of television to nation building in Canada to the imaginative work involved in thinking through the relations that constitute nations citizens and communities The collection focuses on English language Canadian television because the imperatives guiding its texts are markedly different from those pertaining to their French language counterparts The collection therefore develops a nuance of perspective on the cultural and political economic specificities that inform the imaginative work of television production for English Canada

Puckstruck Stephen Smith, 2014-10-25 Like many a Canadian kid Stephen Smith was up on skates first thing as a boy out in the weather chasing a puck and the promise of an NHL career Back indoors after that didn't quite work out he turned to the bookshelf That's where without entirely meaning to he ended up reading all the hockey books There was Crunch and Boom Boom Slashing and High Stick there was Max Bentley Hockey's Dipsy Doodle Dandy Blue Line Murder and Nagano a Czech hockey opera There was Blood on the Ice Cracked Ice Fire On Ice Power On Ice Cowboy On Ice and Steel On Ice In Puckstruck Smith chronicles his wide eyed and sometimes wincing wander through hockey's literature language and culture weighing its excitement and unbridled joy against its costs and vexing brutality In exploring his own lifelong love of the game hoping to surprise some sense out of it he sifts hockey's narratives in search of hockey's heart what it means and why it should distress us even as we celebrate its glories On a journey to discover what the game might have to say about who we are as Canadians he seeks to answer some of its essential riddles

Canadian literary criticism in general      Black Ice Valmore James, John Gallagher, 2015-02-01 The first black American in the NHL tells his story Val James became the first African American player in the NHL when he took to the ice with the Buffalo Sabres in 1982 and in 1987 he became the first black player of any nationality to skate for the Toronto Maple Leafs Born in central Florida James grew up on Long Island and received his first pair of skates for his 13th birthday At 16 James left home to play in Canada where he was the only black person in junior and often in the whole town While popular for his tough play and winning personality the teenager faced racist taunts at opposing arenas and the prejudice continued at all levels of the game In his two NHL stints James defined himself as a smart team player and opponent known for his pugilistic skills Black Ice is the untold story of a trail blazing athlete who endured and overcame discrimination to realize his dreams and become an inspiration for future generations

Dare to Make History Jocelyne Lamoureux-Davidson, Monique Lamoureux-Morando, 2021-02-23 Dare to Make History is the story of two courageous and talented women who weren't willing to accept anything less than being treated as equals On their journey to a gold medal in women's ice hockey they became role models for generations before and after them Twins Jocelyne Lamoureux Davidson and Monique Lamoureux Morando started playing ice hockey with their four older brothers and their friends on a frozen pond next to their home in North Dakota No girls hockey teams no problem they just played on boys teams They went on to win six World Championships and played in three Olympics winning two silver medals and ultimately a gold medal in South Korea in 2018 for the USA Women's National Team They did not allow roadblocks and discrimination deter them from taking on their governing body USA Hockey threatening to boycott the 2017 World Championships and jeopardizing their ability to compete in the 2018 Olympics unless their gender equity issues were addressed The success of Monique Jocelyne and their team thrust them into the center of the struggle for gender equity for women in hockey and in sports in general as well as in society at large In Dare to Make History the Lamoureux twins chronicle their journey to the pinnacle of their sport their efforts along with almost 150 other hockey players to start a new professional women's hockey league their training to come back and make another national team after giving birth their tireless efforts to advance the interests of disadvantaged communities in closing the digital divide and their ongoing contributions as role models championing the dreams of future generations of girls in sports education and the workplace This is not a hockey book It is not a girls book It is a book about the importance of the fight for equity particularly gender equity It is the inspirational story of how two young women from a small town in North Dakota have dreamed big had the courage to take on huge battles and in the end how they have dared to make history

Canada Máire Áine Ní Mhainnín, Elizabeth Tilley, 2009-05-05 The essays in this volume are expanded versions of papers that were first presented at the 13th Biennial Conference XIII me Congr's biennal of the Association for Canadian Studies in Ireland held at the National University of Ireland Galway in 2006 The theme of the Conference was Canada at Home and Abroad Text and Territory Le Canada et ses relations d'ici de l et de l bas The papers debate issues surrounding literature language and language acquisition immigration emigration and culture in Canada Ireland and in Europe as a whole From an examination of the place of hockey in the Canadian literary consciousness to mapping minority language visibility in officially bilingual cities the focus here is on ways of exploring culture understood in its widest sense
