to treat Maddie's disease. Because her parents were unwilling to accept this fate for their daughter, they ended up at the Children's Hospital in Denver, Colorado. Maddie became one of the early pioneers of pulmonary arterial hypertension in the late 1990s when research was just beginning to develop therapies that were an alternative to lung transplantation treatments that provided hope. This true and inspiring story chronicles Maddie's twenty-year journey of courage and strength. Maddie was an example of determination to all who knew her. Even people who had never met Maddie were inspired by her story. Maddie not only battled pulmonary arterial hypertension but at the age of six she was diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia. Maddie conquered cancer and lived on to receive two separate lung transplants. Although this is a book about an amazing girl who rose above her adversity to live a full and happy life, it is also a book about discovery. This is a mother's story of how her daughter's pain and suffering became vehicles for uncovering her own inner strength and for learning valuable life lessons. The wisdom learned in these hard-gained lessons is what she calls difficult blessings. Ebony, 1964-12

Gloria's life and realities over shadowed emotions and beliefs. Never understanding purpose in life caused entrapment and devastation. She endeavored to advance in areas that she considered an improvement and quality of life. She went into negative situations denying the facts. Gloria wanted good and evil to blend. There was no mistake about her behavior. Her actions testified to what did or did not exist in her. The desires in her had to be satisfied. Those impulses could not come together equally in agreement; each one served its own purpose. One inclination was good and prosperous; the other was bad and destructive. The repercussions in life made her aware of choices she made which were either good or bad. Becoming consumed by evil surroundings, Gloria desperately needed an escape. She found it and her life totally changed. The acquaintances' desires, habits, emotions, and lifestyle became different than ever imagined. Negative thoughts, accusations that change could not occur, were found to be misleading. Thoughts of Gloria never being able to change her surroundings were misleading. Thoughts of everybody being the same and no way out were misleading. Thoughts that people who hated her cared for her were misleading. Thoughts that she could not succeed without the company she kept were misleading. Choices are revealed. In The Test of Time FDA Consumer, 2002
